Duplin Native Finds Life In India Different

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kenneth Pye are now making their home in Benaras, India. Mrs. Pye is the former Judy Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland P. King of Kenansville and Teachey.

Mr. Pye, sponsored by the Ford Foundation, will teach concept of American Law at the Hindu University this year. Prior to this Mr. Pye was assistant dean in the Georgetown Law University in Washington, D. C. He was also instructor of a special law course at Duke University, Durham, North Carolina where he commuted each Saturday morning from Washington by plane.

The Pye's left California by plane and stopped at many points of interest enroute including Hawaii, Tokyo, Bangkok, and Thailand.

Many persons in India are at the point of starvation while the sacred cow, 120 million strong, must be fed and protected. Meats, when available, are pork and lamb.

Located near Tibet and the Gangee River, they find the country most interesting. The city stores have no ready-to-wear garments. Materials are available, also tailors are plentiful.

Their household consist of four servants; a housekeeper, a cook, a maid and a combination gardner-chauffeur. The chauffeur being probably the most important to Americans, as one must travel miles around if necessary, to avoid harming or even inconveniencing the sacred cow. If the cow chooses to sleep in the road he must not be disturbed.

Mr. and Mrs. King mailed their Christmas presents to their children this week as packages going to India travel very slowly. However, a post card airmailed from India may reach the Kings in a weeks time.

Soybean Referendum September 9

By: George S. Wellons Asst. Agricultural Extension Agent

ATTENTION: Duplin County Soybean Producers

Are your soybeans going to make 60 bushels per acre this year? No! Well, what will they make - 20, 30 or 40 bushels? If you produce less than 24.5 bu/A you are below the state average. If you only averaged 15 bu/A last year, you only broke even. What causes your low yields? Lack of lime fertilizer, poor seed, insects, diseases, no rain, too much rain, or you just don't know? You can do your part to do something about low yields.

On Friday, September 9, 1966 all interested soybean growers in Duplin County will get a chance to vote on a self-help program - not a give away. You pay, but you also receive things like better markets, more markets, higher prices, more demand, increased acreage, no surpluses, and more applied research to answer your every day production problem.

Car Fails To Take Curve, Heads For Shop

Marine Private James Martin Medart came to a screeching halt at a self imposed entrance to Carey's Body Shop in an early morning collision here Saturday.

Medart, and a fellow marine whose name was not learned, told Dr. O. L. Redwine that they were AWOL from Lejeune and had been to Fayetteville, on a tattooing spree. One marine said he had had four beers while the other only had three. The driver of the car said he did not see any signs any place posting the speed limit or any warning to slow down. A utility pole in front of the court house was clipped off as the car skidded 270 feet, apparently turning over one time and landing in an upright position in the edge of Carey's Body Shop

The corner post of the building was broken and three panels of glass about 6 x 6 feet were shattered. A hole was also knocked in the ceiling.

The owner of the building E. E. Kelly was not available for estimate of damages to the building. The mustang was a total loss.

Survey To Close Soon In Duplin

FAISON - The Employment Security Commission's mobile labor survey team concluded a 10-month study of Duplin County employment conditions here September 17.

Manager Robert Mooneyham announced Monday that members of the team will maintain an office in Faison and another in Kenansville until mid-September, then move to Bertie for a similar study of that county.

The survey has attempted to register all working and unemployed members of the area's work force. The largest study of this type undertaken by the mobile team, the Duplin survey at the end of August has registered nearly 6,000 persons. Nearly 1,000 job aptitude tests have been given, including those taken by some 300 high school students.

Duplin County voters, in a special election held August 27 approved a $2,155,000 addition to Duplin General Hospital by a 1127 pro to 365 con vote.

The addition to the hospital will include 50 beds, new x-ray facilities, a new physical therapy department, and complete air conditioning of both the new and the existing hospital facilities.

The issue approved proposed to sell $1,250,000 in bonds. A federal grant of $903,000 will boost the total to provide for the above expansion.

With the go-ahead signal from the voters, the County Commissioners are expected to appoint a building committee at their next regular meeting, September 6.

Dr. C. L. Quinn, Chief of Staff of Duplin General Hospital said.

"We the Medical Staff of the Duplin General Hospital wish to thank the Voting Citizens of Duplin County for the vote of confidence that they gave us on Saturday the 27th of August as well as for their foresight in approving the Bond Issue to finance hospital enlargement and improvement.

Now that we have a stronger and more attractive bargaining point, we will re-double our efforts to obtain the necessary Medical Specialist to practice at our hospital to provide broader, quality medical care for the Citizens of Duplin County.

We feel that with a capacity of 128 beds and with the distances we have to go to the next Medical Specialist in any direction, that we now stand a very good chance of obtaining a group of specialized trained physicians that make a hospital a place where the unusual diagnosis and the unusual treatment can be obtained. Speaking for the Medical Staff and on behalf of the present and the unborn generation of Duplin County Citizens, I wish to thank each and every person who supported the Bond Issue."

Dr. Blair Heads Good Neighbor Council

The Duplin County Good Neighbor Council unanimously elected Dr. J. S. Blair of Wallace as its new chairman. Dr. Blair's election came after an announcement of the resignation of Amos Brinson of Kenansville, who had led the organization since it was organized in 1965. Mr. Brinson attributed his resignation to increased demands of his business and other pressing needs for his time. During his tenure, Mr. Brinson opened up channels of communication between the races of Duplin whereby problems of highly emotional nature could be discussed in a calm and rational manner, and earnest efforts were made toward their solution according to R. E. Wilkins, who is 1st Vice Chairman of the group.

The council, elected to serve at the will and pleasure of the Board of County Commissioners, is composed of 29 members, and is designed to study problems in the area of human relations; To provide equality of opportunity for all citizens; To promote understanding, respect, and good will among all citizens; To provide channels of communication; To encourage employment of qualified people without regard to race; To encourage youth to be better trained and qualified for employment; To enlist the cooperation and assistance of all State and local governmental officials in the attainment of the objectives of the State Council.

"The program, to be effective, will require the support and cooperation of people of Duplin County," says Wilkins. "Duplin County has always aspired for a better life for all its citizens, and a common sense cooperative approach is needed to solve our common problems. The council members are convinced that our people want continued progress in human relations, and are
