honor and wore a full length gown of moss green georgette over tulle. It had a semi-empire bodice with matching satin bow, portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves. The matching headpiece was a double tiered veil topped with a rose. She carried a nosegay of daisy pom pom and lily with yellow streamers of satin.

The bridesmaids wore Mrs. Darlene Dixon, sister-in-law of the bride of New Bern, Miss Jane Strickland sister of the groom of Warsaw, Miss Kaye Harrell and Miss Jackie Liverman of Murfreesboro. Their gowns were fashioned like that of the matron of honor and were maize. They carried bouquets of white and yellow daisy pom poms with lily with moss green streamers of satin. Their headpieces were identical to the matron of honor and matched the dresses.

The flower girl, Miss Hope Dixon, niece of the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over sheer cotton and carried a basket of white petals. Her headpiece of white matched the other attendants.

James Strickland, Sr. was his son's best man. Ushers were Pete Del Priore of Norfolk, Va., Billy Vann of Richmond, Va., Billy Knowles of Warsaw, Joseph Dixon of Murfreesboro, brother of the bride and Thurston Dixon, also brother of the bride of New Bern.

The mother of the bride wore a green imported linen sheath with matching chantilly wedding lace over top with long sleeves; matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a maize dress of silk linen and lace, matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The three grandmothers, Mrs. W. L. Simmons of Sanford, Mrs. Floyd Strickland of Warsaw, and Mrs. Lula Dixon of Murfreesboro were attractively and appropriately dressed and wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

After the ceremony the bridal couple, the parents and attendants received in the vestibule of the church.

The couple left Monday for McCord Air Force Base, Tacoma, Washington where he will be stationed and continue his schooling in the Military Air Life Command of the USAF.

The bride is a graduate of Murfreesboro High School and has been employed at Murfreesboro Pharmacy. The bridegroom is a graduate of James Kenan High School, Warsaw and attended Chowan College in Murfreesboro, N. C.
