Miss Ann Price Wed To Mr. Earl Teachey

The marriage of Miss Ann Marie Price and Mr. Edwin Earl Teachey, Jr., was solemnized on Saturday, August 10, at four o'clock in the Rose Hill Methodist Church. The Rev. Charles E. Sparks, minister of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Marshall Price of Rose Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edwin Earl Teachey, Sr., and the late Mr. Teachey.

Vows were spoken before a satin-covered kneeling bench. Lighted candles in three candelabra and palms graced the chancel and white snap dragons, a n d chrysanthemums were used in the altar vases.

A prelude of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Christian Cypher of Raleigh. Miss Jeanette Gardner of Ayden sang "O Lord Most Holy" by Cesar Franch and "The Wedding Prayer" by Fern Glasgow Dunlap. The processional was "Trumpets Voluntary" and Psalm XIX" was used as the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of peau de sole with a bateau neckline and short sleeves. The smooth, sheath-like front flowed into a chapel train. Crescent-shaped motifs of imported re-embroidered alencon lace were applied at the neckline and around the train. Her fingertip mantilla of matching alencon lace and the illusion veil were attached to a lace-covered pillbox. The bride carried a white orchid mounted in a nosegay of white roses and bridal mums.

Miss Jane Price was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a full length gown of mint green crepe fashioned with short sleeves and a round neckline accented with bridal beads. The back of the dress featured a flowing panel accented at the top by a bow. Her matching headpiece was illusion veil attached to a ribbon bow accented with bridal beads. She carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Haydee Fernandez of Santiago, Chile, foster sister of the bride; Miss Johnny Carr of Rose Hill; Miss Salie McLarty of Brevard; and Mrs. David Battle of Camp Lejeune, cousin of the bride-groom. Miss Rejan Price, of Charlotte, cousin of the bride, and Miss Glenda Jones of Rose Hill were junior bridesmaids. Their dresses and nosegays were identical to those of the maid of honor.

Flowergirl was Miss Martha Golden of Huntington, West Va. A green sash accented her white empire waistline dress of embroidered organdy. Little Miss Golden carried a basket of mixed flowers similar to those of the bridesmaids.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. H.M. Price, wore a blue sheath of silk linen accented by matching lace. She wore matching accessories and white gloves. Mrs. Edwin Teachey, mother of the bride-groom, wore a pink silk linen sheath accented by embroidered lace, and wore matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

Mr. D. Byron Teachey, was his nephew's best man. Ushers were Mr. Roger Teachey of Wilmington, brother of the bride-groom; N. John Surratt of Rose Hill, cousin of the bride; and Mr. Reuben Hawes of Wilson.

The wedding was under the direction of Mrs. C.W. Surratt and Mrs. J.C. Cooper, Jr.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a navy blue dress fashioned with a full bodice, long sleeves, patent leather belt, and plaid skirt, and wore navy blue accessories, tier white orchid corsage was lifted from her bouquet.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will reside in Teachey, N.C. Mrs. Teachey, an honors graduate of Greensboro College, will teach eighth grade in the Pender County School System. Mr. Teachey a graduate of East Carolina University will continue his position as teacher and coach at Rose Hill Elementary School.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. H.M. Price entertained the bridal party and wedding guests at a reception at their home on North Bay Street.

Guests were greeted at the front door by Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Surratt and were introduced to the receiving line consisting of Mrs. Price, Mrs. Edwin Earl Teachey, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Earl Teachey Jr., Miss Jane Price, Miss Haydee Fernandez, Miss Salie McLarty, Miss Johnny Carr, Mrs. David Battle, Miss Rejan Price, and Miss Glenda Jones.

Mrs. N.H. Carter of Wallace directed the guests to the dining room. The guests were served punch, wedding cake, mints, and nuts by Mrs. Robert Byrd of Burlington and Miss Mary Ann Teachey, Miss Amelia Forlaw, Miss Cathy Mattocks, and Miss Anne Davis assisted in serving. The table, covered with a lace-trimmed cloth, had a silver punch bowl at one end and the tiered wedding cake at the other. An arrangement of white flowers and candles were on the buffer.

Mrs. George Price directed the guests to the gift room where Mrs. John C. Golden, Jr., received. Miss Odessa Smith of Albemarle presided at the register on the side porch. Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Teachey of Rose Hill. Hostess-at-large for the occasion was Mrs. R. S. Troy.

After the Price-Teachey rehearsal, Mrs. C.W. Surratt of Rose Hill and Mrs. John C. Golden, Jr., of Huntington, West Virginia, entertained members of the wedding party and guests at the home of Mrs. Surratt of Ridge St.

White corsages were presented to the bride-elect, her mother, and the bride-groom's mother. The table was covered with a white lace cloth. A lovely arrangement of pink and white flowers centered in the table carried out the pink and white motif. Bridal cakes, mints, and nuts were served.

Mrs. H.M. Price, mother of the bride-elect, served strawberry punch, and Mrs. E.E. Teachey, Sr., mother of the bride-groom-elect, served cake, nuts, and mints. Miss Jane Price, Miss Haydee Fernandez, and Miss Amelia Forlaw assisted in serving.

During the party, Miss Price and Mr. Teachey presented gifts to the bridesmaids and ushers.
