Auxiliary Meets

Getting ready, whatever the undertaking, getting ready is the most important part of the task.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Long Ridge Church met in the home of Mrs. Jonas Dall Friday night for a continued study of Nehemiah's building the wall at Jerusalem.

In the three programs studied Nehemiah has been sent to Jerusalem to rebuild the broken walls off the city. He has been sent by the king with his authority. He has been given a safe passage through the dangerous points and he was supplied with material. Nehemiah was ready to build. By obedience to God's direction, He will work things out for us. We too will be sent safe and supplied as was noted in the program studied.

Those taking part in the lesson were Mrs. Jonas Dall, Mrs. Johnny Singleton, Mrs. S. R. Pate Mrs. Bud Davis Mrs. Henry Sutton and Mrs. Nathan Scott.

Mrs. Henry Sutton presided at business session. Among subjects discussed during the time were pre-Easter services, Bible School and missions.

Mrs. Nathan Scott gave a report on the auxiliary convention she attended at Bethlehem Church near Chiquapin on Thursday.

Meeting opened with song "Jesus is all the World to me." Mrs. Dall read Nehemiah 2: 11-20 followed with prayer by Mrs. S. R. Pate. Meeting closed with group singing "Ready." Dismissal by Mrs. S. R. Pate.

Recreation led by Mrs. Oarrie Scott was seven "Jiffy" questions with "Jiffy" answers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dall.
