Local Man Marries In New Jersey

In a double-ring ceremony performed August 10 in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in Trenton, N.J., Miss Jeanne Marie Brown became the bride of Glenn William Rollins, Jr. Miss Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Victor Brown of Trenton, and Alvin Rollins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, Sr. of Warsaw. The Rev. Joseph McLaughlin officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length, empire gown of white crepe with side panels of lace, a scooped neckline, and long lace sleeves pointed at the wrist. Her chapel train of interlined lace fell from her shoulders. Her elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a lace-covered crown. She carried a bouquet of roses, stephanotis, and ivy.

Miss Joanne Brown of Hopewell, N.J. was maid of honor. She wore a Carolina blue floor-length, empire gown with matching headpiece and veil. She carried a nosegay of shastadasias and ivy.

Miss Joyce Brown of West Trenton and Miss Diane Sherman of Belle Mead, N.J. were bridesmaids. Their gowns and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

Glenn W. Rollins, Sr. served as his son's best man. Ushers were Jeffery Mazza of Chapel Hill and Rev. L. Mack Thompson of Wake Forest. The bride's mother chose a blue lace ensemble with matching accessories, and she wore a corsage of white rosebuds and carnations. The groom's mother wore a pink dress of pure silk with matching accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds and carnations.

Mrs. Rollins is an alumna of the Saint Frances Hospital School of Nursing in Trenton. Airman Rollins was graduated from Chowan Junior College in Murfreesboro, and he attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is presently serving in the United States Air Force in Dover, Del.

For traveling Mrs. Rollins wore a green ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. After August 26, the couple will make their home at 300 North Satae Street in Dover, Delaware.

RECEPTION & DINNER PARTY Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Victor Brown, entertained the wedding party and guests at a reception and dinner party at the Stage Depot. After the roast beef dinner, the bride and groom cut the wedding cake and the guests were served.

Jonston Baptist Circles Circle 1 met with Mrs. C. L. Ritter Monday afternoon. Mrs. Amos Kirby, chairman, presided over the meeting. The program was given by Mrs. Rudolph Best, Mrs. Hubert Phillips, Mrs. Jennie Boyette, and Mrs. J.T. Bland. Mrs. W.A. Byrd gave the devotional. During the social period, Mrs. Ritter served pound cake, ice cream topped with strawberries, and Cokes to the 8 members and 2 visitors present.

Circle 2 met in the Educational Building of the Church with Mrs. Boyce Boyette, chairman, presiding. The program was given by Mrs. Boyette Mrs. Hubert Phillips, Mrs. Norwood Phillips, and Mrs. Jesse Kirby. Five members were present.

The Junior Circle met on Monday evening with Mrs. Jimmy West. Mrs. Jesse Quinn, chairman, preside. Mrs. Glenn W. Rollins, Sr. The tables were decorated in the Early American decor, carrying out the decor of the banquet hall. The centerpiece for the bride's table was an arrangement of white summer flowers. A steak dinner was served, after which the bride and groom presented gifts to their attendants.

Note Of Thanks I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the prayers, thoughts, cards, flowers, and visits during my recent stay in Duplin General Hospital and Wayne Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Ed Blanchard
