Duplin County Scout News

November 12 was the scene of the Warsaw Veterans Day Parade. Through the efforts of the Boy Scout Organization, over 125 American Flags were unfurled and waving. Scouts were prevalent in the parade itself with participants from the following units: Kenansville - Pack 149, sponsored by the E.E. Smith school, with James Henry as Institutional Representative and Plumie Graham as Denmother; Pack 50, sponsored by the Kenansville Trojan Club, with John Hall as Institutional Representative. The following are the unit leaders: Jim Middleton, Cubmaster; Bill Faust, Scoutmaster; and Bill Crowder and H. C. Allen, Explorer Advisors. Congratulations to Troop 20 for winning first place in the float competition.

PROJECT FREE ENTERPRISE COMING UP

The free enterprise industries and business once again have teamed up to sponsor Project Free Enterprise. Nearly 50 Explorers and Senior Scouts (4 years and older) from throughout Duplin County and Mount Olive were present on November 8 at the Four County Electric Building in Rose Hill to hear P. B. Ralford, Chairman of Project Free Enterprise, brief the participants on all the facets of the project. The project is scheduled for November 16 and will culminate its activities at the Free Enterprise Banquet held at the Goldsboro Motor Hotel.

LOCAL SCOUTS APPROVED FOR WORLD JAMBOREE

Six Boy Scouts and Explorers have been approved to attend the World Jamboree as representatives of the Tuscarora Council, B.S.A., N. H. Carter, member of the Council World Jamboree committee, announced today.

The World Jamboree will be held at Farragut State Park Idaho, from August 1 to 9, 1967, the first time that the Boy Scouts of America have served as host to this type world wide encampment.

The World Jamboree Scouts were interviewed locally, and their applications were reviewed by a special committee representing Region 6 of the Boy Scouts of America before being approved.

While the Scouts are at the World Jamboree, the Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts in the Duplin District will hold friendship campfires as a part of a world wide observance of the 60th anniversary of the founding of Scouting. The first Boy Scout camp was held as an experiment on Brownsea Island, off the coast of England, from August 1 to 9, 1907, Carter said.

Carter explained that in addition to meeting age and Scout rank requirements, the World Jamboree Scouts are proficient in campcraft, have a general knowledge of world conditions and the history of the United States, and are able to state clearly the fundamental principles on which the United States was founded.

Pink Hill News

By: Mrs. Ann Ellis

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Swinson, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis attended the University of North Carolina, Air Force game at Chapel Hill Saturday. The sun broke through on the third quarter. Many people were buying umbrellas at the ten cent store, because of the dark skies the Air Force topped U.N.C. 20 to 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Turner, Mrs. J. M. Jones were involved in a two car collision Sunday afternoon at Outlaws Bridge. They were on their way to Goldsboro to attend the funeral of Mrs. Corbett Howard, wife of Dr. Howard. Mrs. Lynwood Turner is suffering from a sore neck and chest. The rest of the party had skinned legs. They believe that a sign post saved their lives. They would have turned over and over if it hadn't been for the sign post. Mrs. Lynwood Turner said to me this morning that "it's only by the Grace of God that they all were alive!"

Mrs. J. M. Jones and Mrs. Etta Turner left for New York City Monday morning at 7 p.m. by bus on a theater tour. They arrived in New York at 3:30 p.m. and will stay until Friday.

Mr. L. H. Turner left Monday morning for Bowling Green Kentucky on the tobacco market. He will be back for the Christmas Holidays.

Mrs. Peggy Ellis from Wilson spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grady.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kornegay visited in Goldsboro Sunday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Corbett Howard.

Mrs. Layton Cochran and children Low, Pat Beth visited the Alvin Kornegays over the week end. They are from Robertsonville.

Lt. and Mrs. W. G. Simmons visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Simmons Tuesday night. The new baby girl, Barbara Suzanne, was also present.

CHURCH NEWS

Rev. Hood had a fine message Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church. He spoke of John 21, the topic being "Christ Questions Peter Concerning His Love." Mr. Hood brought out that the Lord knows if we love Him, or if it's just lip service. The church shouldn't be religious clubs interested in membership, but a body of believers called to save a world from sin and destruction.

He brought out that lost sheep can never find that hole they escaped through, but have to have someone lead them back which should be the laymen's job too, not just the pastor.

The combined Thanksgiving program will be at the Presbyterian Church, this year, Wednesday, November 23 at 7:30 p.m. Roger Pickett will bring the message. The other teenagers from the church of God and Presbyterian Church will be responsible for prayer, responsive reading and reading of scripture.
