Mrs. Best To Tour With Singers

RALEIGH, N. C. - Mrs. Mary Jeanne Best, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Franklin Gibson, of Atkinson's Trailer Court Raleigh, and a sophomore at Meredith College will join the Meredith Singers and The Meredith Ensemble in a touring concert series to be conducted April 7-11.

The Singers and Ensemble will appear in Washington, D. C., Richmond, Va., New Bern, Jacksonville, Darlington, S. C., Lumberton, Fayetteville and Whiteville. Their program will be for high schools and churches. The church program is designed to be used at a regular worship service and will include a "sermon in song."

The high school program will include sacred music but also some popular and classical arrangements.

Miss Beatrice Donley is director of the 12-member vocal Ensemble, Mrs. Jane Sullivan directs The Meredith Singers, who compose the college's 42-voice touring choir.

Mrs. Best sings in the second soprano section of the choir. She is also a member of the Ensemble.

Pine Wood Derby

Saturday afternoon, March 30, Pack 20 of Warsaw held its annual Pine Wood Derby. Badges and awards earned since the last pack meeting were also presented at this meeting. The First Baptist Church was the scene of the Pack meeting. The Derbies of each den were judged for the best design. Blue ribbons were presented to the winners. Winners were Den #1 - Randy Taylor; Den #2 - Joe Korengay, Jr.; Den #3 - David Watts; Den #4 - Billy Jones; Webelos Den - Gordon Lee Pope.

The Derbies of each den were raced against each other and the den winners were raced against each other for the Pack winner. Den winners were Den #1 - Randy Taylor; Den #2 - Chuck Hinson; Den #3 - David Watts; Den #4 - Cole Holland; Webelos - Danny Rivenbark. The Pack winner was Chuck Hinson.

The following Cubs entered Pine Wood Derby: Den #1 - Pat Whitfield, Randy Taylor, Leslie Hall, and Kenneth Bell; Den #2 - Joe Korengay, Jr., Nelson Carlton, Robin Quinn, Chuck Hinson, David Carlton, Franke Steed, and Melvin Vernon; Den #3 - Floyd Cavanaugh, Benny English, David Watts, and Michael Herring; Den #4 - Sammy Veach, Eddie Cottle, Cole Holland, Billy Jones, and Ronnie Torrans; and Webelos Den - Chip Ausley, Danny Rivenbark, Allen Phillips, Gordon Lee Pope, Whit Jones, Bob Matthews, and Billy Grady.

Cubs receiving advancement were: BOBCAT - Vincent McCullen, Glenn Gardner, and Kirk Kuykendoll; Wolf badges - David Carlton and d Chad Hinson. Chuck Hinson also received a one-year service pin. Webelos receiving awards were Donnie Faust - Athletics, Forestry, and Engineer.

The following received Engineer awards: Chip Ausley, Bob Matthews, Whit Jones, Danny Rivenbark, Allen Phillips, Andy Hughes, Billy Grady, and Gordon Lee Pope.

The Cubs were reminded of the requirements which will earn them their award for the "One Nation Under God" Pilgrimage to Bath.

They are: A. To my church (1) regular attendance to my church (2) have three private talks with my minister discussing (a) how can a Cub Scout help the church (b) how my church was organized (c) why do we give to the church. B. To my school (1) Read a story about our early pioneers and discuss with a teacher the part God played in the founding of our country (2) write a theme of 50 to 1000 words on what is meant by "One Nation Under God". C. To my home (1) Give good will in my home and display my flag on patriotic holidays (2) Attend the religious pilgrimage to Bath with my parents on June 16, 1968.

A Field Day for the Pack was announced, and it is to be held the first Saturday in May.

Local Girl Elected State Vice President

Miss Barbara Raynor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bland Raynor of Warsaw, was elected Vice-President of the North Carolina Future Business Leaders of America at their state conference which was held in Durham on March 29, 30, 31. Gene Crowder, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Crowder of Warsaw, was Barbara's campaign manager, and we understand he did a real good job for Barbara. Others from James Kenan who went to the conference are Nancy Wilson, Becky Phillips, Joyce Hamilton (she was state vice-president this past year), Doc Brinson, Z. W. Frazelle, Mrs. Richard Williams, Mrs. Nelson Carlton, Janice Clark, Brenda Blanchard, Connie Rhodes, Martha Kay Goodman, Faye Summerlin, Tana Carlton, and Tricia Kornegay.

As state vice-president Barbara will go to a state executive board meeting in Durham on May 20. Along with other state officers, she will go to the national conference which will be held in Washington, D. C. in June.

Barbara is an outstanding student at James Kenan. She is in the junior class and ranks in the top ten percent of her class. She is a member of the Monogram Club, the basketball team, and is on the annual staff. Barbara is also active in her church which is Calvary Baptist Church, where she is the pianist. She has also been active in the Girls' Auxiliary of the Church.

The James Kenan chapter also won second place in the parliamentary procedure contest for the state.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my many friends for cards, gifts, flowers, prayers and every other courtesy shown me while I was in the hospital.
