

Sandy Plain News

Personals

Rev. Carol Hansley and Mr. Joel Kennedy enjoyed fishing at Brice's Creek near New Barn Wednesday.

Anita Hansley and Bruce Parson from Kinston had dinner with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Carol Hansley Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Sumner and Mrs. Harold Byrd made a business trip to Kinston Saturday.

Mrs. Grover Duff, and girls and Mrs. D. W. Duff and baby went shopping in Wallace Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kennedy, Jeff, Mrs. Grace Sumner, Mrs. Callie Baker and Marylin Venice had dinner at "King Bros" in Kinston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Mercer and Dwight visited his sister near Burgaw Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Mercer from Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro spent last week home with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bryan and Billy made a business trip to Jacksonville Wednesday.

Kathy Bryan from Chinquapin spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bryan.

Mrs. J. D. Kennedy and Mrs. Edward Earl Kennedy attended the Kosco Beauty Advisory School Monday through Friday last week in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Kennedy visited Mrs. Annie Kennedy of Vanceboro Saturday. They also visited the Freewill Baptist press in Ayden.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kennedy and Mrs. Edward Earl Kennedy attended a meeting of the Kosco Beauty Advisory School at the Steak House in Jacksonville Saturday night.

Mrs. Joel Kennedy, Mrs. William Thigpen and Mrs. Willie Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Jackson at Lyman Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Brantley Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kennedy and Mrs. Sara Kennedy attended the funeral of Mrs. Hollen Raynor at Jacksonville Saturday afternoon.

Linda Kay Kennedy spent Friday night and Saturday at East Carolina University in Greenville preparing for the graduation exercise Sunday afternoon. Linda Kay has been living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy, while doing her practice teaching at LaGrange since March 1st. Those attending the graduation exercise Sunday afternoon at the University were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy, Deloris, Gayle, Janet Kennedy, Micky Quinn, of Beaulville and Johnnie Lanier of Chinquapin, Linda Kay graduated with a B. S. Degree in Education.

Preston Smith attended the graduation exercise at East Carolina University in Greenville Sunday where his girl friend Judy Nobles of Deep Run graduated with a B. S. Degree in Education.

Sandy Plain has seven Seniors to graduate at East Duplin Thursday night. There was a large group from the Community to attend the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday afternoon.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ressie Kennedy Sunday afternoon were Rev. and Mrs. Otis Penney and Kem, Mrs. Tunk Baker and Mrs. Ben Hobgood.

Mr. Advant Kennedy, Kenneth Kennedy and Maurice Kennedy made a business trip to Fayetteville Saturday.

Mrs. J. D. Kennedy, Mrs. Edward Earl Kennedy, and Patricia Dunn took Mrs. Lewis Mercer back to Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro Monday. They also went shopping while there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thigpen, Billy and Eddie Bryan made a business trip to Wallace Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Beh Houston and children of Beaulville visited Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jenkins Sunday night.

Ellen Mercer from Jacksonville spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jenkins, attended a supper at Wilbur's Place in Goldsboro on Friday night given by a group of the State Worker's with whom Mr. Jenkins works.

Mrs. James Benson attended a graduation in which her little granddaughter, Alicia Heath of Kinston, graduated from kindergarten Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Curley and children of Warsaw visited with Mr. James Benson Sunday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Carol Hansley visited Mrs. Tiney Turner at Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston Tuesday night.

Mrs. Lela Mae Powell of Richlands visited her sister, Mrs. Joe Jones, Sunday afternoon.

Jimmie Turner from Shaw Air Force Base in South Carolina spent last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lumas Turner. He visited his grand mother Mrs. Tiney Turner at Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston while home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Lenord Cousineau, from Antioch, California and Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Turner, Jr. from Concord, California are spending some time with their families in the community, while their mother, Mrs. Tiny Turner is a patient in Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston. Also Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Turner from Capital Heights, Md. spent the weekend and visited with his mother, Mrs. Tiny Turner.

Rev. Eugene Sumner, from Wake Forest is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ressie Kennedy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Kennedy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Kennedy and family, and Mr. Archie Kennedy enjoyed a barbeque dinner Saturday at the tobacco barn where they cooked it.

Sandy Plain Freewill Baptist Church had a special service Sunday in which Mr. Thomas N. Deaton of Warsaw, who is Executive in charge of the Croatan District of the Tuscarora Council Boy Scouts of America, spoke to the congregation on scouting and the march in which they boy scouts will be participating in June for God and Country. He also presented the new troop charter for Troop 240. He gave some very interlarding thoughts.

Emly James, cousin of the bride, presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Norma Ann Dew, of Beaulville sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The through the adults. All ages are invited to come and enjoy the week.

With The Sick

Mrs. Tiny Turner is still a patient at Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston. She is much better at this time.

Mrs. Albert Kennedy is still very sick.

Mrs. Joe Jones returned home from Parrotts Hospital where she was a patient last week and is getting along well at this time.

Birthday Celebration

Mrs. Sarah Kennedy celebrated her 66th birthday Sunday at her home. Her nine children, all of the grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren were present. Each one carried a picnic lunch and spread it and enjoyed the day together.

She had friends from the community and from out of the county to spend the day with her. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Henery Kennedy and family and Mrs. John Matthew Kennedy from Sanford; Mr. Stephen Kennedy of the Potters' Hill Community; Mrs. Gaynell Ingram, and Mrs. Ellnor Whitefield of Kinston; and Mrs. Lou Kaiser of Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kornegay of Kenansville visited a while in the afternoon.

Bible School Schedule

Sandy Plain Freewill Baptist Church will be having Daily Vacation Bible School next week. The school will begin each evening at 8:30 and continue until 9 o'clock. Everyone is looking forward to a good time during the week. Refreshments will be served each night. Also there will be classes from Nursery Class

Piano Recital

Miss Faye Outlaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Outlaw, will be presented in her Graduation Piano Recital Friday evening, May 31, 1968, at eight-thirty o'clock at the Alum Springs Baptist Church. The public is invited to attend.

Miss James Is Bride of Mr. Foster

On Friday, May 3, at 6 o'clock in the evening in the Salem Presbyterian Church, Chinquapin, Miss Bonnie Pearl James became the bride of Mr. Delton Lee Foster. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Ira Rawls of Jacksonville, N. C.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rucian D. Jones of Rt. 2, Wallace. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Foster of Rt. 2, Beaulville.

Before an altar containing two tall brass candelabra with burning white tapers, palms and a level arrangement of white gladioli's, mums and fern, the Wedding Vows were spoken. Bows of satin ribbon marked the reserved pews.

Mrs. Maxine Shover, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore an ankle length gown of gold brocade satin styled similar to the brides gown. Her headpiece was a matching gold hood made rose bud with a circular veil. She carried a long stem yellow mem.

Mr. Ed Foster, brother of the groom, served his brother as best man.

Ushers were: Mr. Durwood James of Wallace, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert Castle of Cherry Point, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother chose for her daughters wedding an ice blue crepe dress with navy accessories. She wore a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a two piece dress of green and white with white accessories. She also wore a white orchid.

The bride's gown and veil was designed by Mrs. Grace Sumner of Beaulville.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Pat James of Wallace, sister-in-law of the bride.

For her going away attire the bride wore a pink crepe dress with black patent accessories.

Her corsage was the white orchid lifted from her Bible.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of East Duplin High School and is presently employed with Civil Service at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The groom is a 1966 graduate of East Duplin High School and is now serving with the U. S. Navy.

CAKE CUTTING

On Thursday night, May 2, following the rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Rucian James entertained members of the wedding party and close friends at a cake cutting at their home on Rt. 2, Wallace.

The table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with net. Silver bells and satin bows were also used to accent the table. An arrangement of white daisies with burning candles was placed in the center of the table.

After the bride couple had cut the first slice, Mrs. Annie Gurganus, Aunt of the Bride, served the three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom to the guests. Mrs. Irene Murray, Aunt of the Bride, assisted by serving punch from a crystal bowl at the other end of the table. Mints and nuts were also served to the approximately 30 guest attending. The wedding cake was made and decorated by an Aunt also, Mrs. Annie Gurganus.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Margaret Haymore, who has been a patient in Duke Hospital, has returned home and is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kornegay attended the Shrine Convention at Rocky Mount Thursday and Friday. They saw two of their grandchildren, Al and Lou Cochran, March in the Robertsonville parade.

Sunday, they attended the graduating exercises of East Carolina University and saw their daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Cochran, receive her masters degree.

Attend Formal Opening

Mrs. Perry Grady from Mt. Olive, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith and Stevie, Mr. Sam Waller and Mrs. W. W. Maxwell, attended the Open House Celebration of the Contractor's Service and Rentals, Inc., and these new branch business on highway 64, west of Raleigh, Saturday. The new building contains 7600 Sq. feet of floor space and is located on a two and one half acre site. With this new Raleigh Branch, similar facilities in Greensboro and an office in Columbia, South Carolina, all backed up by their Charlotte operations, they are able to offer complete service

Double Birthday Party

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Falso Smith honored them with a lovely birthday party Sunday, May 19. About seventy-five friends and relatives enjoyed the occasion with them. They served home-cooked barbeque and all the trimmings.

They received many gifts. Mrs. Smith received a birthday Mother's Ring.

Note of Thanks

We would like to express our deepest appreciation for the heart warming tribute that was paid to us on Saturday night, May 18, 1968, at the North Duplin High School Gymnasium. No words are adequate enough to emphasize just how important that night was to us. Your presence at the banquet and your many best wishes will forever have a special place in our hearts. The gift that you so graciously presented to us will always be treasured and looked upon with great admiration. We retire with such wealth- friends like you. What words would be sufficient enough to thank such wonderful friends for such wonderful memories?

Thank you again for your kindness.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Grubbs

Baccalaureate Service

The Baccalaureate Service of East Duplin High School was held on Sunday, May 26, at 4 o'clock in the school Gymnasium. Chaplin E. B. Davis of Camp Lejeune was guest speaker with Miss Ada Thigpen and Mickey Woodward bringing special music in song. The Rev. Frank Sawyer, pastor of Beaulville Presbyterian Church, had the devotion. Congregational Hymn "Lead on, King Eternal" was used. Mr. R. L. Pruitt gave the announcements, and Mr. Edgar Wells introduced the speaker. The Seniors, 146 of them, sang "Have Thine Own Way Lord". After which Rev. Eugene Carmichael gave the Benediction.

DEATHS

ARTHUR C. GURGANUS

MOUNT OLIVE -- Funeral services for Arthur Carroll Gurganus, 60, of Rt. 2, Mount Olive, who died Wednesday in a hospital in Goldsboro, were conducted in his home Saturday at 3 p.m. by the Rev. R. H. Kelly and the Rev. Billy Tyndall. Burial was in the family cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kate Hudson Faulk Gurganus; one stepson, Oliver Faulk of the home and three grandchildren. He was a farmer.

Beaulville Society

Albertson News

Miss James Is Bride of Mr. Foster

On Friday, May 3, at 6 o'clock in the evening in the Salem Presbyterian Church, Chinquapin, Miss Bonnie Pearl James became the bride of Mr. Delton Lee Foster. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Ira Rawls of Jacksonville, N. C.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rucian D. Jones of Rt. 2, Wallace. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Foster of Rt. 2, Beaulville.

Before an altar containing two tall brass candelabra with burning white tapers, palms and a level arrangement of white gladioli's, mums and fern, the Wedding Vows were spoken. Bows of satin ribbon marked the reserved pews.

Mrs. Maxine Shover, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore an ankle length gown of gold brocade satin styled similar to the brides gown. Her headpiece was a matching gold hood made rose bud with a circular veil. She carried a long stem yellow mem.

Mr. Ed Foster, brother of the groom, served his brother as best man.

Ushers were: Mr. Durwood James of Wallace, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert Castle of Cherry Point, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother chose for her daughters wedding an ice blue crepe dress with navy accessories. She wore a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a two piece dress of green and white with white accessories. She also wore a white orchid.

The bride's gown and veil was designed by Mrs. Grace Sumner of Beaulville.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Pat James of Wallace, sister-in-law of the bride.

For her going away attire the bride wore a pink crepe dress with black patent accessories.

Her corsage was the white orchid lifted from her Bible.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of East Duplin High School and is presently employed with Civil Service at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The groom is a 1966 graduate of East Duplin High School and is now serving with the U. S. Navy.

CAKE CUTTING

On Thursday night, May 2, following the rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Rucian James entertained members of the wedding party and close friends at a cake cutting at their home on Rt. 2, Wallace.

The table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with net. Silver bells and satin bows were also used to accent the table. An arrangement of white daisies with burning candles was placed in the center of the table.

After the bride couple had cut the first slice, Mrs. Annie Gurganus, Aunt of the Bride, served the three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom to the guests. Mrs. Irene Murray, Aunt of the Bride, assisted by serving punch from a crystal bowl at the other end of the table. Mints and nuts were also served to the approximately 30 guest attending. The wedding cake was made and decorated by an Aunt also, Mrs. Annie Gurganus.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Margaret Haymore, who has been a patient in Duke Hospital, has returned home and is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kornegay attended the Shrine Convention at Rocky Mount Thursday and Friday. They saw two of their grandchildren, Al and Lou Cochran, March in the Robertsonville parade.

Sunday, they attended the graduating exercises of East Carolina University and saw their daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Cochran, receive her masters degree.

Attend Formal Opening

Mrs. Perry Grady from Mt. Olive, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith and Stevie, Mr. Sam Waller and Mrs. W. W. Maxwell, attended the Open House Celebration of the Contractor's Service and Rentals, Inc., and these new branch business on highway 64, west of Raleigh, Saturday. The new building contains 7600 Sq. feet of floor space and is located on a two and one half acre site. With this new Raleigh Branch, similar facilities in Greensboro and an office in Columbia, South Carolina, all backed up by their Charlotte operations, they are able to offer complete service

Double Birthday Party

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Falso Smith honored them with a lovely birthday party Sunday, May 19. About seventy-five friends and relatives enjoyed the occasion with them. They served home-cooked barbeque and all the trimmings.

They received many gifts. Mrs. Smith received a birthday Mother's Ring.

Note of Thanks

We would like to express our deepest appreciation for the heart warming tribute that was paid to us on Saturday night, May 18, 1968, at the North Duplin High School Gymnasium. No words are adequate enough to emphasize just how important that night was to us. Your presence at the banquet and your many best wishes will forever have a special place in our hearts. The gift that you so graciously presented to us will always be treasured and looked upon with great admiration. We retire with such wealth- friends like you. What words would be sufficient enough to thank such wonderful friends for such wonderful memories?

Thank you again for your kindness.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Grubbs

Baccalaureate Service

The Baccalaureate Service of East Duplin High School was held on Sunday, May 26, at 4 o'clock in the school Gymnasium. Chaplin E. B. Davis of Camp Lejeune was guest speaker with Miss Ada Thigpen and Mickey Woodward bringing special music in song. The Rev. Frank Sawyer, pastor of Beaulville Presbyterian Church, had the devotion. Congregational Hymn "Lead on, King Eternal" was used. Mr. R. L. Pruitt gave the announcements, and Mr. Edgar Wells introduced the speaker. The Seniors, 146 of them, sang "Have Thine Own Way Lord". After which Rev. Eugene Carmichael gave the Benediction.

DEATHS

ARTHUR C. GURGANUS

MOUNT OLIVE -- Funeral services for Arthur Carroll Gurganus, 60, of Rt. 2, Mount Olive, who died Wednesday in a hospital in Goldsboro, were conducted in his home Saturday at 3 p.m. by the Rev. R. H. Kelly and the Rev. Billy Tyndall. Burial was in the family cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kate Hudson Faulk Gurganus; one stepson, Oliver Faulk of the home and three grandchildren. He was a farmer.

FREE EXCLUSIVE COLOR photo/pak

with every roll of 126 KODACOLOR brought to our store between May 10th through MAY 31st.

Consisting of:

- * ONE 5 X 5 FRAMING SIZE ENLARGEMENT
- * TWO 2 1/2 X 2 1/2 POCKET SIZE PRINTS
- * ONE ATTRACTIVE 5 X 5 FRAME MOUNT

FREE Certificate will be returned with finished work --- you select the negative for enlargement (photo/pak).

Share Your Pictures

FATHERS DAY - WEDDINGS AND OTHER

Warsaw Drug Company Co.

"The Rexall Store" Warsaw, N. C. Telephone 293-4521 Delivery Service

"Remember the Day in Pictures"

HARDBARGER BUSINESS COLLEGE
P. O. BOX 1026 KINSTON, N. C.

Please send me full information about your school

I would like an appointment at home - - - at school - - - Street - - - If RFD What Near - - - Post Office - - - Name - - -

SUMMER TERM DAY SCHOOL JUNE 11

Complete Secretarial Courses
Accounting Courses
Speedwriting-Shorthand-Individual Subjects

CALL KINSTON JA7-0240 FOR APPOINTMENT
Free Counseling at our Office or in your Home

Hardbarger Business College

"A SELECT SCHOOL SINCE 1924"
KINSTON, N. C.

Ford Dealers' One Cent Sale on Wagons.

Buy any '68 Ford wagon. One cent more gets you this Radio Town & Country children's wagon. And you'll also be getting a Ford "vacation machine" offering Better Ideas like a 2-way doorgate, smart all-vinyl upholstery, great options like SelectShift, even air conditioning. But hurry... One Cent Sale ends June 30!

See the light, North Carolina. The switch is on...to Ford

See Your Ford Dealer

Manufacturers License No. 120