

Post Office
 The postmaster said that the vending machines located in the lobbies of post offices are not to be confused with commercial stamp vending devices found in many stores. Such commercial machines provide a margin for profit and are not controlled by the Post Office Department, he said.

"Post office vending machines can be a big convenience to postal patrons," Holland said. "The devices permit mailers to ignore waiting lines at stamp sales windows or to buy stamps to mail letters after the windows have closed."

John N. Kalmer

 N. C. Division of the American Cancer Society. He is also on the Board of Directors of the N. C. Schools for the Deaf, and his interests are quite varied. He is president of the U.S. 117 Highway Association and chairman of the Duplin County Committee on highways and on the SENCLAND Committee. In addition to all of that he is president of the Duplin County Historical Society and a member of the National Trust Preservation of Antiquities.

Nick was born in Goldsboro where he went to grammar school. He is the son of the late William Kalmar of Goldsboro and Mrs. Charity E. Parker Kalmar who resides in Faison. However, when he moved to Duplin County it was to a large farm between Faison and Warsaw so he graduated from the Warsaw High School later going to the University of N. C. at Chapel Hill where he majored in Economics.

He is a Veteran of the Korean Conflict, and active Democrat and a Presbyterian. In 1958 he married Miss Claire V. Reid and they have three children, two girls, Laura and Ruth and a boy, Walter.

The 1968 slogan is S.O.S. - Support Our Servicemen - Help us Help. The Duplin County quota this year is $5,051.00 and the help of everyone is needed.
