H. M. McLamb, Woodland Homecoming Speaker

Home coming services will be held at Woodland Methodist Church Sunday September 25 beginning at II a.m. The speaker Rev. Howard M. McLamb is a native of Sampson County, N.C. and a graduate of Clinton High School, Rutherford College, Duke University, and Duke Divinity School. He joined the North Carolina Methodist Conference in 1935, and has served the following appointments;

the following appointments; Pink Hill; Fairmont Church, Ralaigh; Aboskie; First Church, Hamlet; Jarvis Memorial,
Greenville; Davis Street Church, Burlington; and Superin tendent of the Goldsboro District. In June 1965 he went to his present position as Execu-tive Director of the Conference Board of Evangelism with head-quarters in Raleigh.

Mr. McLamb has taken a keen interest in evangelism and church extension. He helped start fifteen new churches including twelve while serving the Goldsboro District. He has promoted new churches mainly the church.

REV. HOWARD M. McLamb REV. HOWARD M. McLamb opportunity they provide. The end of all of our aiming and striving is to find, cultivate and win people to Christ and the church.

REV. HOWARD M. MCLAMB

Hoffler Chairman, Hospital Building Committee

Wallace Man Condition

Cyclist Seriously Injured

Jack Ivey, 28, of Route 2, his legs were in vain and both legs had to be amputated about conscious condition with both five inches below the knee.

National Spinning To

Present Scholarship

ASCS County Convention

The newly appointed building committee of Duplin General Hospital met Thursday, September 15 and elected J. W. Hoffler Chairman of the committee. Serving with him are: Lee E. Brown, Warsaw; Cecil Miller, Baulaville; F. W. McGowen, The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September.

conscious condition with both legs broken Sunday morning, September 11 about 8 o'clock.

The Honda that he was riding had gone down an embankment of Six Runs and had overturned, pinning him underneath, Ivey had been missing since Thurs-day afternoon.

Reports from Sampson Me-morial Hospital where he was taken were that efforts to save

The Warsaw Jaycees are happy to announce that the Warsaw Plant of National Spinning Company has donated an Educational Scholarship for the winner in the Miss Warsaw Beauty Pageant.

The $250 Scholarship will be

Following Shooting - Beating

Still in a semi-conscious state and unable to explain what happened, his vehicle was traced where it left the road and traveled about a foot beyond the pavement for about 100 feet and veered back on to the pavement. Leaving the pavement a second time, and going over the embankment, the cycle came to rest across both of his legs, presented by National Spinning in the upcoming Miss Warsaw Beauty Pageant to be held No-vember lith.

The Educational Scholarship

KENANSVILLE Oil Painting class schedule

Monday - 7:10 p.m. Tuesday - 2-5, 7-10 p.m. Wednesday - 9-12, 7-10 p.m. Thursday - 2-5, 7-10 p.m. Friday - 7-10 p.m.

Ceramics class schedule:

Monday - 9-12 Tuesday - 9-12, 7-10 p.m. Wednesay - 2-5

INSPECTION DE ADLINE

The inspection deadline for vehicles with license plates ending in the numeral NINE comes on September 30th,

ROCKFISH FOX CLUB

The annual meeting of Rockfish Fox Club will be held at Sampson Memorial Park (Taylor's Bridge) on Friday, September 23, 1966.

A hunt is planned for the west side of Highway U.S. 421, six to eight miles south from Climton. The hunt will start from the Park at 6 a,m. All hunters are invited to bring their best dogs.

dogs.

A barbecue lunch and business meeting will be held at the Park about noon.

FALL HAT SALE

Fireside Room Warsaw Methodist Church, September 29 and 30, October 1, from 10 a.m., til 8:30 p.m. Hats are $4.10 and $5,13, Sponsored by WS of CS.

ed to Page 2,

Whittles Injured

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Whirtle of Goldsboro, parents of Mrs. Joyce Bell of Kenansville, were involved in a wreck in Goldsboro Sunday night, Mrs. Whit-tle received a broken shoulder and head injuries. Mr. Whittle was less seriously injured. The car was a total loss.

Painfully Injured

Project

Junked

A contract let in August to screen or beautify junk yards in North Carolina including three in Duplin County was junked last week, The State De-partment discovered after the contract was awarded that they did not have the needed right-of-way for the work, and there is no provisions in present

Gilmore Plant and Bulb Co. of Julian, North Carolina was low bidder for screening junk ow bidder for screening junk yards in Duplin and several other counties. The commission has voted now to void the con-tract, since the highway right-of-way is not wide enough to allow the operation. Under exist ing laws there is no apparent

ing laws there is no appare legal way to acquire the need

Lady Bird's project will be abandoned until legislation can be passed giving the highway au-thority to acquire additional right-of-way.

Beulaville

Minister

Rev. David C. Hansley, Free will Baptist minister of Beu-laville, was painfully injured Thursday afternoon when a log fell on his leg, splitting the tibis bone into the knee joint. A group of people were working representations to the first people were working representations.

A group of people were working removing trees from the church site when a fourteen foot cut of a log about eighteen inches in diameter wedged. Upon release the log slipped and fell over Mr. Hansley's leg.

The Rev. Mr. Hansley was carried to Sampson Memorial Hospital where he is doing nicely, but reports say he will probably be hospitalized for some time.

Dr. Boyette To Re ceive Award Of Achievement

Dr. Edward L. Boyette of Chinquapin, North Carolina will receive an "Award of Achievement" from the North Carolina aving information and service from Dr. Boyette's Committee, Academy of General Practice at it's 18th Annual Meeting sche-duled at the Jack Tar Hotel, Durham, North Carolina on Oc-tober 29, 1966.

may be used by the winner at any institution of higher learn-Dr. Boyette has served on the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Academy of General Practice for the past three years. He has also held other important positions on commit-tees with the frame-work of the Academy, His outstanding leadership as Chairman of the Academy's Rural Health Committee, has gained national recognition. The Dr. Boyette was born and raised in Magnolia, North Caro-lina, He received his BS Degree from Wake Forest College in 1951, and his MD Degree from Bowman Gray School of Medicine in 1954, During World War II, Dr. Boyette served with the United States Navy. speak at a breakfast meeting and fashion show September

Draperies have been made for part of her new home and the radio station, She makes all of Gayle's clothes and part of

The Duplin Broadcasting Com pany has opened a new Broad-casting Station in Saint Paul and Mrs. Heath laid the ground work forthis project. Her time had to be divided between the two projects. The books for the new station are currently

Mrs. Heath, who is manager of the Wallace FCX Grain Market, shares his wife's love for the ocean and they spend every possible week end at their beach cottage. They enjoy water ski-ing, fishing, swimming and just being lazy in the sun. The radio station is making much progress under the capable leadership of this first lady manager as is the Chamber of being kept in Wallace.

Lady Bird's '66 Poultry Jubilee To Be Best Ever

North Carolina's first lady manager of a radio broadcasting station is Mrs. Grace Heath of the Duplin Broadcasting Company of Wallace. She is also President of the Wallace Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Heath says "There is really nothing to tell, I just have a job to do, and I do it." (Photo by Ruth Wells).

First North Carolina Lady

her own.

vice president.

Radio Station Manager

Among the many first that Duplin County has produced is Mrs. Grace Heath of Wallace, manager of the Wallace Radio manager of the Wallace Radio Station WLSE owned by the Duplin Broadcasting Company.

Mrs. Heath, a Kenansville native began her career as a radio station copy department employee. After two years she was promoted into the traffic and bookkeeping department, Working her way up through the programming log and time schedules, she became part time saleslady, correspondent and saleslady, correspondent and eventually manager, a position she handles with the greatest

"There is really nothing to tell," said Mrs. Heath, "I just have a job to do and I do it."

She makes it sound mighty simple and appears somewhat she does cram into a day's work. She has no help at home to keep the lovely new house the Heaths have built.

Gayle, says she assists by

The Democratic

An eleven year old daughter, casionally making a bed and walking Peanuts, the dog. Two freezers have been filled to capacity this summer.

meeting in Asheville Septem-ber 23 and 24 will hear three Duplin County natives speak at the 6th annual convention to be held in Battery Park Hotel. Banquet speaker September 23 will be Mrs. Margaret Price, Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Lt.

of ease.

The first day's program will include a forum on education. highway safety, beautification and fine arts. Among the par-ticipates will be Charles F.

Carroll, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; W. N. Ingram, Project Control Officer for the State Highway Commission; and Mrs. John D. Robinson, State Democratic National Committee-Woman who is also chairman of the Governor's Committee on Beautification

The Rose Hill Jaycees, aided by all other Civic organizations, and local citizens have a fun packed schedule arranged for their fourth Annual Poultry Jubilee, Be sure to take somedulge in Horse Shoe Pitching, or enjoy the preparation of the worlds largest frying pan, Some where along the line, time must be found to inspect the color TV that will be given away on over in the afternoon, The rules say you don't have to be present to win, but who could endure missing that?

Arthur Smith Show will entertain at two different show, one one with you to the Jubilee because one person cannot pos sibly take in everything.

Of special interest to many persons will be the cake show and sale. Proceeds from this sale will help finance the Spetain at two different show, one at 12 noon, and one later in cial Education Class now being taught in the Rose Hill School the afternoon.

The lovely lasses competing for the crown of Miss Poultry Princess will be relieved of their suspense at the show beginning at 8 p.m.

All in all it will be a wonderful day in Rose Hill.

enter again, so contestants put/ your best foot err-cake for-ward. While the ladies vie for the cake honors, the men may in-

Sharpe of Kenansville plans to Kenansville Methodist Home coming

The general public is extended a cordial invitation to attend the homecoming of the Kenansville Methodist Church on Sunday, October 2, 1966, The Guest speaker this year will be one of the former pastors, the Reverend J. W. Line-berger. Some of the appoint-ments that have been held by Rev. Lineberger are Faison-Kenansville, Chadbourn, Fu-quay Springs, Divine Street in Dunn and Centernary in New Bern, in June, 1962, Rev. Line berger was appointed as Super-intendent of the Methodist Home for Children, which position he still holds.

Sounds like a busy girl? Well she is also currently serving as President of the Wallace Chamber of Commerce, She had Mr. Lineberger graduated as salutatorian of his class in 1925 from high school in Rock Hill, South Carolina, He is a previously served the organization as secretary, then as graduate of Wofford College where he also has done graduate work. Mr. Lineberger attended Duke University for his religious studies.

Reverend Lineberger has held many offices in the North Carolina Conference. He has been at different times District

Oil Contract Awarded

Contract to furnish #2 Fuel Oil for County owned buildings was awarded to Edwards Off Company of Warsaw, who sub-mitted the lowest bid.

Other bids were submitted by Sinclair Refining Company of Charlotte. Cities Service Charlotte, Cities Service, Atlanta, and Brown Oil Company of Kenansville.

REV. J. W. LINEBERGER

Missionary Secretary of the Wilmington District, Raleigh District and New Bern District Member of the Board of Managers of the Pastor's School Trustee of Louisburg College, Reverend Lineberger has been active in the Rotary Club, Mr. Lineberger was bornFebruary 14, 1908 in Rock Hill, South Carolina, He was the second of five children. He is married to Allene Gable Lineberger is also in the ac-tive ministry of the Methodist

Auto Theft Popular Demo Women To Hear Duplin Speakers in Warsaw

Last Wednesday night a blue 1956 Chevrolet pickup truck was stolen from Walter Bostic's driveway, at his home in War-saw. The truck was parked adjacent to the front bedroom of the house which was unoccupied. Mrs. Bostic, from the

Continued to Page 2

Governor Bob Scott, State YDC President Bob Huffman, State Democratic Chairman, Tim Va-lentine and Buncombe Senator,

Herbert Hyde will also speak briefly. The Governor's wife will Super Dollar Stores, Inc. have leased a store building in the downtown business district at opening in October, according to opening in October, according to Mr. Leon Melvin, firm president. He said this would be the Continued to Page 2 auto while intoxicated, called and failed, $200 cash bond con-

Billy McCoy Byrd, speeding 71 mph in 60 mph zone, not Johnnie Lee Faison, posses-sion of materials for manufacture of non tax paid whiskey Did manufature non tax paid whiskey for sale, 12 months suspended, not violate any laws of state of N. C. for 2 years, pay $200 fine and cost.

Clarence Heal Smith, possession of materials for manufacture of non tax paid whiskey demned.

pros with leave.

Speeding Cases Lead Docket County

Judge Russell Lanier presided at regular term of County

Tickets On Sale For Fine Arts Concerts

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Tar Heel Fine Arts Society, Inc., was held at the Country Squire Restaurant to discuss the com-ing concerts. The first being ing concerts. The first being the Clompi-Withers Duo to be presented on Tuesday, October 18, 1966, at 8 p.m. in the Ke-nan Memorial Auditorium, This presentation and Karen Duke, a presentation and Karen Duke, a famous Folk Singer who is to appear on April 8, 1967, are booked for appearance here from Alkahest Attractions, Inc. of Atlanta Grownia of Atlants, Georgia, The Pine Arts Society

the programs to be presented. Any, industry, business, club, or individual who wishes to msor one of these concerts sponsor one of these concerts is asked to contact any member of the Tar Heel Fine Arts

ber of the Tar Heel Fine Arts Society.

Mrs. J. T. Gresham Jr.,
Warsaw is ticket sales chairman with James Brady as Assistant Chairman.

All members on the board of directors of the Tar Heel Fine Arts Society, Inc., for year beginning June 1, 1968 are selling tickets, See the ad and find where you may buy your ticket,

Court beginning September 6, running through the 8th. More than 100 cases were tried, the leading offender, speeding, followed by driving under the influence. Cases were tried and disposed of as follows:

James Arthur Stallings, operating auto while intoxicated and driving while license revoked, 6 months suspended, not operate motor vehicle for 12 months, not violate any laws of N. C. for 2 years, pay $200 fine and cost, remit $100 of fine, of line, Samuel Dewey Bradshaw, ope rating auto while intoxicated, pleads guilty to careless and reckless driving, plea accepted, pay $50 fine and cost.

Randolph Renan, speeding 75 mph in 60 mph zone and operating auto while intoxicated, 80 days suspended not operate motor vehicle for 12 months, new $100 fine and cost remit pay $100 fine and cost, remit

Donald Edward Johnson, exceeding safe speed and care-less and reckless driving, pray-er for judgment continued on payment of cost.

Lewis Donald Whaley, allowing a non licenses person to operate his auto, and carrying a concealed weapon, $200 cash bond condemned.

Clifton Allen Hardison, operating auto while intoxicated, and no operators license, $200 cash bond condemned.

cash bond condemned.

Kenneth Paul Boney, careless and reckless driving, nol pros with leave. Ernest Marvin Shepard, Jr. speeding 10C mph in 60 mph zone, 30 days suspended, not operate motor vehicle for period of 90 days, pay $50 and cost.

Clifton Savage, operating auto while intoxicated, pleads guilty to careless and reckless driv-ing, plea accepted, pay $50 fine and cost.

Alpha Glenn Sholar, operating auto while intoxicated pleads guilty to careless and reckless driving, plea accepted, pay $50 fine and cost.

Maurice Woodrow Hill, operating auto while intoxicated 90 days suspended not operate motor vehicle for period of 12 months, refrain from use of alcohol for period of 2 years, Pay $100 fine and cost, remit $75 of fine, John Lanier, worthless check $200 cash bond condemned.

Louise Ketchum Grooms, exceeding safe speed, pay cost, cost remitted M. F. Bostic, worthless check

M. F. Bostic, worthless check 60 days suspended, pay $1,041,46 for Department of Revenue, and pay cost by December 1, 1966. Joseph Benjamin Griffin, speeding 88 mph in 60 mph zone, pleads guilty to 75 mph in 60 mph zone, plea accepted by state, pay $25 fine and cost, Gilmore Jackson, operating and possession of non tax paid whiskey for purpose of sale, 12 months suspended, not violate any laws of N. C. for 2 years pay $200 fine and cost.

Robert Earl Jones, exceeding safe speed, pay cost.
Billy Oneal Best, tempority larceny, prayer for judgment

Continued to Page 2

Roba Pate

C-Faison

Hobart Bri

Alvin Stroud

Marvin Garris Cleo Outlaw

B-Cypress Creek

The Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Regular Member from each Community will meet at the Duplin ASCS County Office on Monday, September 26, at 9:30 a.m. to elect the County Committee for 1966-67. This convention is open to the pub-George Kelly E-Island Creek

The following men were elect ed to serve as Community Com-mittee in their township, These are in Chairman, Vice-Chair-man, and Regular Member or-der. Wilbert A. Hanchey Wendell Teachey Thomas Cavenaugh

F-Kenansville A-Albertson

O, R. Blizzard Thomas Chestnu D. F. Chambers

Roy McNeill Frank Barfield

D-Glisson

G-Limestone George R. Cowan Ervin Lanier Leonard Kennedy

Eugene Keith Carlton Ralph Bishop David O. Byrd

Continued to Page 2

from the victim full details of followed a football game be-Investigation is continuing in young Wallace man Saturday the assault - shooting of a night. The affray, immediately tical, Bobby is the son of Ran-ford Wells, manager of The Danca Theater.

tween Charity and Dunn in the Legion Stadium in Wallace, Bobby Ray Wells, former Bull dog player for Wallace-Rose Hill, is in Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville where his condition was listed as cri-

Unable to obtain information the incident are not known. A bullet from a 22 pistol entered just below his left breast and he was pistol whipped. A companion to Wells was shot at, but escaped injury.