K.D. Brown. Burial was in Rockfish Cemetery at Wallace. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Cecil A. Crandall of Stokes, with whom she made her home; three sons, Otis H. Carter of Kinston, Clyde C. day evening at Wilbur's Barbecue Restaurant near Goldsboro.

Twenty members including families and invited guests were present for the event.

Mrs. Leland Herring, club president gave thanks for the food and for the blessing and protection during the past year.

At 4:15 P.M. District Meetings were held. Miss Mary Anna Grady, President, presided over Eastern District. There were 16 members of the council present.

Films "Our Schools Have Kept us Free" and "Rafe" were shown later in the afternoon.

At 6:45 a lovely banquet was held in the cafeteria. After the dinner the Terry Sanford award recipient, Joe Sam Routh, of Wendell spoke and the Mary Marrow Scholars were presented. This was a most interesting part of the conference because here we could see some of the young people who are coming onto the teaching profession, and with the Mary Marrow scholarships being presented by CTA we felt that we've had a part in helping someone along the road in the teaching profession.

Weaver Hall was the setting for a reception and "Sing-Sing" around the piano. Mrs. Madeline Piling of Goldsboro was pianist and Charles Stout NCEA Staff Member, served as song leader. Everyone enjoyed this tremendously.

Saturday morning was the highlight of the conference. Each State Chairman presented a skit or told of their work for the coming year. Some of the skits were hilarious and we left the conference with a wonderful feeling of friendship and zeal to do a good job in our work for the coming year.

For Pennies,

you can really turn it on... and keep it on. Penny shaves, penny shoe shines. Electricity makes it all possible. With a penny's worth of electricity, you can shave every day for a year. Or toast 40 slices of bread. Or listen to a radio an hour a day for a week. Fact is, today you can get about twice as much electricity for your dollar as people did 30 years ago. Your electric bill probably isn't just pennies - but then think of all the lights you use, toast you make and TV you watch (not to mention clothes you wash, rugs you vacuum and teeth you brush.) Electricity. It's a real value, no matter how much you use or how you use it.
