Bible School Planned For Methodists

A Bible School has been planned for the Warsaw Baptist Methodist youth to be held from nine o'clock to eleven thirty each morning, June 3 through 7.

Mrs. Arthur Benton is director this year.

Teachers for each group are: Kindergarten - Mrs. Jack Boney and Mrs. J. T. Lanier; Elementary 1 and 2 - Mrs. William Costin and Mrs. Durwood Strickland; Elementary 3 and 4 - Mrs. Harold Rose and Mrs. C. C. Rouse; and Elementary 5 and 6 - Mrs. Warren Creasey and Mrs. Ellis Register.

All youth are invited to attend this Bible School.

Presbyterians Plan Bible School

The Warsaw Presbyterian Church will hold its annual Bible School June 2 through 7 at seven-thirty in the evening. There will be a class for each age group, including Young People and Adults. Rev. Don Skinner will teach the Adult Class; Mrs. Don Skinner, Youth; Mrs. J. W. Farrior, Juniors; Mrs. Bill Best, Primary; Mrs. V. A. Stancil, Kindergarten; and Mrs. Wayland Davis, Nursery.

You are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to study the Bible as a family.

Mrs. Costin Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. William Costin was hostess to the members of her bridge club and additional guests at eight o'clock on Thursday evening at her home near Warsaw. Mrs. Costin served potato chips, dip, and soft drinks during play. When scores were tallied, Mrs. Brooks Boyette was high scorer for which she received a picnic bag. Second high was captured by Mrs. Marvin Sutton for which she received plaques. Mrs. J. B. Herring received strawberries for traveling, and Mrs. Joe Brinson received a double deck of cards for consolation. Others playing were Mrs. Norwood Graham, Mrs. Geraldine Wray, Mrs. Durwood Strickland, and Mrs. Hubert Merritt.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Atkinson of Roberts, Georgia announce the birth of a daughter Camille Ella, weight 8 pounds 8 ounces at 12:20 p.m. on Monday, May 27 in the Macon Hospital in Macon, Georgia. The Atkinsons are former residents of Warsaw.

Girl Scouts Hold Bridging Ceremony

The Girl Scouts held a bridging ceremony at 3:30 on Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of the Warsaw Junior High School.

The Cadette Scouts, led by Debbie Vernon, Officer of the Day, marched from the hall to the stage where they formed a horseshoe. As the color guard advanced, the audience arose and stood at attention while the Girl Scouts pledged allegiance to our Flag. The color guard posted the colors and were dismissed.

Cadette Marian Sheffield led the Brownies, Juniors, and Cadettes in singing "She Wears a G for Generosity". Cadette Joe Carol Jones gave the Welcome to the Juniors who are bridging to Cadettes. A challenge to Cadettes was given by Mary Best Johnson, and the Promise and the laws for Cadettes were given by Renee Carlton. The Cadette Uniform was described by Vivian Har-

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Romey Langley of Warsaw announce the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Dale Langley Walston, to Mr. George V. Smith of Rose Hill. Mr. Smith is the son of Herbert Smith and the late Mrs. Herbert Smith of Wilmington. The wedding will take place June 11 in Warsaw.

Boy Scouts Received God And Country Awards

Ten million 4-H Club members throughout the United States took part in Church services during the month of May. During the eleven o'clock worship service on Sunday, May 26 at the Warsaw Methodist Church, Bill Costin, Jr. presided, and Leslie Hall was acolyte. Ushers were Raphael Denning, Lynn Hall, Ricky Sloan, and Dennis Graham. Later in the service, Thomas Hall who is a leader in the Shamrock Club and a lay speaker in the Warsaw Methodist Church, brought the morning message, "The Responsibilities of Adults to Youth".

Many Boy Scouts were present for the morning service along with several troop leaders. The Boy Scouts and their leaders marched in during the processional hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers". The Scouts pledged allegiance to the Flag of the Christian Church and to the Flag of the United States. The colors were posted, and then the Rev. W. R. Crowder summarized the requirements for the boys who receive God and Country Awards in Scouting.

The requirements are divided into three stages of four months each. During each they touch on some area of Christian Faith, Christian Witness, Christian World Outlook (Missions), Christian Citizenship, and Christian Fellowship. It involves memory work such as in memorizing scripture. It involves work in the Church and on the Church grounds. It involves worship and devotion in family life. It involves being a good Christian in the community and in the world. It requires many hours of work by the Boy Scout with the pastor of his Church.

Bill Britt, who is also a Boy Scout, presented the candidates and their parents to the altar. Rev. Crowder then presented Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Johnson; Charles Johnson; son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson; and Gene Wesley Crowder, son of Rev. and Mrs. Crowder with their God and Country awards. The boys also presented their parents with their awards which go along with the God and Country award. It is believed that this is the first time a boy in the Warsaw Methodist Church has received a God and Country Award.

In his morning message, Mr. Hall said that Scouting is a very good example of the cooperation that is needed between adults and youth today and what it can accomplish.

Mr. Ross F. Wadkins who has retired after many years of teaching the Men's Sunday School class was remembered during the service with a gift from the men of the class.
