Vets Day November 12th In Warsaw

Tradition continues in Warsaw with the observance of Vets Day, a celebration originating forty years ago, an outgrowth of World War I. Through the years many distinguished guests have attended the celebration including the late Clyde R. Hoey, former Governor of North Carolina and U. S. Senator Senator Sam Erwin was among the more recent guests. Last years parade, 11 1/2 miles in length, featured 106 entries and was estimated to have attracted fifteen to twenty thousand persons. Warsaw, North Carolina is known in virtually every state in the nation because of this celebration. The agenda for 1966 calls for fun and entertainment for every one with a parade beginning at 10:30 a.m. Featured will be queens from various organizations, floats from many business firms, High School bands, and military bands from the three nearby military bases. Of special interest to the many horse lovers in the area will be the horse show beginning at 1:30 p.m. The Rolling Acres Saddle Club will co-sponsor the show. The American Legion Beauty Contest will select Miss Vet at the National Guard Armory at 7 p.m. Climaxing the day will be the traditional dance. The Warsaw Jaycees will select Miss Warsaw Friday night at the Kenan Memorial Auditorium in Kenansville. Young Amusements, Inc., a carnival, will be in Warsaw the entire week. Warsaw extends you a cordial welcome.

Egg Industry Conference

All persons connected with the Egg Industry in Duplin County and surrounding areas, are urged to attend the Egg Industry Conference at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, November 2, 3, 1966. ROD AND REEL RETRIEVED

Sunday afternoon, Deputy Alfred Bayaden retrieved a stolen spinner reel and fishing rod in the Dobson Chapel area. The rod was in a parked car in the possession of Hoover Bright Faircloth and William Arch Edge, both of Autreyville, and was known stolen.

The rod was owned by W. L. Wrenn of Fugay Varina and had been lost at Surf City on fishing pier. It had identification on the rod.

Henry Edward Smith, 20 colored male, has been carried to Duke Hospital following a shooting on Route 2, Deep Run about 7 p.m. Friday night.

Smith was reported to have gone to the home of Bruce Garner of Route 2, Deep Run in a drunken condition and asked for food. Pauline Garner, wife of Bruce, fixed food for him, but instead of eating, he began molesting her 10 year old daughter. Pauline warned him to leave the child alone and when he continued she got the gun and shot. The loan entered the muscle of Smith's left leg between the knee and thigh.

Bruce Garner is employed by Lynwood Tyndall. He was hauling hay from the western part of the state and was not at home when the incident occurred.

Deputy Graham Chestnut and constable Bursell Holland are investigating.
