Note of Thanks

To the teachers and staff members of the Magnolia School and to all the kind friends in the Magnolia School Community, I wish to extend my sincere thanks for the lovely reception and for the beautiful silver tray and candle sticks given to me Friday night.

My work in your school has been 42 happy and rewarding years and I am very, very grateful to you all. Miss Betty Horne

Retiring Magnolia Teachers Honored

Miss Betty Horne and Mr. C. J. Thomas were honored Friday night at a lovely reception in the Magnolia School lunchroom. The reception was given by the faculty and staff members of the school and friends of the Magnolia School Community. Around 250 friends, and present and past students of the honorees called during the evening wishing them much happiness in their retirement.

Presented to Miss Horne at the reception was a beautiful silver tray and candle sticks. The tray was engraved "Teacher-42 years-Magnolia School". A tray was also presented to Mr. Thomas. It was engraved "Principal-Teacher-16 years-Magnolia School".

Miss Horne is retiring after completing a teaching career of 42 years in the same room at the Magnolia School. She is the daughter of the late Jordan C. and Betty Florence Horne and was born and reared in Magnolia. She is a graduate of Fairfax Hall in Waynesboro, Virginia and East Carolina College.

Miss Horne, a life long member of the Magnolia Baptist Church, has been a teacher in the Primary Department for 35 years.

Miss Horne is also active in Civic affairs of the town and is a member of the Woman's Civic Club.

Mr. Thomas is retiring after completing a teaching career of 32 years. He was born in Troy, N. C., and is a graduate of Troy High School and N. C. State College. He taught in the Rose Hill and Fairmont City Schools prior to coming to Magnolia. He came to Magnolia in 1947 and worked with the Farm Veteran Program. In 1952 he became principal of the Magnolia School for one year. In 1953 he began teaching the 8th grade under Principal J. W. Newkirk. In 1956 Magnolia High School was consolidated with Kenansville and Warsaw and he became principal and has served as principal since.

Mr. Thomas is a member of the Methodist Church where he teaches a Sunday School Class and is a member of the Board of Stewards.

Mr. Thomas is active in the Civic affairs of the town and is a member of the Town Board. He has also been a member of the Rehobeth Masonic Lodge 279 since 1935.

He is married to the former Melba Quinn of Magnolia. They have two children, Mary Alice, who is graduating from UNC-G at Greensboro and Frank a junior at Guilford College.
