With The Sick

Charles T. Cottle has been admitted to the Veterans Hospital in Durham for treatment for kidney stones. He would be glad to hear from friends. We hope Charles will soon be well enough to be at home again.

Dr. Mc Carver Evangelist At Methodist Church

Dr. Clyde McCarver of Wilmington is guest evangelist at a week of revival services being held at the Rose Hill Methodist Church this week.

Dr. McCarver is District Superintendent of the Wilmington District. He is active in the Masonic Order serving as Past Master of Orr Lodge 104 A.F. and A.M., and the New Bern Scottish Rite Bodies, and has held other Masonic posts.

Recently Rev. McCarver has attended the World Methodist Conference in London. He has received degrees from Duke, Emory University, and the University of Georgia.

Charles Nathan Burgess, from Columbia, S. C., is responsible for the music program during the revival. Mr. Burgess studied at the Los Angeles College of Music and Art, and has had a professional career in numerous musicals.

The revival services end on Friday night, November 3. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Retired From Service

Hilburne E. Knowles, formerly of Rose Hill and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Knowles, now of Wallace, has retired from the U. S. Navy.

Mr. Knowles finished High School in 1948 and immediately joined the Navy. He has served nineteen years and was retired on September 28th.

While in the Navy, he was stationed in San Diego, California and served in several capacities reaching the rank of Senior Chief Personnel. On one stint of duty he served on the U. S. S. Valley Forge and was in Japanese waters for eleven months while on that ship.

Mr. Knowles is married to the former Jane Carr of Wallace. They have two sons and two daughters. They will continue to live in San Diego, where he is now employed by Sears, Roebuck and Company.

Mr. Hall Speaks To Garden Club

The Rose Hill Garden Club met on October 24th at the home of Mrs. Frank Blanchard. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ben Harrell.

The speaker, Mr. Thomas Hall, Dean of Instructors at James Sprunt Institute, was introduced by Mrs. Blanchard, program chairman. Mr. Hall chose as his title, "Soils in Organic, in Their Relation to Plant Growth".

New members introduced at the meeting were: Mrs. George Bradshaw, Mrs. C. R. Mosback, Mrs. W. T. Blanchard, Mrs. Charlie Taylor, Mrs. Charles Hawes, Mrs. Donald B. Hoyt. One visitor, Mrs. Erchey Lanier was welcomed.

The hostess served cheese cake, nuts, and coffee. A door prize of a potted shrub was awarded.

Sponsor Open House

The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs is sponsoring open house in seven state institutions for delinquent youths on October 29 and November 5. Designed to acquaint citizens with the rehabilitation program in the institutions, the open house will be a social function for the residents of the home.

A major program of the federation is the birthday remembrance project, in which clubs of the state send gifts and cards to children on their birthdays.

The public in the Duplin County area is invited to Open House at Dobbs Farm, Kinston on Sunday, the fifth of November from two to six o'clock.

Public Invited To Visit Library

The Public Library in Rose Hill is housed in the Community Building, and is open every Thursday from three to five o'clock. It is sponsored by the Rose Hill Woman's Club, The Lions Club, and THE Town of Rose Hill.

At the present time it is being run by volunteers of the Woman's Club. Mrs. Erchey Lanier is in charge. The Woman's Club would like to invite everyone in the community to stop by on Thursday afternoon to see Mrs. Lanier. Many will be surprised to see the number and types of books on the shelves. The county librarian came last week and brought new books. Any book not found in the library may be ordered by Mrs. Lanier from the County library.

Residents are asked to bring the children to see the beautiful children's books that are available. Visit our library this week.
