Youth Music Club Met

The Warsaw Youth Music Club met Wednesday, April 3, in the Warsaw Junior High Auditorium,

Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Jr. presented a program on "The Black and white of MUSIC". Just as the eye notices differences in color, so does the ear note differences in sound. All music is filled with these contrasts, and some of them are very extreme - like the colors black and white. The best example of this is staccato and legato tones. In legato, the tones are connected to one another while staccato is exactly the opposite. When a legato passage is followed by a stac-cato, the contrast is very mark-

Jane Veach and Anita Maready were sent to the piano to demonstrate playing scales with one hand legato and the other hand staccato.

Students performing on re-cital were: Beth Killette, Trilcital were: Beth Killette, Tril-by Phillips, Megon Maready, Margaret Ausley, Kallen Hol-mes, Anna West, Shari Jones, Faye Grice, Tarla West, Cliff Smih, Jane Veach, Anita Ma-ready, Teresa Carlton, Alan Phillips, Maurice Johnson, Jo-sef Ann Smith, Mar y Alice Crowder, Barbara Lynn Black-burn Danny Rivenbark George burn, Danny Rivenbark, George Mack Pridgen, Patricia Drew, Connie Rivenbark, Mildred Simpson, Paula Hunter, Judy Revelle, Joy Hudson, Charles Costin, Mary Best Johnson, Jo Carol Jones, Wade Carlton, and Jenny Carlton
