

Summerlin's Crossroads

PERSONALS

By Mrs. Carl Ivey

Mrs. Paul Herring and Richard of Wilmington visited Mrs. Bessie A. Herring and Mrs. Ethel Sykes during the week end.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jernigan recently were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Southerland, Eva Jan and Danny of Rocky Mount, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Chambers of Kenansville, Mrs. Preston Bostic and Miss Virginia Kilpatrick of Magnolia, and Mrs. Robert Grady of the Oak Ridge Community.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bell visited relatives of Raleigh Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey were among those attending the fifth wedding anniversary in the honor of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Swinson held at their home near Warsaw Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Alphin, Sr., Mrs. E. J. Summerlin, Joan Summerlin, Mrs. Foye Goodman, Mrs. Jack Watson, and Miss Colon Garner were among those attending a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Patricia Bell Davis held at the Pleasant Grove Community Building Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grady and Lynn of Raleigh, the Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Whitfield, Steve and DeJie of Clinton were guests during the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Whitman.

Mr. and Mrs. Cresson Ivey Sr. attended a Lincoln's Day Dinner held at the Goldsboro Hotel, Goldsboro Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Outlaw of Kinston and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers visited Johnny Outlaw, patient at the South Wing of Duplin General Hospital Kenansville, Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. DeWayne Eakes of Goldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bell and James were guests Sunday of Mrs. Annie Rose Bell of Mount Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Rhodes and Michael Wade of Garner spent the week end with Mrs. Cyrus Rhodes.

Mrs. Carl Ivey visited Mrs. Annie Ingram of Kenansville Thursday.

Mrs. A. B. Goodson and Dennis of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grady and daughter of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Jernigan of Kenansville, the Rev. and Mrs. DeWayne Eakes of Goldsboro, Mrs. Ralph Britt and James Ralph of Beaufort, Mr. and Mrs. Geddie Jones and children of Rones Chapel visited Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jernigan during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Goodman and family of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Adron Goodman and children of Mount Olive were guests Sunday of Mrs. Foye Goodman, Janice, Marilyn and Jimmy.

Mrs. Willard Pate is a patient in the Duplin General Hospital Kenansville.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Cherry visited his mother, Mrs. W. D. Cherry and Mr. and Mrs. George Strickland and family of Seven Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Colon Garner, Danny, Betty, Joan and Sammy were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lane of Mount Olive, Samuel Alan and Pamela Gay Brown of Warsaw spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brown attended a meeting in Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Kornegay Kornegay and Edith of Mount Olive visited the Iveys on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bell visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deans and Robert III of Wilson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Westbrook of Albertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ivey and Edna were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Ivey and Ginger Jo of Garner.

Mrs. Annie Raynor, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Raynor of Warsaw visited Mrs. Ella Outlaw and family Sunday.

Mrs. Buckner Summerlin, Mrs. Albert Farror, Mrs. Bobby Bell, and Mrs. Lula Bell all of the Beaufort Community were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Colon Garner, Walter Hinson, Jr. student at East Carolina College, Greenville spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hinson, Sr.

Mrs. Ella Outlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Outlaw and Erlene visited Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Martin of Mount Olive Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grady and Lynn of Raleigh, Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Whitman were dinner guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Britt of Beaufort.

Mrs. Charles E. Goodson of Greenville, Mrs. Ben Grady and Mrs. Garland Alphin of Bethel visited Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jernigan Monday.

Mrs. Marvin Cherry of Rones Chapel, and W. D. Cherry of Mount Olive were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Cherry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cook of Mount Olive, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Outlaw of Mount Olive visited Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Goodman and Kaye Sunday.

Airman Ronald Cherry of Goldsboro spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Cherry.

Mrs. Martha Outlaw of Mount Olive is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Goodman and Kaye.

Rooty Branch

The 30th birthday of the Women's Auxiliary of Rooty Branch Free Will Baptist Church was observed February 10, with members, and their husbands attending. A birthday supper is held annually in the fellowship hall of the church located in the Summerlin's Cross Roads Community.

The Valentine motif was used in decorating. The refreshment tables were covered in red linen cloths. Decorations included an arrangement of white gladiolus, mums, fern, red carnations and hearts. A lovely birthday cake completed the setting.

A program was given prior to the supper. Mrs. Carl Ivey was in charge of the devotions, and Alan Brown led in prayer.

The menu consisted of Barbecue pork, slaw, hush puppies, yams, chicken stew, liver hash, coffee, soft drinks, and pork.

U. D. C. Contest

Junior High School Students (Grades, 7th, 8th, and 9th)

- $10.00 for best essay on "Life of Sidney Lanier, confederate soldier, musician, and poet."
- $10.00 for the best essay on "Confederate Hospitals."
- $10.00 for the best essay on "The Closing Days of the War and the Surrender at Appomattox."
- $10.00 for best essay on "The Life of Zebulon B. Vance, war governor of North Carolina, 1861-1865."

ELEMENTARY STUDENTS:

- $10.00 for the best drawing of the "Flags of the Confederacy" with a short story of each.
- $5.00 for the best essay on "The Children and Home Life of Jefferson Davis, Confederate President."
- $5.00 for the second best drawing of "Confederate Flags."
- $5.00 for best essay on "The Famous Horses, and the Part Played by all Horses in the War Between the States."

For all students from 8th through 12th grade, $50.00 offered to the student for the most books read in confederate history with a short write-up of each book.

ESSAY CONTEST RULES

1. Winner of prize is not to compete again for same prize.
2. All essays and drawings will be judged by extent of research, originality, accuracy of statements, and excellency of style.
3. Send original copy and keep carbon for yourself.
4. Attach bibliography and other source material to insure authenticity of information.
5. Essays should not be too long or too brief, not over 2500 words nor less than 1000 words. Number of words must be stated at top left hand corner of the first page.
6. Essays must be typed and signed by fictitious name. Real name and address of writer and school must be placed in a sealed envelope and clipped to the essay. Grade, fictitious name, and subject should be written on outside of envelope.
7. Winners essay will be property of the division. Postage must be sent if return of other essay (no n winners) is requested.
8. The term "Civil War" should not be used in referring to the "War between the States."
9. All contest essays and drawings must be sent to Mrs. Paul B. Potter, Historian, James Kenan Chapter, U.D.C., Warsaw, N. C. Zip Code, 28386, on or before 15 April, 1967.

Mrs. Elbert James Davis, Jr.

Wedding Announced

Miss Patricia Ann Bell became the bride of Mr. Elbert James (Jimmy) Davis, Jr., on Friday, February 3, 1967, at 6:30 p.m. in the Bear Marsh Baptist Church parsonage, The Reverend R. H. Kelly, Pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Only members of the immediate family attended.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Retha Bell of Route 2, Mount Olive, and the late Mr. Johnny Willbert Bell, Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Elbert J. Davis also of Route 2, Mount Olive.

The bride and groom entered the living room together. Their wedding vows were spoken before an improvised altar setting of palms, centered with an arrangement of white glads, mums and snaps and flanked on either side with burning white tapers.

For her wedding Miss Bell chose a winter white two piece suit with black patent accessories.

She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Bell chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue dress with a beaded trim and matching accessories. The mother of the groom was attired in a green brocade ensemble with matching accessories. They wore a corsage of orchid glads.

After a short wedding trip the couple are making their home on Route 2, Mount Olive, with the groom's parents.

The bride is a graduate of B. F. Grady High School and is presently employed by Branch Banking and Trust Company in Warsaw. The groom is a graduate of North Duplin High School and is presently enrolled at James Sprunt Institute, Kenansville, North Carolina.

U. D. C. Meets

The James Kenan Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met at the home of Mrs. Emma Chambers, Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs.

Shower Honors Mrs. Davis

Mrs. Jimmy Davis, the former Miss Patricia Bell, was honored with a miscellaneous shower at the Pleasant Grove Community Building on Saturday night, February 11.

Guests were greeted and registered by Miss Sally Ruth Summerlin who also led the group in several games.

Refreshment were served from a table covered with a red linen cloth and overlaid with a white lace cloth. The center arrangement was of white snaps, mums and red carnations with burning red tapers, carrying out the Valentine motif. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Retha Bell, mother of the bride. Other refreshments consisted of bridal cookies, nuts, and heart shaped mints.

Mrs. Davis received many useful gifts from the approximately 30 guests attending.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Colon Garner, Joyce Jones, James Herring, Cyrus Rhodes, J. W. Bell, Jr. and Reba Jones.

Kathleen Snyder as co-hostess. Mrs. Fred J. Baars, president presided.

The ritual was led by Mrs. J. C. Brock, chaplain. Mrs. N. E. Boney led the pledge and salute to the flags.

Mrs. Woodrow W. Blackburn, gave an interesting report on the Duplin County Historical Society Meeting, stating that the children of the Confederacy attended the historical luncheon held in Wallace recently, where they met Mr. John Newton who showed slides pertaining to the Beautification of cities.

A program on Sidney Lanier, poet, born in Macon, Georgia, February 3, 1842, was interestingly given by Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr.

"Not only in our fair southern but in the farthest corners of our nation, New York and New Jersey, in the east, Ohio, Michigan and Minnesota, in the north, Washington, Oregon, and California in the far west, thousands of members of our beloved organization, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, are pausing to pay tribute to Sidney Lanier, the south's most beloved musician and poet, on the 125th anniversary of his birth.

United Daughters of the Confederacy are rejoicing today, because of the honor - the highest honor that comes to any man - has been conferred upon Sidney Lanier, in the placing of his portrait in bronze in the Hall of Fame in New York University.

After thirteen years of con-

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

TO BE MARRIED - Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Blanchard of Route 1, Warsaw, announce the engagement of their daughter, Alta Patricia to Kenneth Roger Minton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minton Jr. of Warsaw. A June wedding is planned.

tinuous report the Daughters of the Confederacy reached their goal when the unveiling took place October 3, 1946. The ceremony was marked with dignity, solemnity, beauty, and consecration that fitly climaxed the years of work to honor Sidney Lanier. The bust was unveiled by Sidney Lanier, grandson and namesake of the poet.

Among the unique floral tributes when bust was unveiled; a wreath from the White House with a message from the President of the United States; handsome sprays from the Daughters of the Confederacy and from the sons of the confederacy in that district, a wreath of magnolia and ivy leaves from the little gabled cottage where Lanier was born in Macon, Georgia; another from the far reaches of the Chattahoochee sent by the Georgian Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy made up of ferns and fondling grasses and other leaves made famous by Lanier's poem, "The Song of the Chattahoochee"; A wreath of galax leaves and mountain laurel from Lynn, North Carolina, where the poet breathed his last."

Sidney Lanier has been called the "Sunrise Poet" because of his appreciation of the beauty of nature in the early morning hours and his truthful portrayal in his melodious verse.

Mrs. Paul Potter gave an interesting program entitled, "Your Confederate Money is Worth More than You Think."

A social hour was enjoyed following the program. Members were served buffet from a beautifully appointed valentine motif table. Mrs. Woodrow W. Blackburn served individual cherry heart meringue pies, salted nuts and cheese straws. Mrs. Fred J. Baars poured coffee and hot spiced tea.

Many Dog Shows (CFN)—More than 500 dog shows are held in the U. S. annually, reports the Purina Pet Care Center. In addition, thousands of competitive field and obedience trials are held.

Warsaw News

PERSONALS

In Memoriam

We the members of the James Kenan Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, Warsaw, N. C. wish to pay a tribute of love and respect to one of our most devoted members, Mrs. Mary Lou Smith Surratt, who passed from our midst on January 6th, 1967. She was the daughter of Jane Kirk and John P. Smith of Albermarle, N.C. She joined the James Kenan Chapter in 1951, having transferred her membership from Hawkinsville, Ga. Our chapter has sustained a great loss in her passing.

Mrs. Surratt was a member of the local Methodist Church. She was an active member and served in many capacities. Many beautiful traits made up the character of Mrs. Surratt and she lived a life of good will, kindness of spirit and firm convictions. While we miss her we are grateful for her life in our midst and commend our members and loved ones to the guidance of Him who doeth all things well.

We ask that a copy of this memorial be sent to the family, published in the U.D.C. Magazine, the local paper and copied in the minutes of the James Kenan Chapter.

FINANCE FOR LESS

by using new LOW-COST auto loans on new cars and better used cars at our nearby bank:

WACCAMAW

WACCAMAW BANK AND TRUST COMPANY

KENANSVILLE BEULAVILLE
CHINGUAPIN ROSE HILL

WHERE YOU GET A RED CARPET RECEPTION

MEMBER, FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Women Of Presbyterian Church Meet

The women of the Presbyterian Church met in the Ladies parlor, on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. J. T. Gresham and Mrs. Dorothy Bowden as co-hostesses.

Mrs. J. H. Hines, president, presided, and led members in prayer.

Mrs. Dorothy Bowden presented the program, by showing a film entitled, "Almost Neighbors," along with a program entitled, "Joint Witness Season."

Mrs. J. T. Gresham, served chicken salad pattie shells, cheese crackers, party cake, and hot spiced tea, from a beautifully appointed valentine motif table, centered with pink camellia's, pink candles in silver candelabras.

GUEST OF BPW CLUB

Mrs. Vera Ager of Goldsboro and Australia will speak to the Warsaw Business and Professional Women's Club on Monday night, February 20, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson, Sr., at 7 o'clock p.m.

Mrs. J. W. Farrior, world affairs chairman, urges all members to attend, as this will be one of the most interesting programs of the year.

Sale

"DUPONT" & "LUCITE" ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS

$4.99

$5.99

REGISTER FOR DOOR PRIZE DRAWING FEB. 25 AT 5:00 P.M. LUCKY WINNER WILL RECEIVE $15.00 GIFT CERTIFICATE WHICH CAN BE USED ON ANY MERCHANDISE.

Macks Store

IN Warsaw, N. C. Formerly Macks 5, 10 & 25¢ Store