

Pink Hill News

By: Mrs. Ann Ellis

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kenney attended Homecoming at Hebron Colony last week end. There was a fish fry Saturday night and a picnic dinner Sunday. There were approximately five hundred people in attendance and many interesting testimonies were heard. People from Florida and as far west as Texas attended. While there they visited Tweetsie Railroad at Blowing Rock.

Betty, Bobbie Brewer and Anne Tyndall visited friends at East Carolina College, Wednesday, September seventh.

Area students who left for East Carolina College Sept. 5 were, Nancy Hill, Susan Murphy, Craig Hill, Gerald Pickett, Larry Stroud, Lawrence Stroud, Rose Howard

Anne Tyndall left for University of North Carolina at Greensboro, September 9.

Betty and Bobbie Brewer leave for Meredith College in Raleigh September 11.

Mrs. Bobby Small and Mrs. Ronnie Taylor, Mrs. Clarence Kennedy, Mrs. Sue Hill, Mrs. Buster Smith spent last Sunday and Monday with their husbands at Fort Bragg.

The Methodist men met Monday evening at the church for a fine steak dinner prepared by the minister and the president of the club, Jasper Tyndall. Hugh C. Turner is their vice president, Luther Ledford serves as secretary-treasurer. Roy Swinson gave a fine talk on "Religion in the schools." There were sixteen men present.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith went to Rocky Mount on busness Labor day. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. King spent the week end at their cottage at Oak River. Their daughter and family were their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes, Melanie four years old and Tony eight years old.

Mrs. Warren Maxwell, Mrs. Lillian Mattern visited relatives in Wilson over the week end.

Mr. Warren Maxwell went to New Bern, Wednesday to visit his grandson Mike Whitley, who has been ill in the Craven County Hospital.

Mrs. Melvin Jones spent Wednesday and Thursday with her daughter Mrs. Johnny Holden in Jacksonville.

Larry Stroud has just returned from visiting a week in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He will enroll as a freshman at East Carolina College.

J. D. Jenkins is home on a thirty day leave from Germany. Fifteen more months of training will wind up his stay there.

Keith Hill is home on a ten day leave. He's been at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Mrs. Bessie Smith took Mertie Kornegay and Mary M. Herring to Chapel Hill, last Saturday for a check up at North Carolina Hospital.

Miss Connor Jones of Pink Hill left Stalling Air Base Tuesday, September 6 for San Francisco. She is sailing Wednesday on the P and O line to Australia, then on to New Zealand for a grand tour around the world. At the plane to see her off were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Turner, Mrs. T. A. Turner, Mrs. Melvin Jones, Mrs. Elsie Turner, and Mrs. Graham Turner.

Rev. Hood gave a fine sermon Sunday evening at the Presbyterian Church. He brought out that many of us are double minded and need guidance and help. Rev. Treadway will bring the message next Sunday evening at the Methodist Church. You all come!

Kenansville P W

Continued from page 3

law presided and made the opening prayer. Mrs. N. B. Boney presented the Monthly Emphasis on Christian Teaching after which Mrs. Troy D. Mullis moderated the Bible Study from the Book of Acts. After the Benediction a social hour was enjoyed. The hostess assisted by Mrs. G. V. Gooding served Angel Delight.

Mrs. Leo Jackson was hostess to Circle #2 on Monday night. The circle chairman, Miss Margaret Williams presided. The Bible Study moderator was Mrs. J. J. Wells, and Mrs. W. E. Craft presented the Monthly Emphasis. At the close of the meeting the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Martha Sitterson, served iced drinks and assorted cookies to the eight present.

At both circles the Women were reminded of the meeting of the Sixth District of Wilmington Presbyterian which will be held on Wednesday, September the 28th in the Pleasant View Presbyterian Church. The Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Frank Barfield of Mt. Olive is District Chairman and urges the ladies to attend. A highlight of the meeting will be the address of Mrs. Julia Lake Skinner Kellersberger who will tell of her Mission work in Africa with her late husband Dr. Eugene Kellersberger of the American Leprosy Mission.

Deaths

MRS. MAGGIE C. JONES

WARSAW - Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Chambers Jones, 74, who died Saturday, were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Quinn-McGowan Funeral Home by the Rev. Bill Crowder. Burial was in Pine-lawn Cemetery in Kinston.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Joe Crocker of Turkey, Mrs. Joe Windzigi of Kenilworth, N. J. and Mrs. Charley Godbold, Sr. of Warsaw; a brother, Robert Lewis of Warsaw. She was retired matron of the Caswell Training School in Kinston.

MRS. TEMPIE W. ANDERSON

WALLACE - Funeral services for Mrs. Temple Winders Anderson, 84, of Route 1, Willard, who died Saturday, were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at Beulah Free Will Baptist Church by the Rev. D. A. Bradshaw. Burial was in the Tate Cemetery near Mount Olive.

Surviving are four sons, Carlton Anderson of Willard, Elbert J. Anderson of Hopewell, Va., Robert D. Anderson of Silver Springs, Md. and John W. Anderson of Levittown, Pa.; four daughters, Mrs. Ozella Jones, Mrs. Carrie B. Helm and Mrs. Fannie Swann, all of Wilmington, and Mrs. Ethel Bonham of Charlotte a sister, Mrs. Lucy Coltraine of Mt. Olive; 29 grand children; and 42 great-grand children. She was a native of Duplin County.

Outlaw's Bridge

Mrs. J. M. Parker, Corres.

Miss Myra Marywell of Wilson is visiting her sister Mrs. B. F. Outlaw this week end.

Henry Clay Nobles is at State College in Raleigh for this year.

Miss Essie Mae Outlaw of Opa Loka, Florida, who has been visiting relatives this summer, has recently returned to her home.

Miss Barbara Grady is attending U.N.C.G.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Sutton and children and Mrs. Viola Sutton of LaGrange, Route 3, were among visitors with Mrs. Henry Parker Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Harold McCullom and children of Oak Ridge visited Mrs. Celia McCullem.

Mrs. W. M. Holt of Albertson and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Holt of Herring Store were among visitors with Mrs. Lottie Berger Sunday afternoon.

Deaths

SPEC. 5 MICHAEL FUSSELL

WALLACE - Funeral services for Spec. 5 Michael Kador (Mickey) Fussell, 24, who was killed by a car in Fort Riley, Kansas on Sept. 1, were conducted Thursday at 3 p.m. at Orinth Baptist Church, of which he was a member, by the Rev. E. F. Knight, pastor. Burial with military honors was in Rockfish Memorial Cemetery.

He was a native of Duplin County and had been in the Army six years. He had just completed service in Viet Nam. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Annie Williams Fussell; his parents, Carlisle and Maydell Savage Fussell of Route 1, Teachey, one brother, Gerald Fussell of Teachey; one sister, Phoebe Fussell of the home.

MRS. MARY ALBERTSON

BEULAVILLE - Mrs. Mary Ellen Albertson, 79, died Wednesday. Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Friday at Lyman Primitive Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. L. L. Yopp and the Rev. Frank Sawyer. Burial was at the family cemetery.

Surviving are four sons, Adyen and Dallas Albertson, both of Portsmouth, Va., William Albertson, of Wallace, and Murphy Albertson of Beulaville; five daughters, Mrs. Annie Sholar and Mrs. Letha Sholar, both of Wallace, Mrs. Malvard Murray, of Sanford, Fla., and Mrs. Guy J. Davis, of Fayetteville, and Sherry Albertson, of the home; two brothers, Lem and Isaac Brown, both of Chinquapin, and four sisters, Mrs. Mattie Brown, of Richlands, Mrs. Essie Brown, of Chinquapin, Mrs. Eunice Brown, of Beulaville, and Bertie Brown of Kenansville.

Dr. Pelt Back With Mt. Olive College

MOUNT OLIVE - Michael R. Pelt who returned this fall to the faculty of Mount Olive College as chairman of the Department of Religion, was awarded the Ph.D. degree by Duke University on September 1. Dr. Pelt did his doctoral studies in the department of religion and wrote his doctoral dissertation on "Textual Variation in Relation To Theological Interpretation in the New Testament." He began his sabbatical leave in 1963 after six years on the faculty of Mount Olive College.

He also served as dean from 1958 to 1962. Dr. Pelt, an ordained Free Will Baptist minister, was pastor of Hull Road Church, Snow Hill, North Carolina, before joining the faculty of Mount Olive College in 1957.

A native of Marianna, Florida, Pelt is a graduate of Chippola Junior College and holds an A. B. degree from Troy State College, Troy, Alabama, and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School, Durham, North Carolina. He is married to the former Betty Ethridge of Dothan, Alabama. They have four children, Cary, 12; Teresa, 10; Sharon, 8; and Julie Anna, 2 months.

Football Friday Night

Miss Theresa Massey daughter of Mrs. Fannie Massey of Roanoke Rapids, N. C. will be married September 23rd to Gordon Sherrill Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith, Richmond, Virginia.

JOHNNIE M. WILKINS

3D INFANTRY DIV., GERMAN - Army Private Johnnie M. Wilkins, 19, son of John W. Wilkins, Route 2, Box 301, Beulaville, N. C., was assigned to the 3d Infantry Division in Germany, Aug. 17.

Pvt. Wilkins, a wireman in Headquarters Battery, First Battalion of the division's 10th Artillery, entered on active duty in April 1966 and was last stationed at Fort Jackson, S.C. Wilkins is a 1965 graduate of Georgetown High School in Jacksonville. His wife, Lillian, lives on Route 2, Box 301.

AT BELK TYLERS - MOUNT OLIVE

NINE DAYS ONLY
SEPT. 15 THRU 24

"HEIRESS"

KID
LEATHER
PUMPS...

SO PERFECTLY
IN STEP WITH ALL OCCASIONS

SALE!

8.88

Usually 11.99

Heiress

Wear this lovely classic to the office, on shopping sprees, after 5. Goes everywhere so smartly—that's what you'll like about Scandal. Heels scaled to a most comfortable high-lo. Toes gently tapered. And, because you appreciate quality workmanship so, we use only select soft kid leathers... leather linings... leather soles. Marvels of softness, flattery. Start with black—but we promise, you'll be back for all the other lovely colors! Sizes 4-10, AAAA to C widths.

BELK-TYLER'S MOUNT OLIVE

Anybody here need a loan?

If your family is like most, this is the time of year when a low cost bank loan can really come in handy. Whether it's for a home modernization project Dad wants to get done, or for that dryer Mother needs for the winter ahead, or to put in a new bedroom for one of the children, a BB&T loan can make this fall one to remember.

BB&T
is your bank

BRANCH BANKING & TRUST COMPANY • North Carolina's Oldest Bank
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

I dropped everything for new

CAMEL
FILTERS

DROP EVERYTHING!!! REAL TASTE
JUST CAME TO FILTER CIGARETTES

Talk about real taste: Camel invented it half a century ago. And now, Camel brings you full, rich taste... famous Camel quality in a brand new filter cigarette.

Drop everything... Pick up Camel filters!