Mrs. West Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. J. N. West, Jr. was hostess at a bridge luncheon on Thursday from eleven until two o'clock. Lovely summer flowers were used throughout in decorations. For her menu, Mrs. West

"It was a wonderful trip and I had a marvelous time," said lovely Carolyn Gresham of her week in Charlotte during the Miss North Carolina Pageant. Carolyn was accompanied to Charlotte by her brother John T. Gresham, III, and Barney Sheffield, who also served as her escorts. Mrs. Grace Carlton was her official chaperone. The first day was orientation day with a party that night at the Ramada Inn. This gave Carolyn a chance to meet the other girls and their chaperons as well as the judges. The eighty-four lovely young ladies were divided into four groups. Carolyn was in group D. This group was in swim suit on Tuesday night, Wednesday night they sat in the audience. Thursday night the contestants in group D were in evening gown and Friday night was talent night for the group. Carolyn gave an excellent performance in her presentation of Chopin Revolutionary Etude E Flat. Carolyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gresham Jr., and many of the Warsaw Jaycees attended the talent show Friday night. "Their applause and response was just wonderful," said Carolyn. "In fact, it was a marvelous week, and I wouldn't have missed it for the world."

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Phillips, Sr. were Saturday dinner guests of Reverend and Mrs. D. E. Parkerson and Gall of Carboro. Mr. and Mrs. Graham Phillips, Sr. spent the week end in Carboro visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Leak and family.
