Rooty Branch Auxiliary Annual Meet

The Womens Auxiliary of Rooty Branch Church held their annual birthday supper in the fellowship hall of the church Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Carl Ivey, Program Prayer Chairman for the Auxiliary, gave the welcome. The response was given by Leslie Bell, church school superintendent. The Rev. Dewayne Eakes, Pastor of the church, was in charge of the devotions.

The table was covered with a white cloth centered with a lovely arrangement of red and with flowers, greenery and matching ribbon. Burning tapers in brass containers, valentine hearts and a birthday cake decorated appropriately, completed the setting.

A covered dish supper was served by auxiliary members with their husbands, and the Rev. and Mrs. Dewayne Eakes attending.

Mrs. Jernigan Hostess To Extension Club

"Individuals Developing the Ability to arrive at Decisions from a Multitude of Complex Possibilities" was discussed when the Summerlin's Extension Home Makers Club met for their January meeting. Mrs. Jernigan was hostess to the meeting Wednesday at her home in the Summerlin's Cross Roads Community. The devotions were given by Mrs. Carl Ivey. Psalm 46, and Resolutions for 1968 were used.

Mrs. Mae H. Spicer, Home Economics Agent, spoke on "Goals and Values" and told of the long-range Extension program for each county in the state. She also outlined the program for '68, and Various Committees were appointed.

Among the announcements made were workshops being held in the county. A sewing class for sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls will begin in June. Home makers week is to be held June 10, at the State University, Raleigh.

The Collect for Club Women was prayed in Unison to adjourn the meeting.

Refreshments consisted of Cherry pie a-la-mode and coffee.

Book Compiled And Edited By Rupert W. Jernigan, Jr.

A book was compiled, and edited by Rupert W. Jernigan, Jr. in 1967 entitled "The ancestors, and descendants of Wesley Bright (1873-1938) Frederick M. Hopkins (1864-1948) Watson Jernigan (1848-1905) Henry E. Marsh (1855-1922).

The author of the book, Rupert W. Jernigan, Jr. of Charleston, West Virginia, is the son of the late Rupert W. Jernigan, a native of the Summerlin's Cross Roads Community in Duplin County, who retired as a Pharmacist of Chapel Hill in 1963, prior to his death in 1967.

Young Jernigan is a West Point Graduate, and a Lieutenant Colonel in the army reserve. He was on active duty in the Regular army for nine years, and served with the 187th Regimental combat team under the command of General William C. Westmoreland during the Korean War. In addition to his West Point training, he has studied at the University of North Carolina, and has taken graduate work in Business administration at the University of Kentucky.

Mr. Jernigan gave up an army career to become an engineers trainee for United Fuel Gas Company. In 1965 he was promoted to director of wholesale sales for the United Fuel Kentucky Gas Transmission Corporation. He is now serving as Vice President of these companies, and continuing to administer wholesale sales.

Mr. Jernigan was born in Fayetteville. He is married to the former Henrietta Hopkins, whose father, Fredrick M. Hopkins, is a retired Air Force Major General now living in Shakee Heights, Ohio. The Jernigans have four children, Thomas, Watson, Lynn Marsh, Ann Louise, and Beth Bright.

Relatives of Mr. Jernigan in this area, and descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Watson Jernigan of the Summerlin's Cross Roads Community have received copies of the book. The four family histories in the book compiled and edited by Mr. Jernigan reflect the direct ancestral line prior to the early 1800's and all of the readily available information

Don Howell Files For U S House Of Representatives

Don Howell, 41 year old native of Goldsboro, filed official with the State Board of Elections in Raleigh at 11:00 a.m. Monday for a seat in the United States House of Representatives from the Third Congressional District.

Howell, a semi-retired businessman, is a life-long Democrat and has received a certificate of appreciation for his service to the Democrat party. He has announced that he is running on a progressive ticket on a business like basis.

Howell released the following statement:

"I feel that the needs of the people take on a high degree of varying difference from the edge of Piedmont North Carolina to our Coastal area. I will be forever mindful of the specific needs of our own people in the Third District. Our district definitely has a potential and all we need is to perfect it. It cannot be achieved by talk alone. It must be done by the desire and action of the people. A negative

He states further, "I am firmly convinced that I have the ability to achieve these things. I acquired this capacity through a series of hard knocks which have given me an accompaniment approach to problems.

"I can hardly believe that the views of the people of our great nation could be as varied as some of our elected officials would have us believe the complex problems on the national level stem in many cases from the decisions of our elected officials. Yet instead of working in unity, many of the Senators and Congressmen disassociate themselves from the national problems and work in diverse directions as individuals. Yet those who would take no stand at all are even more detrimental to our cause."

Don Howell has developed a twenty point program to be released in the near future in which he will state specifically his campaign program so that each voter will have a clear understanding of his views.
