

Kenansville Society

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Dulan Wallace shopped in Kinston, Wednesday. Mrs. Earl Price and Mrs. John Price of Clinton visited Mrs. Adrian Wallace on Thursday.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wallace, were the Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Wallace and four children of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brinkley and son of Chincapin, also Mr. and Mrs. Dulan Wallace and son Robert and daughter, Betty Sue Boney and girls of Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stephens attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Stephens mother, Mrs. Johnson, near Rose Hill on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Southerland and Miss Eleanor Southerland shopped in Fayetteville on Monday.

Miss Margaret Williams and her mother, Mrs. J. L. Williams spent the week end in Chapel Hill with relatives.

Mrs. Eleanor K. Brown accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Margaret K. Tolson and her mother, Mrs. Hattie S. Kornegay of Goldsboro, visited Mrs. Louise K. Boney on Wednesday. They had lunch at "The Country Squire", then motored to Wilmington to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Kornegay.

Miss Annie Catherine Rhodes and Mrs. Viola W. Quinn accompanied Mrs. Florence S. Currie to Charlotteville, Va. over the week end. Mrs. Currie visited her daughter and son-in-law, the Duke Underwoods while Miss Rhodes and Mrs. Quinn visited other relatives. The Albert Bartons spent the week end at Chocowinity in their Trailer Home there.

Mrs. Ruby G. Newton visited her sister, Mrs. Nina G. Boone in Kinston one day recently. Miss Eleanor Southerland of Washington, D. C. has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary C. Southerland.

J. B. Stroud attended a meeting in Raleigh last Friday.

Mrs. Betsy Sharpe accompanied Mrs. Grace Blizard to Kinston on Monday of last week. On Tuesday she went to Raleigh with Mrs. Geraldine Hatcher. On Wednesday she and Mrs. Hatcher went to Surf City to get Mrs. Mildred K. Brewer who had been there with friends for several days.

Pvt. Rudy Hasty has been transferred from Ft. Jackson, S. C. to Ft. Devans, Mass. He spent a couple of weeks at home before going to Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bitterwolf of New Orleans, La. spent several days last week here with the L. N. Bowdens.

Mrs. Eleanor P. McKay of Lillington visited her sister, Mrs. Martha P. Sitterson a couple of days last week.

Miss Lottie Anne Williams and Mrs. Martha P. Sitterson made a business trip to Durham last Friday.

Mrs. E. A. Newton and Mrs. N. B. Boney also Miss Sallie Outlaw, accompanied Mrs. A. T. Outlaw to Goldsboro on Saturday a.m.

Mrs. Margaret O. Dall and Mrs. Eloise Ryder have returned from Cleveland, Ohio after a visit there with the Harol B. Wrights.

Guests of Mrs. Eva Hughes recently were: Mrs. W. R. Lyerly, Mrs. W. E. Beaton and Mrs. Troy Lewis of Carolina Beach also Mrs. Belle Stallings of Wallace.

Mrs. Ed Sparks and friend of Mrs. John Titchen of Virginia Beach, Va. spent the week end with Mrs. Spark's mother, Mrs. Ben Williamson. They were joined there on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dunn and two children also Ronnie Hawes for dinner, in honor of Mrs. Dunn's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Chestnut of ECC-Greenville spent the week end near here with his mother, Mrs. Inez B. Chestnut.

Julius Jones of Wilmington College spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones.

Mrs. Jack Sitterson has returned to her home here after being a surgical patient in the New Hanover Memorial Hospital recently.

Mrs. D. F. Storey of Suffolk, Va. came one day last week to be with her mother, Mrs. Jim Carlton who has been a patient in the Duplin General Hospital.

Ten members of the South Kenansville Homemakers Club sat in a group at Grove Presbyterian Church on fifth Sunday morning. They were joined by 12 others who were members of their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Brinson shopped in Goldsboro on Saturday.

Cpl. Julian Westbrook only son of Mr. and Mrs. Stoles Westbrook, has recently returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam. He is spending some time here with his parents where he is joined by his wife, the former Peggy Frederick of Warsaw. He will report to Camp Lejeune for reassignment at the end of his furlough.

Mrs. J. R. Grady spent the week end in Chapel Hill with her sister Mrs. H. W. Shoulars. They attended the Carolina-Wake Forest game.

Eastern Star Meeting

Dora and Davis Evans were in their respective stations as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron when Kenansville Chapter #215, Order of the Eastern Star met on last Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple, there were 16 members present. A program on Friendship highlighted the meeting. It was in charge of Louise K. Boney, program chairman for the chapter. In her opening remarks she referred to a verse from "The House by the Side of the Road" by Sam Walter Foss and a discussion on "Friendship by Walter E. Isenhour, after which Mary C. Southerland answered the question, "What Is A Friend?" and Viola W. Quinn added comments on "A Loyal Friend." "For a closing thought Inez B. Chestnut read a poem, entitled, "Be Friendly."

After the Ritualistic closing, refreshments consisting of chocolate Fudge Candy, assorted crackers and iced drinks were served by the Evans couple assisted by Mrs. Boney.

Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Tommy Brinson the former Pam Atkinson, bride of the month, was honored here on Friday night, October 27, with a floating Bridal Shower. The lovely affair was given in the Fellowship Hall of the local Baptist Church. The Hostess group was composed of Mess: James Eva Hughes, Rose Rich, Hilda Booth, Elizabeth Whitman, Frances Williams, and Nadine Hanton also Miss Sandra Atkinson.

The guests were met at the front door by Mrs. Blanton and introduced to the bride. Receiving with her was her mother, Mrs. Jim Atkinson and the bride-groom's mother, Mrs. Thomas Brinson. They were each wearing lovely corsages made of Chrysanthemums. Mrs. Booth directed to the refreshment table which was centered with Epernettes holding five lighted yellow tapers interspersed with yellow mums and greenery emphasizing the color motif of green and yellow.

Mrs. Rich served punch from one end of the table and Mrs.

James Keen Beta Club

The second James Keen Beta Club Chapter meeting was held October 12. Earl Kelly vice-president, presided at the meeting. Refreshments were served at the beginning and then the business session began.

The club is planning a very active year and there were many business matters to be discussed. Committees were appointed to work on our induction service which will be held next month. A special induction ceremony is being prepared and we are looking forward to tapping the new members into the club soon.

The projects and goals planned to improve the Beta Club's image and help the school for this year were discussed more thoroughly and planned to be put into effect as soon as possible.

The James Keen directories which the club members have been trying to sell were discussed. The sale of these directories will enable some of the members to attend the State Convention in Raleigh. If you haven't bought your directory yet or would like to know more about it, please contact one of the members or Mrs. Pearl McGowan, sponsor.

Connie Rhodes, Club Reporter.

Williams served party cake squares from the opposite end. Nuts and mints were also served, assisted by Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Whitman. The guest book, where about fifty registered, was kept by Miss Sandra Atkinson.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES - SENTINEL

Beulaville Society

Personals

Mrs. Sally Lanier and sons Roger and Dexter of Jacksonville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Furell on Sunday.

Recently Mrs. Lula Hunter, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, Mrs. Beulah Futrell and Mrs. Sidney Lanier visited their brother Jack Whaley in Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunter visited Mrs. Sally Lanier near Jacksonville on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Ray Futrell of Richlands visited relatives here over the week end.

The YFA of Beulaville Free Will Baptist Church meets at the home of Miss Sharon Sanderson on Monday night, November 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Edwards visited Rev. and Mrs. Willard Hardison in Selma for the week end.

Miss Williams Entertains Club

Miss Margaret Williams was hostess to her bridge club and an extra table on Wednesday night.

Visitors other than club members were Mrs. D. H. McKay of Lillington, Mrs. J. B. Wallace, Mrs. Phil Kretsch, Mrs. Hazel Scott, Mrs. George Penney and Mrs. J. O. Stokes.

Visitors high score was won by Mrs. Kretsch, Mrs. W. E. Craft won for club members and Mrs. Martha Sitterson won second high score prize.

The hostess served a delicious sweet course.

Mrs. Estelle Brinson and Mrs. Betris Bostic shopped in Kinston on Thursday.

Mrs. Ray Hunter made abusiness trip to Wallace on Thursday.

Among those seen in Kinston on Tuesday shopping were Mrs. Nick Bostic, Mrs. Dolly Bostic, Mrs. Grace Sumner and Mrs. Agnes Bostic.

Mrs. Nora Winstead of Kenansville visited Grace Sumner in Beulaville on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Grady and children of Rose Hill visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thomas on Sunday.

Miss Ada Thigpen of Campbell College was home for the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orzo Thigpen.

Mrs. Agnes Bostic and Mrs. Joyce Thoma were in Kinston on Thursday.

Mrs. Vick Davis is feeling much better. She is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willie Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hines and children, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Whaley and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Lymwood Futrell at Bogue Sound on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Leo Brown and Mrs. J. M. Bostic shopped in Goldsboro Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Wilbert Everton and children, Becky, Tom and Randy of Wilson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Everton.

The Duplin Crusade is in progress this week at the Beulaville School. Rev. Floyd Cherry of Greenville is the Evangelist and the Rev. Willis Wilson the Choir director. Everyone is cordially invited to come and worship with us this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kennedy and baby girl from Mississippi have been visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kennedy for a few days here.

Homecoming Queen For East Duplin

Miss Sandra Miller, Senior at East Duplin High School, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Miller was crowned Homecoming Queen on Friday night at the Annual Home Coming football game. East Duplin played host to James Kenan with a scoring of 13 to 0.

Moments TO Remember

On Wednesday evening, October 25, the Family Fellowship hour at the Beulaville Free Will Baptist Church was quite unusual. We had as guest Mr. Hulon Whithead of Kinston to present slides that were taken at summer camp at Crayton. It was a great thrill for those that attended camp to see themselves, the tabernacle, the motel, the main buildings and the beautiful mountain scenes. It brought back memories we cherish so much, renewed our hope, and desires to look forward to another camp time at Black Mountain, North Carolina next summer.

About twenty from the church were privileged to be a part of the group this year.

Presbyterians Observe Homecoming

The Beulaville Presbyterian Church observed their annual Home Coming on Sunday October 29. The pastor Rev. Frank Sawyer brought the morning worship service with the Charles B. Acock Choir singing, under the direction of Robert Craft, Jr.

A picnic lunch was served. All in all a great day of fellowship was enjoyed.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES - SENTINEL

E. W. GODWIN'S SONS
Call Us If You Need Lumber
Or Building Materials

From Forest - To Mill - To You

WALLACE, N. C. Phone AT 5-2908
WILMINGTON, N. C. Phone RO 2-7747

Parrott Says:

Be Sure To Have Your

A. S. C. PURCHASE ORDERS

FOR COVER CROPS and PASTURE SEED FILLED BEFORE EXPIRATION DATE. THE COST IS SMALL and the CROP IMPROVES THE SOIL! BRING US YOUR SEED ORDERS!

Parrott Bros
100 N. HERITAGE ST. - KINSTON

Your Money Buys More At Erskine's
in Kinston

DIAMONDS...symbols of togetherness

$159.50

$250.00

$139.50

Feature Ring

ILLUSTRATIONS ENLARGED

ERSKINE'S JEWELERS

106 North Queen St.

Kinston, N.C.

CONVENIENT BUDGET TERMS

AVAILABLE IN 14 KT. WHITE OR YELLOW GOLD

Confidentially, we would like for you to join the thousands who are saving millions at Cooperative Savings & Loan Association in Wallace.