

Duplin Times

Straight from the Shoulder — Right from the Heart of Duplin

PROGRESS SENTINEL

VOL XXXIII NO. 43 NOVEMBER 3, 1966, KENANSVILLE, N. C. PRICE 10¢ PLUS TAX

Robbery at Carltons Crossing

The country store of H. O. Watson, about 4 miles south of Warsaw on highway 117, was robbed by two South Carolina teenagers Monday night about 7 p.m.

Rudell H. Osborne, 17, white male of 2812 Spurill Avenue, Charleston, and Charles Leroy Castine 15, white male of 2128 Melting Street Charleston, have been charged with assault and robbery in a warrant signed by deputy L. G. Jernigan, who with deputy Bill Quinn quickly arrived at the scene.

Watson told the deputies that the two boys walked up to his station and said their car had given out of gas just down the road. As Watson was drawing gas in a can he looked in gas in a can he looked in the station and one of the boys was in the cash register. As he made his way in the station he was assaulted by the other boy. He broke away and upon entering the station was knocked down, and both boys ran from the store. Officers from the sheriff's department arrived and descriptions were broadcast. About 8 p.m. the Warsaw Police Department notified the sheriff's department that two boys at the Warsaw Bus Station fitted the description. They were picked up, charged with the robbery, which they later admitted, and are in the Duplin County jail awaiting trial.

FLASH

As we go to press Deputy Bill Quinn informs us that the two boys involved in the robbery of Watson's Service Station at Carltons Crossing have admitted they stole a 1964 Ford near Park Shell Service Station near Charleston, South Carolina and wrecked and abandoned same near Hope Mills, North Carolina. Castine admitted stealing a 1966 Olds from a used car lot in Rocky Mount on October 30, which he abandoned near the Watson Station that was robbed in Warsaw.

VOTE

Interest is probably running higher in the upcoming November 8, voting than any recent off year election. Many of the office holders are facing competition, with Senatorial and Congressional races in some areas getting increasingly warm.

As an American citizen it is not only your duty to vote, but it is your privilege. Stand up and be counted for what you think is right. See that your neighbor has the opportunity to vote also. Sample ballots are shown on inside pages.

County Court

Judge Russell Lanier presided in County Court last week, handling down judgment in more than one hundred cases. The leading offender was speed. Eight of the fifteen persons charged with bootlegging in a raid in the Wallace area were tried and received suspended sentences.

The next County Court is set for Tuesday, November 1, 1966.

Edward Earl Basden, public drunkenness, resisting arrest and using profane language in public, nol pros with leave.

Allen Curtis Powell, speeding 90 mph in 55 mph zone and fail to have vehicle inspected, $10 fine and cost.

Emmer Chasten, possession tax paid beer for sale and did sell tax paid beer, 90 days suspended, $25 fine and cost.

Vernell Flowers, possession non tax paid whiskey, possession non tax paid whiskey for purpose of sale, nol pros.

Hazel Kenan, possession tax paid beer for sale and did sell tax paid beer, 90 days suspended, $25 fine and cost.

Mattie Jeffords, possession non tax paid whiskey, possession non tax paid whiskey for sale and did sell non tax paid whiskey, 90 days suspended, $50 fine and cost.

Hattie Carroll Patrick, possession tax paid beer for sale and did sell tax paid beer, 90 days suspended, $25 fine and cost.

Fred Patrick, possession tax paid beer for sale and did sell tax paid beer, 6 mos. suspended pay $50 fine and cost.

Lott Chasten, possession tax paid whiskey for sale and did sell tax paid whiskey 90 days suspended, $50 fine and cost.

William Henry Flowers, possession non tax paid whiskey, possession non tax paid whiskey for sale and did sell non tax paid whiskey, 90 days suspended $50 fine and cost.

Elizabeth Garner Parker, exceeding safe speed, nol pros.

Terry Curtis Brown, speeding 89 mph in 60 mph zone, $25 fine and cost.

Continued to Page 2

Sewer Bond Bids

An invitation for bids for $30,000 Sanitary Sewer Bonds for the Town of Warsaw has been extended. Sealed bids will be received until 11:00 o'clock a. m. on November 15. (See legal advertisement in this issue.)

BLOODED BOXSCORE ON N.C. HIGHWAYS

RALEIGH - THE Motor Vehicles Department's summary of traffic deaths through 10 A. M. Monday, October 31:

Killed to Date.....1939
Killed to Date Last Year...1298

BRIEFS

FINE ARTS ADDS FEATURE

The enthusiastic reception that has been given to the Tar Heel Fine Arts Society 1966-67 concert series as shown in the sale of tickets and the tremendous support received from the leading businesses and industries of the County is most gratifying. Originally planned were four programs for the season, but because of the wonderful support, it was possible to schedule an additional event—the 2d Marine Division Band Concert to be held on May 7, 1967.

FIRST BAPTIST, WARSAW, ORDAIN NEW DEACON

The First Baptist Church of Warsaw will have a special service this coming Sunday, November 6. Brooks Boyette will be ordained to the deaconship of the church.

Mr. Boyette was elected recently to serve in this capacity along with James F. Strickland, D. Y. Hollingsworth, and Paul Britt. Mr. Boyette will be serving his first term as deacon in a rotating system. His term of service will be three years. Messrs Strickland, Hollingsworth, and Britt have served prior terms on the deacon board.

Rev. Del Parkerson, pastor, urges a fine attendance at this special service. Mr. Boyette's many friends will want to be present. The service will take place at the First Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. on November 6.

Men Charged With Stealing Gasoline

George Edwards, white male, 41, of Route 1, Beulaville, and Hubert Whaley, white male 41, of Route 2 Richlands, have been charged in warrants by Jack Albertson with larceny.

The two were charged on information and belief by Jack Albertson, Deputy Sheriff, that they "did unlawfully, wilfully, take, steal, and carry away a quantity of gasoline from the farm of Hamp Baker, the said gasoline being carried away in a 1965 Oldsmobile belonging to Hubert Whaley, and driven by GEORGE EDWARDS."

Mr. Baker lives in the Cabin section of Duplin County near Beulaville.

Farm Bureau Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Duplin County Farm Bureau was held in the Agriculture Building in Kenansville, N. C. October 25, 1966 at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by President David J. Kilpatrick with a quorum of 64 members present.

Robert L. Worthington gave the invocation.

President Kilpatrick welcomed the members and briefly spoke on Duplin County Farm Bureau's participation for the year 1966.

The Treasurer's report was read by the secretary, Doris

L. Outlaw, and approved. Agency Manager R. L. Worthington gave a report on the business written in Duplin County through September 30, 1966.

President Kilpatrick gave a list of the gifts and gives and expressed appreciation to them for donating the gifts to Farm Bureau.

The Commodity recommendations were read and approved.

President Kilpatrick announced the State Convention to be held in Charlotte, November 13-16 with the following delegates being elected to attend: David J. Kilpatrick, Earl Powell, Ruby J. Grady, Sam J. Waller, Lewis Outlaw, Eva Kilpatrick, and O. R. Blizard. Delegates at large: Orlan James, Emmett Rogers, John N. Kaimar, and Mrs. Hess Davis, Sr.

Directors were elected as follows:

David J. Kilpatrick, President; Faywin Shaw, Vice President; O. R. Blizard, Donald K. Outlaw, Emmett Rogers, Ruby J. Grady, Ervin Lanier, Cecil Kornegay, James M. West, Orlan James, John N. Kaimar, George Dickson, David Byrd, N. Holmes Murphy, Elwin Wells Jack Patterson and Edd Monk.

The charred remains of a tumble dwelling where two men were burned to death early Sunday morning. Identified by an arm-band was Lonnie Glaspie. The only other person in the house at that time was Glaspie's nephew, Charlie Smith. Lonnie's wife, Clara Mae Glaspie, escaped before the house fell in on the two men. (Photo by Ruth Well.)

Two Men Perish As Fire Razes Home

An early morning fire destroyed a home and two men were burned to death Sunday morning as neighbors spent twenty minutes trying to get a telephone operator so a fire department could be called.

The victims of the fire were Lonnie Glaspie, colored male age 60 and his nephew, Charlie Smith, age 40. Mrs. Clara Mae Glaspie, wife of Lonnie also in the house, escaped.

The Kenansville Fire Department received the call about 6:30 Sunday morning. The fire alarm sounded for two minutes. The fire truck was leaving town before the alarm was completely silent. They were at the scene within eight minutes. The house had fallen in when they arrived and the woods were on fire. They focused their attention on the woods when they were informed that two men were in the modest dwelling. It took about ten minutes of moving debris before the first body was located. A second body was removed about ten minutes later.

Relatives at the scene said that Charlie Smith came to the home of Lonnie Glaspie very early Sunday morning entering the kitchen. Lonnie and his wife soon smelled smoke coming from the kitchen. They realized the house was on fire and fled the building. Once outside Lonnie realized that Charlie was inside and he re-entered the building and apparently was overcome by smoke.

Glaspie is survived by his wife, and a daughter, Lonnie Mae Thompson and a son Owen Glaspie, both of Jacksonville, a sister and several brothers.

Lonnie Glaspie, colored male age 60 and his nephew, Charlie Smith, age 40. Mrs. Clara Mae Glaspie, wife of Lonnie also in the house, escaped.

66 State Christmas Seal Chairman

Mrs. C. Gordon Maddrey, former president of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, and an organizer of the North Carolina Council of Women's Organizations will be the 1966 State Christmas Seal Chairman. The announcement was made by Dr. W. H. Gentry, President of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association.

In making the announcement, Dr. Gentry said, "We are indeed honored and fortunate to have Mrs. Maddrey lend her support to the Christmas Seal Campaign this year. Mrs. Maddrey is one of North Carolina's finest citizens with a genuine interest in people."

A native of Ahoskie, Mrs. Maddrey is a graduate of Meredith College with a M. A. degree in Political Science from Columbia University.

For thirty years, Mrs. Maddrey has been active in the work of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. She was Chairman of the Fine Arts Department, General Federation of Women's Clubs, 1962-1964.

Mrs. Maddrey is a devoted church worker, being a member of the First Baptist Church of Raleigh; member of the Board of Deacons; teacher of the Women's Bible Class; and President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

For five years Mrs. Maddrey was President of the 160,000 member North Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union and was the only woman elected to membership of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, a position she held for 9 years.

"The participation of Mrs. Maddrey in the campaign will help draw the attention of the state once more to the significance of people and the Christmas Seal in the fight against tuberculosis, emphysema and other respiratory diseases," Dr. Gentry stated.

Mrs. Maddrey is the wife of C. Gordon Maddrey, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and they have two sons.

Conservation Rally

The Fall Rally for area VI Soil and Water Conservation, will be held at Union Elementary School Friday November 4, at 6:30 p.m.

Pat Taylor, Speaker of North Carolina House of Representatives will speak on "America The Beautiful - Through Conservation."

Kenneth Futrell is supervisor of Duplin County, which is one of the sixteen counties in Area VI.

Hatch Estate Left to N.C. Baptist Group

The will of Miss Rachel E. Hatch was probated today in Chancery Court and her entire estate valued at $58,000. The entire estate was left to the North Carolina Baptist Convention.

Miss Hatch's will directs that the convention use the fund "in furtherance of its charitable purposes."

Miss Hatch, who died Oct. 6 at the age of 75, lived at 810 W. Grace St.

First and Merchants National Bank qualified as executor.

ECC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

GREENVILLE - The 89-piece East Carolina College Symphony Orchestra, the only resident symphony in Eastern North Carolina, will give its first concert at the 1966-'67 season on Sunday afternoon, November 6.

The program is scheduled at 3:30 p.m. in Wright Auditorium. It is free and open to the public.

David R. Serrins, in his fifth season as music director, will conduct the concert. He is on the faculty of the ECC School of Music which sponsors the symphony.

Tri-County REA To Meet In Goldsboro

Gwyn B. Price, Chairman of the North Carolina Rural Electrification Authority, will be the main speaker at Tri-County EMC's 8th annual meeting Saturday afternoon. "Keeping Pace with Progress" will be the topic of Price's address. Price, native of Ashe county, has been Chairman of NC-REA since 1941.

Tri-County members will also hear reports from officers of the Corporation and there will be an election of Directors.

Following the business session, there will be a drawing of attendance prizes for registered members of the Cooperative. Some $1,000 worth of prizes will be given away, prizes will be given away, including a color television set and an electric range.

Registration for the meeting begins at 12 noon in Goldsboro High School auditorium for the program starting at 1:30.

Tri-County EMC serves approximately 700 members in Duplin, Wayne, Lenoir, Johnston, Jones, Sampson and Wilson counties.

All sorts of goblins, and ghosts were out Monday night in Kenansville "trick or treat". The group who called on Mrs. Roe Green in Kenansville were James Smith (standing) L to R Reba Whitman, Teresa Whitman, Mrs. Greene, Charles Smith, Frankie Quinn and Sylvia Whitman. (Photo by Gene Pierce)

Mrs. Harry K. McDonald, Vice Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, Senator Sam Ervin, Governor Dan K. Moore, and Mrs. David Henderson (Mrs. Ervin) as Senator R. Everett Jordan delivers the featured address at the Democratic Rally. More than 700 democrats attended the rally for the third Congressional District held in the Warsaw National Guard Armory.