tribution to help a young ministerial student.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Tom Stroud who graciously came to our aid in the study of the 1965 Bible Study Book. He opened with the hymn Love Divine, after which he pronounced the benediction.
The president, Mrs. Southerland served refreshments of peach and apple pie, potato chis and soft drinks.

Mrs. Shad Kornegay gave the devotion including scripture reading. Mrs. Glennie Rouse closed the devotion with prayer.

The vice-president, Mrs. Ratha Reardon, called the meeting to order, and presided over the business transactions which included the reading of minutes of previous meeting by Mrs. Marlon Murphy, and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Ruben Bishop. Orders for fruit cakes were taken and dinner arrangements made for the pastor and visiting revivalist during the coming revival.

Mrs. Helen Wallaer had charge of the program on "Tithing." She assigned parts to Mrs. Ratha Reardon, Mrs. Joe Wallace, Mrs. Shad Kornegay, Mrs. Nora Outlaw, and Mrs. Claudell Tyndall. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Joe Wallace.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Helen Wallace served refreshments to the 13 members present. Mrs. Addie Barden of Princeton was a visitor. Mrs. Fred Herring was received as a new member.
