James Sprunt Institute was a busy place Thursday morning September 7th with the beginning of registration for the fall semester. (Photo by Ruth Wells).

Students from as far away as Pascagoula, Mississippi were registering Thursday, September 7, for the 1967-68 school year at James Sprunt Institute in Kenansville.

Register of Deeds Attends School

Mrs. Christine W. Williams, Duplin County Register of Deeds and Assistants, Mrs. Ruth S. Herring and Miss Jenell Kirby attended a two day school at the Institute of Government in Chapel Hill on Friday and Saturday, September 8th and 9th. Instructions were given on the fourteen (14) bills enacted by the 1967 State Legislature affecting the operations of the offices of the Registers of Deeds in North Carolina.

Instructors for the school were:

John Sanders, Director of the Institute of Government; Taylor McMillan, Asst. Director of the Institute of Government; Ed Hinsdale, Asst. Director of the Institute of Government; George Mosely, Director of the Uniform Commercial Code, Division of the Secretary of State; Clyde Smith, Corporations Attorney, Office of the Secretary of State; D. M. McLelland, Clerk of Superior Court of Alamance County; A. H. Osborne, Branch Manager, Pitney-Bowes, Greensboro; Richard Jones, Assistant to Tax Manager, Pitney-Bowes, Stamford, Connecticut.

Highlighting the school were instructions on the transfer of the probate duties from the Office of the Clerk of Court to the Register of Deeds on October 1st and the transfer on January 1st of the Corporations

Records from the Clerk to the Register of Deeds and the new Real Estate Stamp Tax to be collected by the Registers of Deeds beginning January 1, 1968.

The 1967 State Legislature made more changes in the duties and responsibilities of the Registers of Deeds than the combined changes made by the State Legislatures during the past fifty (50) years.
