Miss Gloria Ann Dafford Is Bride Of Mr. John Lewis Shropshire

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony in the greater St. Luke Holy Church in Rose Hill on August 10, 1968 at three o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Gloria Dafford became the bride of Mr. John Lewis Shropshire of Charlotte and Washington D.C. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. W. J. Cox, Pastor of Greater St. Luke Holy Church, assisted by Rev. Fred D. Ashford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Dafford of Rose Hill. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Shropshire of Charlotte.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mr. Howard Boney, organist and Miss Celesta Shropshire, vocalist.

The vows were spoken in front of a white satin covered kneeling bench before an altar banked with palms and centered with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums, gladioli, and snapdragons and was flanked on both sides by candelabras holding lighted cathedral tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle with lace appliques and was styled in the empire line. The bodice featured a round scooped neckline with sleeves embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. The A-line skirt was detailed with motifs of lace near the neckline. Her full chapel train, which fell from the empire line, was also highlighted with motifs of lace. Her tiered veil of imported silk bridal illusion fell from a cluster of white rosettas. She carried a cascade of white carnations, centered with a white orchid and accented with tuberoses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jerome Fitch of Puxico, Missouri, sister of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of lime linen featuring a back flowing panel with rows of covered buttons made of pearl de sole on the panel. Her head-dress was a resette on lime pearl de sole which fell from lime silk illusion. She carried a nosegay of white daisies with short streamers of yellow ribbons and was centered with a large yellow mum.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Eunice Shropshire of Charlotte, sister of the groom; Miss Jacquelyn Murphy of Goldsboro, cousin of the bride; Miss Linda Clay of Charlotte; and Mrs. William P. Fennell of Kenaisville. Their headresses, dresses and bouquets were identical to those of the honor attendant.

Flower girls were Miss Karen Sessions of Aoshkie, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Linda Shropshire, of Charlotte, niece of the groom. Cleveland Bright of Magnolia, cousin of the bride served as ring bearer. He was attired in a white suit with short knee pants and white knee socks.

Miss Mary Sutton of Rose Hill and Miss Mary Kenon of Warsaw served as honorary attendants. Their dresses
