

WE SALUTE

Beulaville

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Edwards made a business trip to Kinston Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Creech and daughter, Rhonda, shopped in Kinston, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Campbell and James spent the weekend at their cottage on the White Oak River, near Swansboro.

Mrs. Lizzie Sumner was in Kinston, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Campbell and Janice, Gordon, and Raymond left Friday for their vacation in the mountains of North Carolina. They are expected to arrive home Friday.

James Campbell and Eddie Barnette made a business trip to Wilmington, Friday.

Mrs. Mary S. Mercer of Lancaster, South Carolina is spending a few days at her home in Beulaville.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Campbell shopped in Jacksonville, Saturday.

James Emery Campbell made a business trip to Kinston, Saturday.

Terry Williams, Freddy Jones, James Campbell and Eddie Barnette were in Wilmington, Monday.

Miss Jessie Ann Thomas, Miss James Lou Thomas and Mrs. Annette Fountain were in Kinston on Monday.

Mr. Emery Campbell, Gilbert, Gordon and Raymond Campbell enjoyed fishing and picnicking at Topsaid recently.

Mrs. Jean Kennedy and Miss Janice Campbell shopped in Kinston on Thursday.

Mrs. Sudie Garvey of Jacksonville has been visiting here this week. Those she visited were: Mr. and Mrs. Ophus Whaley & Mr. & Mrs. Eddie Rhodes.

Y F A

The Beulaville Y F A met at the home of Holly Jones on Wednesday night. Lynn Sumner called the meeting to order. First we had our lesson with Holly Jones, Sharon Sanderson, Janet Brown, Kathryn Exum, and Sandra Thomas taking part. Johnnye Thomas, acting as program chairman, made several comments about the lesson. Janet Brown read the minutes and called the roll. After a business session officers were selected for the next year.

They are as follows: President, Terry Edwards; Vice President Pam Thomas; Secretary Janet Brown; Treasurer, Brenda Grady; Program Chairman, Kathryn Exum; Historian Johnnye Thomas; Reporter, Sharon Sanderson; Social Chairman, Billie Jarman, Marilyn Walton, and Leland Sanderson. Those attending were Linda Brown, Lynn Sumner, Kathryn Exum, Holly Jones, Terry Edwards, Leland Sanderson, Brenda Grady, Johnnye Thomas, Pam Thomas, Marilyn Walton, Sharon Sanderson, Janet Brown, Sandra Thomas, Grace Sumner and Ruth Jones.

DEATHS

Warren A. Thomas

Warren A. Thomas, age 62, died Friday, in a Kinston Hospital. Funeral services were held Sunday at 3:00 p.m., at the Beulaville Free Will Baptist Church. Services were conducted by Rev. Bruce Dudley, Rev. David Hansley, and Rev. S.A. Smith. Interment followed in East Duplin Memorial Gardens, with Masonic Rites.

The hostess served refreshments.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES - SENTINEL

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Verdie Horne Thomas, of Beulaville, one daughter, Mrs. Leta Warren Grady, of Louisville, one sister, Mrs. Lessie T. Exum, of Beulaville, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Ivey S. Fisher

KINSTON--Mrs. Inez Stroud Fisher, 54, died Thursday. Funeral services were conducted Friday at 3 p.m. at Edwards Funeral Home by the Rev. Lacy Oliver and the Rev. John L. Norman. Burial was in Pinelawn Memorial Park. Surviving are her husband, Hugh S. Fisher; two daughters, Mrs. C.W. Humphrey of Wilson and Mrs. Jane Gordon Fisher of Kinston; five sisters, Mrs. Webb Tyndall and Mrs. Melvin Fordham, both of Kinston, Mrs. L.B. Pope Jr., of Dunn, Mrs. James Norwood Vause of Marion, S.C. and Mrs. Walter Kluckovich of Beutit, Lebanon; one brother Albert Ja-

Mattie Lou Williamson, 43, died Saturday at her home. Funeral services were held at 3:00 Monday from Quinn McGowan Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. John Lee and Rev. Otis Penny. Interment was in the Brock Cemetery near Kenansville.

She is survived by two sons, Henry Earl Williamson of the home, Herbert Thomas Williamson of Oxford. Four sisters, Mrs. Minnie Benson of Beulaville, Mrs. Sudie Jenkins, Miss Estell Williamson and Mrs. Elsie Williamson all of Warsaw, N.C. One brother William David Williamson of Warsaw.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN

MRS. ONEAL CHAMBERS

Mrs. Chambers, who has been employed by Waccamaw Bank and Trust Company for several years, has recently been promoted to assistant cashier of the Rose Hill office. Oneal is a native of Magnolia, and is married to Ralph Chambers, formerly of Rt. 1 Kenansville. They, with their two sons, Michael-age 10 and Dennis-age 6, reside in Rose Hill. Mrs. Chambers is a graduate of Magnolia High School and began working in the Rose Hill bank in 1955, where she remained until 1960. She did part time work relieving for vacations, etc., until she returned for full time employment in 1966. She finds little time for hobbies after filling the role of housewife, mother, and career woman, preferring to spend every possible minute with her family.

Senior Citizen

MRS. W. VAN BROWN

Affectionately known as "Miss Annis," Mrs. Brown makes her home with her son Stedman Brown, Rt. 1, Chinquapin. She is a member of the Muddy Creek Primitive Baptist Church and attends regularly. She has eight children: Stedman, Woodrow, and Hassell, all of Chinquapin; Mrs. Ralph Strothers, Jacksonville; Miss Ruth Brown, Kinston; Mrs. Charles Grady, Sr., Kenansville; Mrs. Madolyn Brown, Jacksonville; and Mrs. Luvane Hart of Jacksonville. She also has 23 grand children and 19 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Brown spent four years confined to a wheel chair following a stroke of paralysis, but due to determination and excellent care she now walks with the aid of a cane. She enjoys helping others as much as possible, though she has to do mostly "sitting down jobs." She likes TV which helps her pass many hours, but prefers people. She says the best thing about her now is her appetite.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Stallings announce the engagement of their daughter, Yvonne, and Pryce Baldwin Jr. of Brooklyn, New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pryce Baldwin of Lake Waccamaw.

The wedding is planned for Saturday, August 31, at First Baptist Church.

Miss Stallings received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education this past June from A and T State University at Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mr. Baldwin is a 1966 graduate in English of A and T State University. He is employed by the Board of Education of New York City.

Seven Springs News Personals

Mrs. Rena B. Rouse celebrated her birthday on Wednesday, August 7. Barbecue with all the trimmings were served. Mrs. Rachel Stroud, sister of Mrs. Rouse, baked a pound cake for her. Mrs. Rouse received many nice gifts. Mrs. Peggy Davis and Mrs. Lloyd Rouse went to Deep Run. Mrs. Peggy Davis and Mrs. Lloyd Rouse went to Deep Run last week. Mrs. Rachel Stroud and her nieces Doris, Faye and baby spent last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Rouse.

Electrifying savings on '68 Fords at year's lowest prices.

Welcome to the largest selection of new '68 Fords, Mustangs, Torinos that Ford Dealers have ever had. Welcome to the greatest savings we've ever offered on every car in stock. We're trading high and pricing low. Come get 'em.

SEE YOUR FORD DEALERS