New SAW TOPS Officers Installed

The new officers of the SAW TOPS Club were installed in a candlelight ceremony at seven-thirty on Tuesday evening following the business session. The meeting was held in the Fire Hut.

Mr. Jean (Al) Smith, outgoing leader, served as installing officer. In her opening remarks, she reviewed items of particular interest which have taken place during the last year. These included the various contests devised to entice members to lose weight, some of the socials of the year, helping other Tops clubs organize, the state convention held in Burlington in June, the graduation of three of our members in July, and being pigs in the Veterans' Day Parade.

Jean asked each officer to pledge to fulfill the duties of her office as she lit her candle from a main candle. Officers installed were Mrs. Judy (J.B.) Herring, leader; Mrs. Evelyn (Page) Johnson, co-leader; Mrs. Jane (Charles) Hinson, secretary; Mrs. Marjorie (J.P.) Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. Eva (Robert) Lewis, weight recorder; Mrs. Frances (L.J.) Quinn, Fellowship Chairman; Mrs. Ghaynelle (Emmons) Garner, Scrapbook Chairman; Mrs. Nancy (Josh) Jones, reporter; Mrs. Geraldine Wray, photographer; and Mrs. Gladys (O.S.) Carroll, Telephone Committee Chairman.

After the installation ceremony, Judy gave the guidelines for the new weight-losing contest.

Jean and Gladys Cook were presented gifts from the club for serving so ably as leader and weight recorder.

Refreshments of cookies and iced fruit juice were served.

Girl Scout adults attending the Annual Meeting of the Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina were challenged by Mrs. Russell B. Carson, Chairman of Region III, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. to hold fast to the values of Girl Scouting while finding new ways to meet the needs of the girls of today and tomorrow.

Mrs. Carson, active in Girl Scouting for many years in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and now as a member of the National Board of Directors of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., stressed the contribution Girl Scouting makes to the community as well as to the girls and their families and congratulated the group on their service given to the Council and its program.

A highlight of the meeting was the presentation of the Thanks Badge, highest award in Girl Scouting, to Mrs. Carl Hammer, now of Fayetteville, for her years of devoted and outstanding service to Girl Scouting and the Council while living in Goldsboro. Presentation was made by Mrs. Gall Jones of Greenville. A pin in recognition of thirty years of service in Girl Scouting was presented to Mrs. J.W. Sexton of Rocky Mount. Twenty-five years of membership of Mrs. R.W. Jones of Camp Lejeune and twenty years service by Mrs. George Vick of Kinston were also recognized.

Elected to the Board of Directors for full term were Third Vice President, Mrs. M.A. Berry of Jacksonville; Treasurer, Thomas G. Cole of Goldsboro, and Members-at-Large, Mrs. H.C. Roe, Jr. of Weldon, Mrs. Lillita G. Taylor of Greenville, Fred Kendall of Roanoke Rapids, and Mrs. Lawrence Bowers of Whiteville. Elected for unexpired terms were First Vice President, Mrs. Joseph Thigpen of Williamston and Members-at-Large, Richard F. Griswold, Jr. of Goldsboro, Mrs. John Stanley of Woodland, Zeb M. Whitehurst, III, Wilson, and Mrs. John B. Casey of Greenville. Nominating Committee members elected for a full term were Mrs. Hardy Wessell of Wrightsville Beach and Mrs. R.J. Petzel of M.C.A.S., Jacksonville; and for an unexpired term Mrs. James T. Hubbard of Tarboro.

The installation was conducted by Council President, Mrs. Dennis Hookway of Kinston, who presided at the meeting. Other business included the adoption of revised By-laws for the Council.

Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. E.B. Wheeler, wife of the Commanding General at Camp Lejeune; Colonel and Mrs. R. Leu, Commanding Officer of the Marine Corp Air Station at New River; Jacksonville Mayor W. Burre Teashey, Jr.; Lt. Colonel W.O.
