

Wrecks With Minor & Error Injuries

I come to my column this week with an humble heart. Sad, yes very sad, because of the loss of my Mother. Yet, I realize that all of us were most fortunate to have had Mother as long as we did - she would have been 85 in July. Death is such an omi-nous thing, yet, it is through death in a family that we dis-cover we have so many wonder-nous thing, yet, it is through death in a family that we dis-cover we have so many wonder-itil and thoughtful friends. I had planned to use my Mother's life for my Mother's Day Editorial this year - but then I thought: How could one or write Mother? She was such a « iderful person. She was dignified, without snobbery; proud without heing pushed around; sweet without being in-sincere. She was endowed with a deep religious faith without being a fanatic, with all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic, with all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic. With all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic. With all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic. With all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic. With all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic. With all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved pretigious faith without being a fanatic. With all of this she was a beautiful woman who loved be the family has church was har greatest love and she had an influence on every life which she touched. It was massi grattifying to hear her Sunday School students, who are now goown men and women, speak so highly of her. H. W. Beecher said: "When the sun goes below the horizon, he is not set the heavens glow for a full hour after his de-parture. and when a great and good man sets, the sky of this world is luminous long after he is out sign. - Soen s man cannot the out of this world. -when he goes he tawes behinde much of himself. - Being dead much of himself, - Being dead in the road ditch.

Ruth CORRECTION!

Last week this newspaper deadline for town election in Kenansville was April 15th. This should have been April 22nd. We are glad to make this correction and urge all interested persons to take notice

Carl Jean Benson, white, male, 16, of Route 2, Warsaw and Kenneth Donald Turner, white male 19 of Warsaw were white male 19 of Warsaw were involved in a wreck on Satur-day night at 10:35 p.m. on U. S. 117, seven-tenths of a mile South of Warsaw. Benson received lacerations of the ear and was admitted to Duplin General Hospital for ob-servation. Turner had lacera-tions of the head and a frac-tured nose. He was admitted to Sevmour Johnson Hospital in Seymour Johnson Hospital in Goldsboro, Benson was driving a 1964 Rambler and Turner a 1965 Buick, Damage to the Rambler was $700, a total loss and to the Buick the damage amounted to about $1500.

Both vehicles were travelling North on U. S. 117. The Rambler attenued to make a left turn at the time the Buick was z-tempting to pass. The Buick struck the Rambler in the rear with his figure to make the Buick with his bier to c causing the Ra irn and rest of est shoulder. top on t Buick c shoulder rest on the nm Joyner, state fint ton is continuing, day night at 9 p.m. es North of Beulaville paved road 1700, Ros-ritur Batchelor white of Rose Hill Route 2, item Heres constatinvestig. On St three r on rural sie McA male, 24 had an accident. He was operat-ing a 1956 Chevrolet, travelling vest and ramed on the right

Patrolm

The Kenansville rescue squad picked him up and admitted him to Duplin General Hospital. He had received two laceration on the right side of his head. His car was a total loss.

Batchelor was charged with possession of non-tax paid whiskey. Parolman Joyner stated that he investigated seven wrecks, most of them minor from Fri-day afternoon until Sunday night, saw OPEN HOUSE will be held on Saturday, April 15, from 12:00 Noon until 5:00 P.M. The public

lin

Reeves Brothers, Inc., opened their new plant in Dup-lin County during the summer of 1966 near The Country Squire between Kenansville and War-Is cordially invited to attend Open House and see the new plant, Personnel will demonstrate various types of operation.

Concology

Genealug

The new air-conditioned building is approximately 100,-Continued to Page 2

ces, Reeves Brothers is a welcome addition to the county and to its economy. Reeves Brothers invites you to Open House Saturday, April 15.

Duplin County continues to grow industrially and takes pride in the new industries locating in the county as well as the established industries that are expanding and adding new industrial employment oppor-tunities. Reeves Brothers, one of America's larger textile firms, occupied a new 100,000 square foot building at Kenans-ville in July, 1966. This plant is located on a 128-acre site and manufactures decorative pillows and other home fur-

Elevator Corporation, a coope-rative of over 1,200 farmers, completed construction on a 500,000-bushel capacity grain elevator in late summer and received the first shipment of grain on September 1, 1966. This facility cost in excess of $700,000 and is located on a 21-acre site. The grain elevator will boost the production of grain in the area by provid-ing the farmer with a market and also provide a source of supply to the industries in the county serving the broiler and turkey industry. Ramsey Feed Company, Nash Johnson & Sons' Farms, Inc. and Charles F. Cates & Sons made additions to their plants during the year.

A turkey processing plant Wallace Turkey Farms, Inc. to be built near Wallace has filed to succeed himself as Mayor of Warsaw in the election was announced in November and construction will get unde way during the early part of to be held May 2nd, in the Town part of Hall in Warsaw. 1967 and is expected to be com-pleted and in operation by July, 1967, This facility will cost $1,265,000 and will be located Filing for commissioners were Ceorge Clerk, D. L. Mar-this, E. C. Thompson, Fred Revelle, and Larry P. McCal-len, all incumbants. on a 57-acre site.

James Sprunt Institute, a technical education center, oc-Municipal Asso. cupied its new facility at the beginning of the new school year in September. It is located on a 50-acre campus at Kenansville. The school has been in existence over two years and has been using space in the variou county schools and communit buildings. Plans for new buildings on the campus are being made and construction will get under way when funds are made has been added at Chinquapin, Teachey and the P. E. Williams available for these expansions. Duplin County schoo sioners, and the board of directors of the Industrial Deexperienced considerable progress during the year, including velopment Commission. a much needed administratio building for the superintenden Duplin Municipal Associa-tion will hold its quarterly meeting at the Country Squire of Warsaw, April 20 at 7:00 p.m., rather than Teachey. The program will be on community planning and development. Guests of the organization will be the Duplin County Commis-

To Meet

Extended telephone service for Beulaville, Kenansville, Warsaw and Faison was ini-tiated on December 8, and it is now possible to call free of LD charges between these commu-nities. Additional service nities. Additional service equipment has been added to the telephone exchanges in other towns in the county which makes it possible for the citizens to

ABC stores at Warsaw, Wallace, Kenansville and Faison were completed during the year. These buildings were constructed in such manner that they can be converted for other type

On August 27, 1966, a special hospital bond election was favorably approved by a vote of the people authorizing a 50-room addition to the Duplin General Hospital costing in ex-cess of $2,000,000, In addition to the 50 new private rooms with privae baths which will be fully air-conditioned, other improvements planned will in-clude enlargement of the emergency room and out-patient de-partment; enlarged X-Ray De-

Continued to page 3

File For Re-election

J. Ed Strickland of Warsaw uses in the future.

secure improved service. New buildings to house the is the newest industry to come to Duplin County, With 100,000 souare feet of floor space in the plant, and more than two hum, si

Reeves Brothe

By: P. B. Ralford

By: Claude Hunter Moore

111

The three Kenan brothers, Felix, Thomas, and William, came to North Carolina around 1738, from Port O'Ferry, Nor-thern Ireland. They either land-ed at Brunswick Town or Wil-mington, and received land grants in the northern part of New Hanover County, which be-came Duplin County in 1749.

The Kenan brothage established plantations and were large slave holders. They raised flax, rice, corn, wheat, and foods for home consumption they owned herds of cattle, hogs and sheep. They were also engaged in the tar and turpentine industry. In re-ligion, the Kenans were gener-ally members of the Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches. William Kenan was a member

The Kenan brothers established plantations and were large slave holders. They raised flax, rice, ger of the Spanish landing at Cape Fear. He is believed to have married and settled in the Grove settlemnet, near Kenans-ville, and to have later settled in New Hanover County where he died in 1774. Felix Kenan received land grants in the vicinity of Turkey and Falson. He was the first sheriff of Duplin County and was for many years a vestry-man of St. Gabriel's Parish Courthouse and St. Gabriel's Church were located west of Warsaw). He represented Dup-lin County in the Colonial As-sembly, and was land agent and attorney for Henry McCulloch, Continued to Page 2

Reeves Brothers, manufacturers of Comfy Home pr

William Hill, inside Reeves Brothers Plant, is spreading material in preparation for a cutting operation. (Photo by Ruth Wells)

Larry Lane of the cutting department is cutting piece goods in preparation for the stitching operation. (Photo by Ruth Wells)

Candidates Nominated For Beulaville Commissioners

A public meeting was held at the Beulaville Elementary School Tuesday night for the purpose of nominating candi-dates to run in the town election. Former Mayor Gordon S. Muldrow was master of cere-

Nominated from the floor for Town Commissioners were: Delmar Houston, Leland Grady, Joe Edwards, Raleigh Lanier,

Continued to Page 2

Elected Officer

and his staff. This building was completed and occupied during the early part of December and Miss Mary Beth Hunter of Beulaville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hunter, was elected secretary of Pi Omega is located in Kenansville. A gym-torium for the James Kenan High School was recently Pi honorary business education completed and a gym-torium at East Duplin High School has been completed, Lunch rooms society at East Carolina College for the 1967-68 school year.

N. B. Grady Buys Registered Angus Bull schools. A school bus garage was built to replace an old structure, and the county is now capable of giving top service to its fleet of buses transport-

N. B. Grady, Kenansville, recently purchased an Aber-deen-Angus bull from Joseph Williams, Rose Hill, North ting children to the various Carolina.

WINNER OF THE DUPLIN COUNTY SPELLING BEE NEL Edwards (left) Center is the runner-up, Mary Rose Andrews of Chinquapin, Assistant Superintendent Byron Teachey is shown (right) presenting the badge to Neil Edwards.

Niel Edwards Wins Spelling Bee

An eighth grade student in the Beulaville Elementary School "rebuttal." won the Duplin County Spelling Bee at the Kenansville Elementary School Tuesday morning,

April 11th. Nell Edwards, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. AaronEdwards of Beulaville was declared win-ness when the research up, Mary "rebuttal."

The annual Spelling Bee is sposored by the Wilmington Star-News, and the winner and runner up will compete against each other in the Regional Bee to be held in Wilmington, May 6th.

2.21

1 10 13 13

Thomas Kenan discusses with John N. (Nick) Kalmar plans for the restoration of Liberty Hall, home of his ancestors. Mr. Kenan is very pleased with the progress being ma expects the restoration to be completed by fall. (Photo by Ruth Wells)