Parts of Duplin County sustained severe property damages about 9 p.m. Friday night as tornados touched down in many areas. Personal injuries were miraclously avoided.

Destruction was wrought in a ten mile area from Mill Swamp section south of Lyman, to Gre-gorys Fork in Onslow County. Practically every building on the William D, Lanier farm near Lyman was wrecked, Mrs. Lanter said, "it sounded like a

Representatives of the Board of Education appeared before officials of the U.S. Office of Education in Washington on November 14, 1967 and were told that the integration of Duplin County Schools must be completed by the 1971-72 school

Duplin's federal funds for education, amounting to approximately $1,250,000.00 per year are now in a deferred status and are subject to be completely cut off within thirty days after a hearing scheduled in Washington not later than January 15, 1968.

The Board of Education has until that date to submit a plan for total integration of the schools which will be acceptable to the U. S. Office of Education. If the Board of Education can do this, the hearing will not be held and the flow of all federal funds to Duplin County Schools will be resumed.

Should the Board of Education fail to submit a plan acceptable to the U.S. Ofice of Education, not only would the schools lose federal funds but the Board of Education would be cited to the Justice Department for failure to comply with the Civil Rights Act. It is not simply a matter of losing federal funds; the schools federal court for failure to meet the requirements of this act, and then would be ordered by the courts to integrate all schools forthwith.

A substantial start in meeting the requirements for total integration will have to be made at the beginning of the 1968-1969 school year. If a plan can be formed and suitable assurances given that it can and will be implemented, the cha-
