

WE SALUTE

Mrs. Raeford Bostic

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN

Jane Bostic, who says she is probably better known as Cora Jane, is a native of Rose Hill, a graduate of Rose Hill High School. She is married to Raeford Bostic of Rt. 1, Warsaw, where Mr. Bostic is engaged in farming. Jane doesn't get involved in the farming, even to the extent of knowing what they grow but she is sure they have three chicken houses for layers. Jane has been employed by the Warsaw A & P Store for the past 14 years. The Bostics have one daughter, Brenda, a senior at James Kenan High School, and are members of the First Baptist Church of Warsaw.

Mr. & Mrs. Frank F. Giddings

At the age of 91 Mr. Frank Giddings is one of the most active persons in Warsaw. He and Mrs. Giddings are alone now as their children are married and away. Both have been married previously. Mr. Giddings has four children.

Walter Giddings who lived in Rose Hill many years but has recently moved to Nappies, Florida; Arthur, of Hampton, Virginia; Mrs. Mable Bradshaw of Rose Hill; and Hubert Linwood Giddings, Naples, Fla.

Mrs. Giddings was formerly Clara Scott Gavin. Her children are: Aisa, Varland, Ira, Elmer, V.B. and Elizabeth. Aisa has spent many years in Alaska and plans to return there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Giddings have lots of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, so many they have even lost count. They enjoy visiting their family and Mr. Giddings says there is only one way really to travel and that is by whisper jet. He loves flying and is ready for a trip any time the children send a ticket.

It is no wonder that Mr. Giddings is the best gardener any where around. His kind and gentle manner assures you that each plant receives tender loving care.-- When asked where were the wrinkles to show for 91 years, he said, "I've worked them away" and if he feels badly he just works harder.

A native of Indiana, Mr. Giddings came with his father to this area when he was about 20 years old. He recalls hauling timber, as a boy, with four horses in 15 below zero temperature. He farmed most of his life, but he also operated a grocery store and worked in a theater. He attends the Methodist Church when possible.
