"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wilson: When this letter reaches you I hope all is well and you are doing fine. It was indeed a great pleasure to hear from you. It is nice to know people are thinking of you. Thank you for the Christmas Card.

We who are here in Viet Nam are also thinking of home, and at this time of the year it is cards like you sent me that pull us through. We have a 36-hour cease fire for the coming New Year. We are set up on a hill overlooking Rhan Plang, its a small village about 800 meters to our front. We have been on this mission 62 days along. Most of the men are tired and I think we will go back into base camp. Because we haven't seen base camp but one time since we arrived in Viet Nam, and that was for only 4 days.

I will close my letter. Write soon. Hope to see you before next Christmas. I have 264 days left over here. Tell my mother hello when you see her.

Sincerely yours,
Sgt. Clifton Boney Jr.
P. S. Send me some pictures of the family soon."

Sgt. Boney's address is as follows:

We would welcome news from parents, friends and family concerning the reactions from our campaign for Christmas Greetings for Overseas Service Men. Have the service men written home about any extra Christmas mail they received? Has anyone heard from greetings they sent? Did YOU remember to write these boys so far away? We would be grateful to know of any response our readers have had in order to determine the success of the campaign. Send any response to Mrs. L. A. Wilson Rose Hill, N. C.
