BRIEFS

Thieves Hit Wallace Area

Sheriff T. Elwood Revelle's deputies are investigating a robbery at the farm of Woodrow Smith of Wallace, located on the River Road, a truck backed up to his barn and helped themselves to an estimated 100 bushels of shelled corn and six or seven cured hams. Deputy Glenn Jernigan is investigating.

Home In Warsaw Looted

John McIver of Warsaw reported to the sheriff's department that his home was broken into and robbed of the following items: three $25 savings bonds, a .38 wooden handled pistol, $15 in small change, $7.00 in Kennedy half dollars, 3/4 a bottle of Scotch, 14 cans of beer, part of a smoked ham, some old coins, two pennies and one dime.

The McIvers said that they were away for the week end, leaving Friday afternoon and returning Monday afternoon to find their house had been ransacked. Deputy Graham Chestnut is investigating.

HELP PLEASE!

Could you please help a family in distress, at this Christmas time.

The mother has been sick and hospitalized for several months. The father had a job, but he didn't make enough to provide for his family and hire someone to take care of the children, so he stayed at home to look after them. The four months old girl won't realize too much about Christmas but a two year old boy is looking for Santa Claus. If you have anything you want to contribute to the family, please contact the Health Department in Kenansville.

Booze-Car-Pavement Bad Mixture

Julia Francis Price of Route 2, Richlands was committed to Kenansville jail in lieu of a $300 bond after a hearing before Justice of the Peace, W. J. Sitterson. She was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and without a valid operators license, following a wreck about two miles east of Beulaville Monday about 4 p.m.

The car was reported to have skidded and for a time traveled down busy highway 24 side-ways eventually landing in a ditch. The driver was treated at Onslow County Hospital and released to Deputy Alfred Baysden.

Duplin Boys Nominated To Air Force Academy

Vice-president of Branch Banking and Trust Company, Warsaw, North Carolina, who is a Key Banker for Duplin County, has announced that the banks of Duplin County will offer two scholarships to the Modern Farming Short Course to young Duplin County farmers. Farming is changing very rapidly. The short course should be very helpful to young farmers who attend, bringing them up to date on the latest things in agriculture.

THE PROGRAM
The program covers broad areas of interest to agricultural leaders and specific commodity information. The first two hours of each day will be devoted to topics of broad interest such as:
Agriculture - the Basis of Wealth, Agriculture Tomorrow, Potentials for Food Processing in N.C., Use of Computers in Agriculture, The Role of Pres-

Congressman David N. Henderson today announced that he has nominated Clarence Leon McNeill and Donald Ray Edwards as candidates for admission to the United States Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado. Henderson said that he uses the competitive system for nominations to the Air Force Academy and that young McNeill and Edwards will have their qualifications judged competitively with four other young men nominated by Henderson from the Third Congressional District, with officials of the Air Force accepting for admission as a cadet the nominee with the highest qualifications.

McNeill is a graduate of James Kenan High School and presently serving with the United States Air Force, stationed at the Defense Language Institute, Presidio of Monterey, California. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Walker McNeill of Warsaw. Edwards is a senior at East

Car Skids Causing Fatal Accident

Rain-slick roads was the apparent cause of a two-car wreck on the curve near Bear Marsh Church Monday about 6 p.m., that took the life of a young man, married less than one week.

Larry Joe Pate, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Pate met death on his way to a National Guard meeting in Mount Olive when his 1960 Corvair skidded into the path of 1963 Ford driven by Mrs. Carl Ginn of the Friendship Community near Warsaw. Both cars were demolished.

Riding with Mrs. Ginn was her three-year old daughter, Elizabeth Dianne who was hospitalized in Duplin General Hospital with both legs broken. Two other children, Mike and Cindy Ginn, were uninjured.

Pate died prior to admission to Duplin General Hospital. He was employed at National Spinning Company and a graduate of North Duplin High School. He is survived by his wife, the former Janice Lynn, his parents, a brother, Donald Pate and three sisters, Mrs. Preston Grady of Chase City, Va., Judy Pate of S. E. Nurses School in Lumberton and Nancy Pate of the home.

The personnel of Duplin County Board of Education moved into their lovely new home this week. The facilities were constructed by Dixie Construction Company of Wallace at an approximate cost of $125,000. It contains eleven offices, a secretarys pool for twelve, and assembly room, and a small conference room. Modern in every respect it is equipped with an electric heat pump. Still unfinished is the parking area which will be paved and shubbery will be planted. (Photo by Ruth Wells)

The farm census will be taken by the List Takers as they list 1967 taxes. All farmers are urged to be prepared to give this information when listing 1967 taxes.

Wallace Native Retires From Air Force

DAYTON, Ohio - Colonel Francis W. Campbell, whose wife, Muriel, is the daughter of Mrs. W.J. Slattery of 809 Ocean Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., was decorated with his second U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal during his retirement ceremony at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio.

Colonel Campbell, who has more than 25 years service, was awarded the medal for meritorious service as chief of the Air Force Logistics Command plans office at Wright-Patterson.

He was cited for his outstanding professional skill and initiative which aided in identifying and solving problems encountered in the accomplishment of his duties. The application of his knowledge contributed to the success of his unit's mission. Commissioned in 1941 through the aviation cadet program, the colonel served in the Caribbean and Pacific during World War II. Colonel Campbell, brother of J. David Campbell of 30 Cliff St., Wallace, N. C., is a graduate of Wallace High School. He received his B. S. degree in electrical engineering from the University of North Carolina and has studied at the Air Force Institute of Technology, Wright-Patterson. He was graduated from the Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, Va., in 1956.

Alternate West Point

Congressman David N. Henderson today announced that he has named William Nelson Outlaw, Jr., an alternate nominee to the United States Military Academy, West Point, New York. As an alternate nominee, young Outlaw's actual admission to the academy as a cadet in June of 1967 will be subject to his successfully meeting the rigid academic and physical requirements as well as being contingent upon whether those having nominations of higher priority meet those standards.

Henderson noted, however, that his past experience had been that the overwhelming majority of his nominees admitted
