

Poultry Princess 1st Official Appearance

Captain C.S. Marple on the Coast Guard Cutter MENDOTA (WHEC-69) and Miss Gayle Sloan, seventeen of Chinquapin, N.C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Sloan was crowned MISS

POULTRY PRINCESS 1968-69, Thursday night October 3rd. Her last television appearance was on the Jane Foville program Friday October 4. Miss Foville talked with Miss Sloan about the duties of Miss Poultry Princess and asked a Jaycee spokesman about the activities for the rest of the week end.

After the TV appearance, Miss Sloan and her chaperon, Mrs. Annette Fountain and Jaycee escort, Ray Sanderson went aboard the Coast Guard Cutter

Mendota. There the party was given a tour of the ship. After the tour they were carried to the Captains Quarters and spent a most enjoyable hour with Captain C.S. Marple. The Mendota is presently undergoing renovation for service with the Navy. The Mendota will begin her tour of duty sometime about the first of January.

Nurses Learn About Poultry Lab

District #27 of the North Carolina State Nurses' Association met Tuesday Night, October 1, 1968 in the Dining Room of Duplin General Hospital. After a brief business session, led by president, Mrs. Mae Griffin, Mrs. Ruth Quinn, Chairman of the Office Nurse Section Program Committee, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Hugh Powell, who is director of the Rose Hill Poultry Disease Diagnosis Lab, which opened in 1960.

This lab is one of eight in the state, working mainly with chickens and turkeys. The main purpose of the lab is diagnosis of poultry diseases and advise on how to treat, control and prevent diseases in poultry. They handle about 200 cases each month, each case averaging five birds, and serve an approximate 75 mile radius.

Following Dr. Powell's interesting address, the nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 1968:

Board of Directors: Mrs. Mattie Bostic, and Mrs. Ruby Merritt

1st Vice President: Mrs. Chris Blake, Burgaw

Secretary: Mrs. Rebecca H. Judge, Beulaville

Nominating Committee: Mrs. Sarah Wells, Wallace

Miss Mary Lee Sykes, Kenansville

Mrs. Jennie Walker.

The 1968 Clinical Sessions will be held Oct. 22-25 at the Jack Tar Hotel, Durham, N.C.

Following adjournment, delicious refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. Emily Wells, Mrs. Mae Wilson, and Mrs. Ruth Quinn.

Postal Employee Cut

Postmaster Colon Holland has announced a cut in hourly employment in the Kenansville postoffice.

Due to this cut he urges that mail going out in the afternoon be in the postoffice by 4 p.m. He explained that by getting the bulk of the mail in early in the afternoon it can be processed without interfering with morning work hours. Otherwise morning mail will be late getting up.

New Methodist Bishop To Visit Area

Bishop William Ragsdale Cannon, newly-elected bishop of the Raleigh Episcopal Area of the United Methodist Church, will be visiting Methodists of the Goldsboro District on Sunday, October 20. The Goldsboro District includes Methodist churches in Wayne, Johnston, Greene, Lenoir, Duplin, and Sampson counties.

Prior to his election to the episcopacy, Bishop Cannon taught Church History and Historical Theology at Emory University's Candler School of Theology. He became dean of the theological school in 1953, a position which he held until his election to the episcopacy in July of this year. He has served as delegate to The World Council of Churches; he was an official observer at the recent session of The Vatican Council.

The new Methodist leader has addressed himself to the difficult and unusual task of visiting the home of every Methodist minister in Eastern North Carolina. He will visit ministers of the Goldsboro District on Monday, October 21.

A reception and open house will be held in his honor at the district parsonage at 617 Banks Avenue in Goldsboro from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Methodist ministers and laymen from the district have been invited to attend the reception.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES - SENTINEL

Edward Brown, center, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Macon Brown of Beulaville received the Eagle Scout Award at special services in Beulaville Baptist Church. With him are Rod Dew, Scout master, right and Rayburn Cottle.

Brown Receives Eagle Scout Award

In services held Sunday night October 13, at Beulaville Baptist Church, William Edward Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Macon Brown, received the Eagle Scout Award, the highest scouting award.

Mr. Tom Deaton, District Scout Executive, of Warsaw, presided over the ceremony. Opening with a brief introduction of scouts, the scouts entered the church together and remained standing for the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag, and the Boy Scout Honor. Mr. Deaton gave a talk on scouts' importance to their country, town, and themselves, and gave the requirements for becoming eligible for the eagle scout award.

Twelve boy scouts preceded to the front of the church each with an unlighted candle, while Scout Richard Thomas escorted William Edward to the front, as he knelt Rev. Eugene Carmichael led in Prayer. William Edward lighted his candle, and preceded down the row of boy scouts, lighting a candle and repeating one of the scout's 12 ideals, placing emphasis on the last, A Scout is Reverent. He then proceeded to the platform where Mr. Deaton called his scout master Mr. Rod Dew to the platform, and presented Eagle Scout certificates. Scout C.A. Miller escorted William Edward's parents to the platform, where Mr. Dew presented the award for Mrs. Brown, a scout necklace, and a tie pin for his father.

William Edward is a 15-year-old-sophomore at East Duplin High. In addition to being an active scout, he is a member of the Health Careers Club, Monogram Club and won his letter in Golf, F. T. A. Club, Spanish Club, and Jr. Varsity Basketball. He also plays the organ and piano, and is a pianist for the Young Peoples Department at Beulaville Baptist Church.

William Edward is the 1st boy in Beulaville ever to receive this award. The community is very proud of him.
