Fulford - Chambers Vows Exchanged

The Dobson Chapel Baptist Church, about four miles East of Kenansville, was the setting on Saturday, May 25, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon for the marriage of Miss Janice Marie Chambers and James Everette Fulford, Jr.

The Rev. E. Lamar Elland, a former pastor, now of Garland, N. C., performed the double ring ceremony in front of a lovely setting of palms interspersed with a basket of white glads and mums and candleabra holding lighted tapers.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Billy Register, pianist, who used the traditional wedding marches and Mrs. Russell Brown, soloist who sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest" also "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, attired in a floor length gown of beau de sole with waist length veil of illusion, and carrying a white Bible topped with a white orchid entered the church with her father, James David Chambers, Sr.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fulford, Sr., of Rt. 2, Warsaw. After graduating from James Kenan

High School he attended Wilmington College for a while. He is now serving in the National Guard Unit at Warsaw and when not on duty he works with his father at their garage near Warsaw.

They plan to live near his parents on Warsaw, N. C., Rt. 2, in their new Mobile Home.

For travel on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Fulford, changed to a pink ensemble and wore the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. It was given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the Church, which was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Wilbur Brock introduced the guests to the receiving line composed of the wedding party and the parents of the bridal couple.

Mrs. Willis Beach, aunt of the groom, served cake and Mrs. Jerry Jenkins served the punch. Nuts and mints were served buffet. Others assisting were Misses Judy Brock, Anne Brock and Sophie Bland. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Willard Johnson.

An after rehearsal party was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fulford, parents of the bridegroom on Friday night, in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. On this occasion, the bride's mother, Mrs. J. D. Chambers, sr., served punch. Cake squares, chesed biscuit, nuts and mints were served also. Those assisting were Mrs. Walker McNeill, Jr., Mrs. Elmo Spell, and Mrs. Gordon Kornegay. A color note of green and white was effectively used.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Chambers chose a mint green street length dress of rayon and Nylon knit with matching accessories and wore a purple orchid corsage. The bridegrooms mother, wore a pink dress of rayon and nylon knit and matching accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Melvin Bostic directed the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chambers, Sr., of Kenansville, N. C. After graduating from James Kenan High School she attended Miller Motte Business College and is now employed at the Duplin General Hospital.

Reporter Miss Dianne Moore.

Mrs. Walker McNeill, Jr. of Raleigh, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honor. She wore a formal gown of blue beau de sole and carried a bouquet of mums tinted to match her dress.

Bridesmaids were: Misses Judy Brown and Faye Bostic. Junior Bridesmaids were Ann Whitman cousin of the bride and Glenda Jones, cousin of the groom. They wore dresses similar to the honor attendant and carried matching flowers.

Ringbearer was James Walker McNeill III, nephew of the bride and the little flower girl was Margo Jenkins.

James E. Fulford, Sr., was best man for his son and Ushers were: Kenneth Minton of Raleigh, J. D. Chambers, Jr. and Frank Chambers, both brothers of the bride and Roger Teachey cousin of the groom.

For refreshments, Mrs. Mitchell assisted by Mrs. Mattie W. Sadler served lemon pie and salted nuts with coffee.
