Miss O'Leary - Mr. Byrd Exchange Vows

At seven thirty on Wednesday evening, May 29, in the Warsaw Presbyterian Church, Miss Harriet Elizabeth O'Leary and Billy Junious Byrd were united in marriage. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. J. Don Skinner, pastor of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Russell O'Leary of Warsaw and the late Mr. O'Leary. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd of Warsaw.

Vows were exchanged before an altar of palm leaves, tall, seven-branch candelabra with white burning tapers, and arrangements of white gladiolas, white chrysanthemums, baby's breath, and palm leaves.

Mrs. Ben Bowden of Warsaw, organist, presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Miss Karen Deluca of Warsaw sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Albert Q. Smith, Sr. of Magnolia, and was given in marriage by her mother. She wore a gown of white kitten satin which was fashioned with an empire waist line, rounded neckline, and long sleeves which ended with lace in a slight flare at the wrists. The lace matched that at the bottom of her gown. The matching detachable chapel train was trimmed in the same lace as the gown. She wore a mantilla which she designed and she and

On Tuesday Rev. W. R. Crowder, Mrs. D. J. Middleton, and Ross Watkins attended the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church which is being held at Methodist College in Fayetteville with Hay Street Methodist Church as co-host. Mrs. Middleton is the delegate from the Warsaw Methodist Church. She and Rev. Crowder will also attend on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. H. P. Smith of Wilmington and Norwood G. Smith of Raleigh were here Thursday night for Beth West's graduation. Mrs. Smith is her grandmother, and Mr. Smith is her uncle.

Mrs. Herbert Best who was an operative patient at Wayne Memorial Hospital is at home.

Warsaw greeted the guests. Mrs. Charles Joyner of Magnolia presided at the register on which there was an urn of white mums and white burning tapers. Mrs. Fred Baars of Warsaw invited guests to the dining room.

The dining table was covered by a white satin cloth with an imported white crocheted cloth over it. The centerpiece was white larkspur, daisies, baby mums, and a few white burning tapers. The three-tiered wedding cake which was decorated in white and green was adorned by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Russell O'Leary served the cake after the bride couple cut the first slice. Mrs. W. H. Byrd served punch from an antique cut glass punch bowl. Toasted pecans and green and white mints were also served. The buffet and serving table were decorated with magnolia leaves and blossoms and white burning tapers in hurricane lamps.

Arrangements of summer flowers were used throughout the house. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Bobby Smith, Miss Sharon Rouse, and Miss Sherry Powell.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Ray West of Warsaw.

her mother made. It was made of bridal tulle, and it was edged in the same lace as was used on her gown. Lace flowers were applied on the mantilla.

Her only ornament was a silver, heart-shaped locket which was a gift from the groom. She carried a white Bible with white roses and long, white ribbon streamers. The Bible was given to her when she was six years old by a good friend, Mrs. N. T. Pickett of Magnolia.

Mrs. G. W. Smith, Jr. of Raleigh was matron of honor. She wore an ankle-length, cornflower blue gown of textured cotton. It was styled with an empire waistline, rounded neckline, short sleeves, inverted front pleat, and a self bow at the waist in back. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, and baby's breath with blue streamers to match her gown.

Mrs. O'Leary chose a yellow knit sheath dress designed with matching, knitted, short sleeves, yellow and white accessories, and a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Byrd wore a light aqua green polyester knit dress and matching jacket with aqua and white accessories and a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. W. R. Benson of Warsaw, grandmother of the groom, wore a navy voile dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. N. T. Pickett of Magnolia wore a beige silk shantung dress with beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Phillip H. Williamson of Clarkton served as best man. Ushers were Donald Knowles of Warsaw and Leslie R. Tubb of Fayetteville.

The bride and groom received in the vestibule of the church immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. W. Fred Pickett of Goldsboro presided at the register.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. L. B. Hule of Warsaw.

Before departing for a short wedding trip to Topsall Beach, the bride couple were honored with a wedding supper at the Country Squire. For traveling the new Mrs. Byrd chose a dress ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was the white roses lifted from her Bible.

Mrs. Byrd is a recent graduate of East Carolina University, and she will be employed in the Robeson County Public Schools.

Mr. Byrd is a graduate of Southeastern Junior College in Whiteville. The couple will be at home in Pembroke where the bridegroom is entering Pembroke State College.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, Jr. of Raleigh; Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Wyche of Whiteville; Mrs. Henry B. Wyche, Sr. of Hallsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Blanchard of Turkey; Clyde Malpass and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Honeycutt, Johnny, and Phil of Chadbourn; James D. Tubb of Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fred Pickett of Goldsboro; Mrs. J. H. Rouse, Bert, and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. Q. Smith, Sr., A. Q. Smith, Jr., and Mrs. N. T. Pickett of Magnolia.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hines, Mrs. Edward Lee, Mrs. Jack Farrington, Linda Carol, Sheral, and Dean, Mrs. Charles Byrd and Lynne, Mrs. Mickey Fortner, and Mrs. Charles West of Clinton.

Retiring Employee Honored

The employees of Quilm-McGowan Company honored Mrs. Clyde Surratt who recently retired from the company due to her health, with a steak supper held at the Country Squire on Saturday evening. On arrival she was presented a corsage of yellow roses. They also presented her with a pin and earring set. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Best, the honoree and Mr. Clyde Surratt, Mrs. Hector McNeil, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Crowder, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
