FOOTBALL CONTEST WINNERS

Winners in the football contest, ninth week, Milton Costin of Warsaw, Route 2; and Z. W. Frazelle of Kenansville.

Both Costin and Frazelle missed three games but the points, between the two entries gave a first and second place winner. Most points scored by a team was 42 by Boston University over Delaware (42-14) Costin had 41 points while Frazelle totaled 44.

Costin will receive ten dollars in cash as the first place winner, and Frazelle will get five dollars in cash for second place.

Costin now joins Bill Potter, Nancy Stevens, Dorothy Wishart, Harriett Watson, and R. J. Lanier for the Pro Bowl Classic tickets, plus one hundred dollars for expenses to the game scheduled in the Orange Bowl, January 8, 1967.

Carlton, Luther O'Quinn, Playing from Burgaw Elotus Reade, Nancy Taylor, and Sadie George. Lynwood West declared bicycle champ. I think.

Sports Highlights

NOVEMBER 19

This is the week that ISI Number One meets Number Two in what cannot be billed as just forecast for the Notre Dame-Michigan State headliner is based on the following: The Irish have a past performance power quotient of 123.9; the Spartans' power quotient is 112.5. Since our paper statistics have proven to be correct in about 75% of the college games again this year, we'll crawl slowly out on that creaking old limb of ours and pick Notre Dame to win the Big One by eleven points.

Some of the glitter has been taken away from the struggle between 7th-ranked Southern Cal and 10th-rated U.C.L.A. as a result of their respective losses to Miami and Washington. However, with both the conference title and the Rose Bowl at stake, it's pretty sure to be another tough one for coronary sufferers. The Trojans will nip the Uglans by three, and take the West Coast title into the Rose Bowl come January 1st.

Southwest Conference leaders Arkansas and S.M.U., ranked 4th and 18th respectively are favored to remain deadlocked for the title. The Razorbacks will trim Texas Tech by 27 points, and the Mustangs will barely buzz by Baylor by four points.

And the rise of the Rebel continues! Mississippi, ranked ninth this week among the nation's elite, will whip the Commodores of Vanderbilt by 26. Purdue, #11, assured of being the Big Ten's representative in the Rose Bowl, will close out one of its finest seasons with a three-touchdown win over Indiana.

Wyoming, #17, will blitz Brigham Young by nine points, and Colorado, in 19th, will chop up the Air Force by thirteen.

The remaining three members of the Top 20 should win without too much difficulty. 14th ranked Tennessee is 22 points stronger than Kentucky...Syracuse, rated 15th, will whip West Virginia by 21...and 18th-ranked Miami is favored to cut down the Iowa Hawkeyes, winning by 21 points.

Looking ahead for a quick most to the club in the past year.

The exciting golf tourney enters the finals this week. In the championship flight Harvey Reinhardt, the top choice to win, from Mount Olive, takes on Warsaw's long ball hitting Gerald Quinn of Quinn Wholesale. Reinhardt, golf coach at Southern Wayne, and former Assistant Pro at Hillsboro Country Club will tee up at one o'clock Saturday afternoon to determine the new club champion with Quinn a real ardent IGA performer.

In the first Flight C. J. "Bantam" Thomas of Magnolia will battle Mount Olive's Jack Williams. The Bantam, an automatic shot with each club, plays with perfection on each drive.

Considered by the best golfers around as the outstanding amateur putter in this section of the state, Williams, a real strong young golfer, can drive the ball a country mile...should be one of best towsome ever seen playing together at DCC.

Pro Marvin Watson declares the match between Reinhardt-Quinn and Thomas-Williams should be without a doubt two of the best teams ever matched at Duplin CC.

In the second flight two very fine golfers lock horns in what could be a battle for the flight trophy...since its the finals. Big strong Ward Carlton will scrape North Magnolia's best in Bill Potter. Carlton, a cross-hander, drives each shot a mile. Potter, a middle age swatter beats it around like most duffers, but don't sell him short, as he is, because he is real tough around the greens...with a bush ax. Should be real good match.

In the third flight the Big "B's" go at it in Warsaw's Roy Barwick and Colonel Gris Buck, Barwick, with the million dollar swing, will try to take a little edge off the high ranking colonel. Of course if rank went on the links like it does, you know where, Barwick, better find some way to fall of the cart and break his toe. Should be third best match in finals.

PRO SHOP REPORTS: Words out among Warsaw attorney has fallen and may hear bells, not christmas bells either. The Syracuse kid has been out playing golf with the girls. The hands seem to be a little better since the semifinals...Bill Spicer was playing this past week end with George Penny and son Carl. Good to see Bill and the Pennys playing again. An eight inch putt has kept one lawyer awake the past several nights. Low score of the week for nine holes...Ward Carlton fired a one-over 37. Eliminated in tourney our week end R. D. Johnson, Joe Costin, Nelson

Tobacco Bed Fumigation

LET US TREAT YOUR PLANT BEDS FOR

We use the new method of injecting gas into the soil.

We furnish everything—labor, covers, and gas. You break your bed and put in the fertilizer. We do the rest.

New Plastic covers left on your bed are your property. You can use them later to protect your bed if an extreme cold spell comes. You will have plastic covers for all your yardage.

All plant beds treated are guaranteed to be treated properly and if failure occurs because of material or workmanship such beds will be treated free of charge.

We recommend that you let us treat your bed early and leave the cover on until a few days before sowing to protect bed from blow-in seed, and getting too wet. In this way you get better treatment, your fertilizer won't leach, and you can sow anytime you want to.

Your beds left in perfect condition for Sowing.
