Hold Girl Scouting in Duplin

In a time when the earth has been orbited and the atom smashed, it becomes a problem to keep up with the changing needs and the new knowledge of our young people. Yet unless they are guided and educated in the important qualities that make fine citizens, they can well lose sight of the meaning and importance of living the good life, even in so frightening an age.

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. is dedicated to the belief that by teaching young girls how to be happy, resourceful individuals today they are helping train America's citizens for tomorrow.

The Girl Scout who lives in the Space Age promises on her honor to do her duty to God and her country. She chooses to serve -- in her home, her hometown, and she is learning to become a useful citizen in her country and in the world.

Last year, Girl Scouts in the U.S.A. gave more than seventy million hours of service in home, community, and to the nation . . . and to many international friendship projects in our fifty states and Puerto Rico.

In Duplin County we have nearly 500 Girl Scouts from the ages of seven to seventeen. More than 30 men and women serve in Girl Scouting. These dedicated men and women help make the fine Girl Scout program a reality for Girl Scouts in our community.

In a time when the earth has been orbited and the atom smashed, Girl Scouts still cling to the old fashioned, but still important virtues of service and concern for our fellows.

By giving generously to this year's Girl Scout Fund Drive in Duplin County you will be helping our girls become good Scouts today, and better citizens tomorrow.

Duplin's Overseas Christmas List

Response to last week's article in the Duplin Times calling for Christmas Greetings to our overseas Servicemen is arriving, but we want more names and addresses of Duplin's own men who will be far from home this Christmas. We want to show them that they are not forgotten, that they are far from home they are missed, not only by their own folks, but by many other Duplinites who are thinking of them and praying for their safe return.

The letters came in from families who add notes about their boys, and who express appreciation for the interest shown in them. Some, whose sons are now home remember how much it meant to them to get the extra Christmas mail from those who cared enough to write last year. In all, a few more than 22 names were published, last year, of men who were away. Several people stated their intention to send a card to each. We have no way of measuring the happiness caused by these Christmas greetings, but we do know they were needed, and that they were about all the mail a few boys received.

So lets put the lists carefully away when they are published, and before Christmas let's send as many cards as possible. Let's tell them they have our thoughts, our good wishes and our prayers, and let's send them cheery Christmas greetings.

The list is growing and mail makes so much difference in Viet Nam, Korea and other far away places. It has been said that "mail can make the greatest difference on a most important day to a most important life." Send your Duplin Serviceman's name and address to Mrs. L. A. Wilson, Rose Hill, N.C. and it will be published in the Duplin Times for friends to use for greetings. A front page article in last week's "Duplin" Times began it and the addresses have begun coming
