McGill - Williams Wedding Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Priscilla Irene Williams and George DeCabb McGill, Jr. was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, August 4, 1968 at 4 o'clock in the Kenansville Methodist Church with the Rev. A.T. Clarke, pastor of the bride officiating. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Kenansville. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George D. McGill, Sr. of Harrells. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in an empire white crepe dress that she designed and made herself. The bodice was covered with imported lace. Her train was trimmed with matching lace appliques. Her Rosette headpiece was attached to a waist length net veil and she wore long white gloves. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of mums and white roses.

Miss Ruth Reynolds of Kenansville, who is a close friend of the bride was the Maid of Honor. She was attired in a long dress of pink peau de sole with lace train and carried a nosegay of pink and white mums.

Mrs. Robert A. Burley of Harrells, N.C. and Mrs. Conrad H. Jenkins of Kenansville sisters of the bride, were Maids of Honor. They wore dresses identical to the Maid of honor and carried crescent shaped flowers of pink and white mums.

The only child attendant was Little Miss Lisa Clarke, Flower girl, a Sunday School Student of the bride. She wore an A-line dress of pink peau de sole and matching lace train. She carried a dainty white basket filled with flowers to which pink streamers were attached.

Robert M. Burley of Harrells, N.C. was the groom's best man. Ushers were Edward Haves, Jr. of Wallace and Paul Holland of Asheboro, N.C. friends of the groom. They wore white dinner jackets and dark pants.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a blue dress with lace trim. She wore matching accessories and carried a dainty lace handkerchief. She wore a large purple orchid.

The groom's mother wore a Rose embroidered linen dress with matching accessories and carried a dainty lace handkerchief in her hand. She wore a large purple orchid.

The bride is a graduate of James Kenan High School and is presently employed as legal stenographer for Judge Russell J. Lanier in Kenansville.

Her husband is a graduate of the Wallace-Rose Hill High School and North Carolina State University at Raleigh. He is presently engaged in farming and Saw Mill operations, in the Harrells Community.

A program of Nuptial music was rendered by Joseph E. Quinn, Church Organist and Mrs. Geraldine Summerlin also Conrad Jenkins, brother-in-law of the bride, soloists. Mrs. Summerlin sang, "Whither Thou Goest" and Mr. Jenkins sang, "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Betty Sauls presided at the Register, and Mrs. Alexanne Clarke directed. Upon their return from a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and Tennessee, the couple will be at home at Route # 1, Harrells.

The Bride's Going-Away Dress was one that she had made herself. It was a white A-line style with white lace yoke. Her corsage was of white mums.

Invitation Issued
 Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Brinson request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter
 Zelle Pollock to Mr. Eugene Alexander Jackson
 on Saturday afternoon, August the seventh at four thirty o'clock
 Kenansville Baptist Church
 Kenansville, North Carolina

Reception will be held following the ceremony in the Education Building of the Church. No invitations are being sent locally. All friends and relatives are cordially invited.

Miss Brinson Honored
 Miss Zelle Pollock Brinson, bride elect of Eugene Jackson, was the inspiration of several parties recently. On Wednesday evening, July 24, a lingerie shower was given honoring her. The hostess was Miss Judith Brandt of 2810-H Carriage Drive, in Winston-Salem.

Miss Brandt, who is to be the Maid of Honor in Miss Brinson's wedding on August 17th and her room-mate, Miss Evelyn Brake, greeted the guests at the door as they arrived.

The decor of the room and table was pink and white. After a short time of conversation, the beautiful gifts of lingerie were opened and admired.

Refreshments of gingerale, nuts, mints, brownies and meringue-shells filled with peppermint ice cream were served, to the fifteen close friends present.

Coffee Hour
 On Saturday morning, August 3rd from 10 until 12 o'clock, the home of Mrs. Cranford McMillan was the scene of a coffee hour honoring Miss Zelle Pollock Brinson, bride elect of the month. Joint hostesses were Mrs. Cranford McMillan, Mrs. Earl Warren and Mrs. Peyton Lee.

Guests were greeted at the front door by Mrs. McMillan and directed to the receiving line composed of the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Woodrow Brinson of Kenansville and the bride-groom's mother, Mrs. Jasper D. Jackson of Rt. 1 Dunn. The mothers wore yellow corsages of small mums. The honoree's corsage was of yellow roses.

The dining room table was centered with a lovely arrangement of pink and rose roses. Blueberry muffins, ribbon sandwiches, cheese straws, ham served buffet. Punch and coffee were also served to the 50 who attended.

Guests said their goodbyes to Mrs. Lee from the side door of the den. The guest book was kept on a table near this door where an arrangement of pink snapdragons was used.

Among those from Kenansville who attended this coffee hour were: Mesdames Amos Brinson, Willard Brinson, J.B. Wallace, Ellis Vestal and N.B. Boney also Mrs. Annie Mae Brinson Blanton from Rose Hill.

Miscellaneous Shower
 Miss Zelle Pollock Brinson of Kenansville and Winston-Salem was again honored on last Saturday night, August 3, from 8 until 10 o'clock at a floating miscellaneous shower. This occasion was held in the home of Mrs. A.G. Warren on Route 2 Roseboro, N.C. Joint hostesses were: Mrs. A.G. Warren, Miss Maxie Warren, Mrs. M.G. Warren, Mrs. Herman Warren, Mrs. Hannibal Baggett, Mrs. Freddie Jackson, Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr., Mrs. Howard McLamb, Mrs. Floyd Baggett, Mrs. H.B. Smith and Mrs. Roy Peterson.

The color scheme emphasized throughout the home was green and white. Refreshments served to the 70 who called consisted of lime punch, nuts, mints, party cakes, cheese wafers, and open faced sandwiches.
