IN MOUNT OLIVE

They enjoyed the food in New Orleans and did eat at the famous Antoinette Brennan's and the Court of the Two Sisters with its pretty waterfalls. They had coffee at the French Market. There its made with half coffee, half boiled milk and it is called cafe-au-lait. They reported that the creole people have almost died out.

They visited the Bellingrath Gardens close to Mobile, Alabama. They attended the American Junior Miss Contest at the City Auditorium in Mobile, Alabama. Mrs. Turner remarked that these girls were not picked for their vital statistics, but they had to be an A student and interested in helping their fellowman. Halleluia!

They visited ten ante-bellum homes at Natchez. She remarked that at one time, there were twelve millionaires in the United States and nine of them lived at Natchez.

Next, a two day tour to Naples, Pompeii, and the Isle of Capri. Pompeii, the Roman City destroyed by an eruption of neighboring Mt. Vesuvius, was fascinating. A steamer transported them to Capri where they visited the Blue Grotto, a sea level cave lighted by the reflection of the sunlight on the sea.

In France they visited the tomb of Napoleon, the magnificent white basilica which stands on the highest hill in Paris. They saw the Place de la Concorde and the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame Cathedral.

She said England was wonderful and friendly with the people's merry cherries everywhere. They visited St. Pauls, the second largest Cathedral in the world, and the Tower of London, the Execution Place of Queens. They saw the fabulous crown jewels. Mrs. Ruffin raved about the Windsor Place and the Changing of the Guards, The Queen's flag is always flying if she is at home.

Mrs. Ruffin said, not one drop of rain fell on them and that they ate American foods most of the time. They were traveling where God's Son was forsaken that we might never be forsaken.

Yes on the cross Jesus bore all our sins. Think of all the sins of the world together in one pile. Take immorality, murder, impurity, idleness, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, envy, drunkenness, and the like all the sins of the earth and put it all on Christ, who had not spot or blemish, and you will know what happened at Calvary. It was our seething corruption which was laid on Him. No wonder God forsook Him.

FINE SHOES

A "status" bow... softly draped in-darcing-slipper fashion, or partly pointing up the excitement of Heiress styling. Or an enticing "open look"... revealing the naked truth about Heiress elegance. These are the dramatic differences that lead young fashionables to insist on Heiress fine shoes.
