WS of CS Meets

Mrs. Marie Warrington presided on Monday night when the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the local Methodist Church met in the Fellowship Hall for its monthly meeting. The program was in charge of their pastor, the Rev. William Wolfe, who discussed Communion using as his topic, "Food for the Journey." After the benediction a social hour followed during which time Mrs. Alton Newton served assorted cookies, cheese straws and coffee, to the ten present.

Homemakers Club

Mrs. Thomas Chestnut was hostess to the South Kenansville Extension Homemakers Club on Friday afternoon with the club president, Mrs. J. B. Stroud presiding. "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" led by Mrs. Alda Ezzell, the devotional was conducted by Mrs. Martha Barwick. The Extension Home Agent, Mrs. Mae H. Spicer, had charge of the program. Her topic was "Food Production." Leaders' reports were presented by Mrs. Amos Chestnut on House Furnishing and Mrs. Stroud on Safety.

A place was made for old Christmas Cards, Magazines, Comic Books and pocket Edition books. The Blueberry Festival to be held in Elizabethtown on May the 26th and 27th was discussed and several members promised to enter the Baking Contest. Mrs. Mary C. Southerland was congratulated on being named "Mother of the Year" for District 19 and will enter the State contest in Raleigh sometime in April.

During the Social Hour, Mrs. N. B. Boney gave several brief book reviews. For refreshments, the hostess assisted by Mrs. Amos Chestnut and Mrs. Martha Barwick, served punch and homemade cookies to the fourteen ladies present. The next meeting will be on Thursday, April 13th instead of on Friday the 14th due to conflicts. Members are urged to remember that date and to go to the home of Mrs. Albert Barton in Pine Acres.

Floating Shower For Mrs. Griffin
Mrs. Marlon Griffin was honored here on Thursday night by Mrs. Kay Dunn and Mrs. Russell Guthrie in the home of the latter. The occasion was a floating Layette Shower to which 75 friends and neighbors came to call during the hours from 8 to 10 p.m. The honoree was presented a lovely corsage upon her arrival. After admiring the gifts that were on display in the living room the guests were served cake squares, salted nuts, mints and punch in the dining area by Mrs. Dunn assisted by Mrs. Earl Hatcher. A color note of yellow and white was effectively carried out. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Guthrie.

Fresh Apples Complement Corned Beef

The emphasis is on flavor rather than frills in this tasteful pairing of favorite family foods. Hearty and homey, the Fresh Apples and Corned Beef Platter features tart and tangy all-purpose Washington Winesap apples as the perfect taste complement to savory corned beef with cabbage wedges. The Washington Winesap, a late-harvested, rosy-red apple, with a tangy flavor, and crisp, fine-grained flesh, will keep both flavor and shape as it's being cooked with the meat and cabbage. The addition of caraway seeds adds a piquant touch to this easy-does-it dinner.

- Fresh Apple-Corned Beef Platter
- 4 lbs. corned beef
  - 1 stalk celery and leaves
  - 1 carrot, thinly sliced
  - 1 small onion, quartered
  - sprigs of parsley
  - 1 tsp. caraway seeds
  - 4 Washington Winesap apples, cut in 3/4 inch rounds
  - 1 medium cabbage, cut in wedges

Cover corned beef with cold water, add celery stalk and leaves, finely sliced carrot, quartered onion and parsley sprigs. Bring to boil, reduce heat, cover and simmer until meat is tender (about 4 or 5 hours.) About 15 minutes before serving time increase heat, add caraway seeds, apple rounds and cabbage wedges (secured with picks.) Bring to boil, cook 5 minutes, reduce heat to simmer and continue cooking about 5 minutes more or until apples and cabbage are tender. Place corned beef on a platter and surround with cabbage wedges and apple slices. Serves 6.

Income Tax Information

IDENTIFY EVERY TAX PAYMENT YOU MAKE

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Each year the Internal Revenue Service receives many tax payments from North Carolina taxpayers that cannot be credited to the proper account. These payments are placed in a special account until they can be properly identified, District Director of Internal Revenue J. E. Wall said. This takes time and requires additional clerical help which could be used for other operations. Checks or money orders submitted in payment of taxes should be attached to the bill or notice received. If a bill or notice was not received, a note should be enclosed stating what tax the payment is for, the year of the tax, and the type of tax owed. Be sure to include your name, address, zip code and your correct social security number. Mr. Wall had another word of advice: keep money order stubs or cancelled checks in case you are requested to verify any tax payments.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

GREENSBORO, N. C. - Union dues, employment agency fees, alimony, and certain other expenses may be included among itemized deductions on Federal tax returns, said J. E. Wall, District Director of Internal Revenue for North Carolina. Also deductible are ordinary and necessary expenses in connection with the production or collection of taxable income and the management of property held for the production of taxable income. This includes amounts spent for a safe deposit box for taxable securities, investment counsel fees, income tax counsel and assistance fees, custodian fees, clerical help, appraisal fees for establishing amount of casualty loss, etc. Divorced or legally separated taxpayers making periodic payments of alimony or separate maintenance under a decree of divorce or under a written separation agreement entered into after August 16, 1964, or under a decree for support entered after March 1, 1964, may deduct such payments. A partial list of additional items of expense which are considered personal and therefore not deductible are: travel to and from work; losses from sale of personal residence, family auto, etc.; home repairs and insurance; attorney fees for preparation of a will; safe deposit box for personal effects; fines and tax penalties. Documents 5109 and 5110, which furnish more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by dropping a post card to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, P. O. Box 20541, Greensboro, N.C. 27420.
