Williams - Teachey Wed In Rose Hill

Miss Linda Faye Teachey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Teachey, of Rose Hill, and Mr. Wayne Webster Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Williams of Portsmouth, Va., were married on August the 31st at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Rose Hill Methodist Church. Rev. Wilbur Carroll Teachey, pastor of Grace Methodist Church in Clinton and brother of the bride heard their vows of the double wedding ring ceremony. Music for the wedding was by Mrs. Wilbur Carroll Teachey, organist of Clinton and sister-in-law of the bride. Soloist was Mr. James Daniel Jerome, Sr., of Rose Hill, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The chancel of the church was decorated beautifully with miniatures palms, white candelabra with lighted white tapers and two large arrangements of white mums, gladioli, and snapdragons. Mr. Teachey, father of the bride, escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Maid of Honor was Mrs. Robert G. Fish, Jr., of Silver Springs, Md., sister of the bride. Her floor-length gown featured princess lines in aqua and white brocade and on her hair she wore a clustered bow. She carried an arm bouquet of white pom-poms sprinkled with blue stephanotis. Miss Teachey, bridesmaid was her sister, Mrs. Edward Davis of Jacksonville, Fla. and her niece Little Miss Karen Davis, also of Jacksonville, served as Junior bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical with the gown worn by the Maid of Honor and hair covers and bouquets were the same.

Mrs. Teachey, mother of the bride wore a turquoise lace dress with accessories to match. Her bouquet was a white orchid. Mother of the groom wore a beige lace ensemble with accessories to match. Her bouquet was a cymbidium orchid.

Serving his son as best man was Mr. Webster Williams of Portsmouth, Va., groomsmen were Robert G. Fish, Jr., of Silver Springs, Md., brother-in-law of the bride, J.C. Teachey of Burlington, N.C., her brother, Timothy Goodrich and Toni Goodrich, cousins of the groom of Virginia Beach, Va. and young Gary Davis, nephew of the bride of Jacksonville, Fla. served as Junior Groomsmen.

The bride wore a formal gown of silk organza over white tulle, made along princess lines and with a sabrina neck line. Her long train was outlined with a broad band of embroidered lace bordered with a hem line of satin. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to her hair by a tailored bow at the front. She carried a bridal bouquet of pom-poms and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. For her wedding trip Mrs. Williams wore a white knit suit and the orchid from her bouquet.

After an undisclosed wedding trip the newly married couple will make their home in Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Williams attended East Carolina University and was graduated in June of this year with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Mr. Williams attended Louisburg College, and East Carolina University and is presently employed by the State of Virginia. The wedding was under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Forlaw and Mrs. Herman B. Fussell.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride received the wedding guests in the fellowship hall of the church.

MRS. WAYNE WEBSTER WILLIAMS

Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Bailey of Burgaw, aunt and uncle of the bride, introduced the guests to the receiving line, which was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Teachey, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Williams of Portsmouth, Va., parents of the bride-groom; Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Robinson of Virginia Beach, grand-parents of the bride-groom, Mrs. Robert Fish, matron of honor, Mrs. Edward Davis and Little Miss Karen Davis, bridesmaid and Junior bridesmaid.

Guests were directed to a refreshment table and were served bridal cake squares delicately decorated with design of wedding flowers, cream punch, nuts, mints and cheese stars. The table was covered with a lovely organdy cloth over satin, and was centered with an arrangement of white pom-poms and snapdragons. Mrs. Wright Teachey of Wilmington served punch from a beautiful silver bowl and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Pattie Martin and Miss Peggy Allen. A huge wedding cake was a focal decoration. After the guests had been received the newly married couple cut the cake for the group.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Teachey.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Williams of Portsmouth, Va., parents of the bridegroom entertained at a dinner in the Greenwood Room of the Rose Hill Restaurant following the William-Teachey Wedding Rehearsal on Friday evening.

PARTY FOR MISS TEACHEY AND MISS CARTER

On Thursday morning, Aug. 29th Mrs. Jack Cooper and Mrs. L.A. Wilson entertained at a recipe and advice party at the Wilson home on East Main St. in Rose Hill, honoring Miss Jo Carter and Miss Linda Teachey brides elect.

The house was decorated in a colorful fall motif with flowers and foliage. The two brides-elect were presented with corsages of bronze and yellow daisies.

Guests were received by Miss Betty Wells Fussell and shown to the living room. Each guest brought a favorite recipe for each honoree, written on uniform file folders which had been sent as invitations. Each card also contained "words of wisdom" added as advice to guide the young ladies along their matrimonial journey. After having been served refreshments of coffee, cheetos, coffee cake and tiny sandwiches of cheese and bacon between slices of pickle, the young brides-to-be read the advice they had received to the group.

Attending were the following ladies: Mesdames Marvin Carter and P.C. Teachey, mothers of the honorees, Granville Sheffield, Dennis Ramsey, Bettie Teachey, Norman Teachey, Rhodes Young, J.C. Cooper, Sr., J.W. Blanchard, Dan J. Fussell, Sr., R.E. Fussell, Sr., Doane Fussell, H.M. Price, C.T. Fussell, Sr., Elwyn G. Murray, Sr., C.P. Mrs. Barnes Produces Pumpkins

Down on Goshen, famed for the Biblical Land of Plenty, pumpkins grow to a mammoth size.

Mrs. Floyd Barnes of Rt. 1, Kenansville exhibits two of her prize productions. The two together tip the scales just over 200 pounds. They measure 22 inches tall and five feet two inches around.

Mrs. Barnes believes they might have grown much larger but that particular area experienced one of the driest growing seasons on record.

"It is no special kind of pumpkin," said Mrs. Barnes, "but there were only two on the plant, and they may have had something to do with their size."

Class in Oil Painting

A class in oil painting will begin Tuesday, September 10, 1968, at 7:00 P.M. at James Sprunt Institute in Kenansville, N.C. The class will be taught by Mr. Steve Greer, and will meet each Tuesday and Thursday night for 12 weeks in the commercial art laboratory from 7:00 P.M. until 10:00 P.M. Students must furnish supplies for the tuition-free course.
