PERSONALS

Mrs. Coy Peeler of Gold Hill is spending a month with her daughter, Mrs. C.W. Surratt. Reverend C.T. Rogers of Tarboro, recently visited old friends in Rose Hill and Wallace for several days. Mr. Rogers was pastor of the Rose Hill Methodist Church for nine years and has now retired from the active ministry while here he stopped with Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Young, and visited with many old friends in town.

Mrs. C.T. Fussell, Sr. has returned from an extended visit to her son, Aaron Fussell, and his family in Raleigh. Mrs. J.W. Blanchard has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Lemuel Dawson of Snow Hill, who has returned to her home there from Lenoir General Hospital where she was confined following a very serious accident earlier in the fall. Mrs. Blanchard returned home last week and reports Mrs. Dawson to be improving. Mrs. Dawson is the former Miss Winifred Rouse of Rose Hill.

There has been much visiting in Rose Hill homes through the Thanksgiving season, and many Rose Hillians have visited away over the holidays. Due to illness this reporter has not been able to report many visits. She would appreciate any information on the "comings and goings" you will send her and will send them in

Mrs. Carr (formerly Clara Robinson) suffered a cracked bone in the right cheek and a paralyzed nerve has resulted. Their son, MacDonald Carr, Jr., received slight injuries and was dismissed after first aid at the hospital. Their neighbor, who was driving, has broken ribs and his wife received a broken knee cap. All were bruised and shaken.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Robinson of Rose Hill returned from their daughter's home on Sunday evening saying they were still in a most painful condition and not yet able to be up. Mrs. Adelle Carr and Miss Dolly Sue Carr are with them this week.
