Miss Ray is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ray of Schuyler, and Mr. Matthews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Matthews.

The young couple honeymooned in the Blue Ridge Mountains stopping at various places along the Parkway, and ended their trip with a visit to Topsall Beach. They are now in their new home near Rose Hill on Route 1.

The Good Old Days Rose Hill Basket Ball Team 1941

Twenty seven years ago this basketball team was of prime interest to the people of the town and of great importance to their opponents in the county for they were known as hard players who played to win. Their coach was Mr. Thurmon Denning, then teaching here, but now superintendent of Sampson County Schools. We don't remember their record of wins or losses that year, but do remember that there were more wins, for the team finished first in the county tournament.

ey, who is a minister's wife and living in Indiana.

Second row, left to right: India Register who is still in Rose Hill and is Mrs. John Moore; Mildred Best who was here only a year; Helen Teachey, who lives in California; Grace Robinson, now in Maryland; and cure little Estelle Thomas, who married Pete Hawes and lives in Jacksonville, N.C.

3rd row, Mr. Denning, Leola Jones, now living near Rose Hill (she's Mrs. Jack English); Annie Barden who is Mrs. George P. Matthews of Rose Hill; and Anna Holmes Leevis, who married McDonald Rouse and lives in Rockingham.

Service Man Of The Week

Cluster for meritorious service.

Before entering the service this Rose Hill soldier had gone to Philadelphia to live with his aunt. While there he became a member of Moore's Memorial Baptist Church and had served as Sunday School Superintendent, trustee and member of the choir. On his return home he was honored by a "Welcome Home" service given by his church. His mother was fortunate to be able to welcome him back in Philadelphia and attend this service.

Sgt. Rochelle is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Anthony of the Charity Community near Rose Hill. While here he attended New Christian Chapel Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Charity High School.

After going to Philadelphia to stay he was married and she and his wife make their official residence there.

Sergeant Rochelle's new assignment for duty is at Xavier University, in Cincinnati, Ohio, as an R.O.T.C. instructor and he will report for duty very early in November.

We congratulate him on his attainments and are proud that he is from Duplin County.

Sgt. Jonathan ("Joe") Rochelle, a native of Rose Hill, has been in service for six years and recently finished his tour of duty in Vietnam. He left the states from Fort Dix, N.J. on September 28, 1967 and returned on Sept. 23, 1968.

Sgt. Rochelle was stationed near Cher-hoi with Co. C 4 Bn, 31st Infantry 196LIB, a part of the American Division and served as platoon Sgt. of the 3rd platoon. He was awarded the Bronze Star with the V-device for bravery and the Oak Leaf

Rose Hill Brownie Troop

The newly organized Rose Hill Brownie Troop was organized on October 10th. The troop is sponsored by the Rose Hill Baptist Church and meets in the church annex. Meetings are held on Thursday afternoons. The troop is a member of the Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina. The leaders are Mrs. Austin Baker, and Mrs. Eugene Hall.

Eastern Star

Mrs. Joe Westbrook, District Deputy Grand Matron, and Mr. Fred Revelle, District Deputy Grand Patron of the 8th District of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, Order of the Eastern Star made their official visit to Rehoboth Chapter #196, Rose Hill on October 15 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Lou Wilkins, Dorothy Mason, and James A. Ward, worthy Patron, were in their stations.

The District Deputies brought greetings and special messages to the chapter. Visiting Stars from the Kenansville chapter were recognized.

A social hour with refreshments followed the meeting. The next stated meeting will be held on November 5th.
