

Wallace-R-H Wins Basketball TOURNNEY Crown, 80 - 60 Over Rival Burgaw

Start slow, finish first are the words of Coach Tommy Edwards following the biggest win ever Monday night. Edwards' Bulldogs slapped highly regarded Burgaw 80-60 Monday night for the championship in the strong East Central 2-A Conference. Way back several months ago the Wallace-Rose Hill Bulldogs floundered around with only three wins in their first dozen games. Edwards was already walking the floor at night pulling out his hair and just plain upset with the basketball program. But remembering back Coach Edwards declared that his club was young with very little experience. "With one senior we may still be a year away", were the words of the likeable Bulldog mentor.

Then things began to come along with experience and a few big jumps or defeat, the Bulldogs just don't stay on the losing side very long...a tradition Coach Thell Overman has inscribed in the Wallace and Wallace-Rose Hill Schools. Coach Edwards stated after ever - dangerous Southern Wayne, that his boys would be ready come tournament time.

"We'll win a few and lose a few but we want the tournament championship" Edwards said.

How can a coach that has so little experience have such big dreams...Tommy Edwards had that determined desire and tonight they are the king of ECC basketball. After battling South Lenoir off the court in the biggest margin of victory, 88-44 the Bulldogs waited two weeks to count Burgaw out and claim the crown.

All conference M. L. Carr, the finals this year. A real fine top performer in the tournament took high honors in the championship game with 24 points. Carr led all scoring in the tournament with 70 points.

The Bulldogs had three others to score in double figures, including Angus Phillips with 15, Danny Wait 14, and David Wells 11. Sophomore standouts Jimmy Jerome and Robert Surratt had eight each for the champs.

Burgaw Coach Joe Clay Jones brought his Red Devils from just three wins last season to the finals this year. A real fine effort for a fine basketball team led by all-conference Charlie Groves. Groves netted 17 points, just behind Clifton White with 18. Playmaker Sam Harrell had 11 to end the scoring. Congratulations Bulldogs...

Chief Deputy Snyder Dempsey said the physician who checked Willie Williams, of the Deep

WILLARD BROWN AND LEONARD DAIL (left) of Kenansville with their big catch on Saturday. The two went fishing in Clement Whitfield's Pond in the Oak Ridge Community. Willard caught a 22" long bass weighing four pounds and two ounces. Leonard caught a Jack weighing two pounds and Chub weighing two pounds. Willard said, "This is funny weather. Last Saturday I was pushing snow and today I am catching fish."

Jehovah's Witnesses School Held

"A deep study of the Bible is required to maintain strong faith in these difficult times," remarked J. F. Cochran, local minister of Jehovah's witnesses.

This will be given on Sunday, March 17, by Joseph Sals, special minister of Jehovah's witnesses. All persons are welcome to attend the free course.

Cochran pointed out that as far as Christians were concerned their faith is being attacked from every side especially with the present immoral and atheistic tendencies that exist.

These comments came in connection with an announcement concerning the spring session of Jehovah's witnesses semi-annual circuit convention for southeastern North Carolina in 1968.

The event is slated for Morehead City, March 15-17, and will be held in the National Guard Armory.

The religious course is the first of two such courses to be held this year and is sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, world headquarters for over one million of Jehovah's witnesses.

Cochran explained that the three-day event will highlight the increased need for building up spirituality to maintain strong faith and endure in these troublesome times. Therefore the theme of the event will be, "Strengthening One Another to Remain in the Faith."

Cochran noted that Jehovah's witnesses are well known for their door-to-door type ministry work done by the Witnesses over the past year.

Highlighting the event will be an answer to the age-old question: "Why Does God Permit Bottom Community, described his condition as "A-1".

Williams has been the subject of a hunt by deputies of the sheriff's department and the Chinquapin Volunteer Fire Department Wednesday night and Thursday.

Reported as "absent minded" Williams left his home about 4 p.m. Wednesday. Several inches of rain fell in the area Wednesday night.

Williams was found sitting on a stump about 2 p.m. Thursday less than two miles from his home.

Hospitalization was not required and Williams was returned to his home.

Grandson of Duplin Backed for U. S. Judgeship

North Carolina senators recommended Tuesday the appointment by President Johnson of James Bryan McMillan, 48, of Charlotte, N. C., to be a U. S. District judge for Western North Carolina.

Sens. Sam Ervin and B. Everett Jordan, Democrats, sent their recommendation to the White House after Judge Wilcox Warlick announced his intention to retire.

The prospective Judge is the son of the former Louise Outlaw, daughter of Meadham Bryan Outlaw, who was reared at Outlaw's Bridge in Duplin County, and the late Robert H. McMillan. He has many relatives in Duplin County including Mrs.

John David Grady, James B. Outlaw and others.

McMillan graduated from Lumberton High School and Presbyterian Junior College at Maxton. From there he attended U.N.C. at Chapel Hill and then graduated from Harvard University Law School, eighth in his class.

He is the nephew of Atty. R. H. Outlaw and Mrs. A. Frank Jones of Garland. He is a native of Goldsboro.

He was on the staff of the North Carolina attorney general in 1940-42. He was in the Navy in World War II. He has practiced law in Charlotte with the firm of Haines, Mills, McMillan & Johnson since 1948.
