During the regular morning worship service at the First Baptist Church in Warsaw on Sunday, November 24, Lindsey Clark and Nathan Costin, Jr. were presented the coveted Eagle Scout Award -- the highest achievement in The Boy Scouts of America.

Following the worship service which was conducted by the Rev. Charles Hinson, the presentation was conducted by District Scout Executive Tom Deaton. Mr. Deaton called the Color Guard which was composed of Douglas Jones, Alton Bostic, and Billy Faust, Jr. to post the flag. He then led the congregation in the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag.

Mr. Deaton explained the different ranks required in the long trail to earn the coveted award. Scouts of Troop 20 and Troop 44 filed in, each group representing the various ranks. Scouts must attain as he progresses toward his cherished goal -- that of Eagle Scout.

The twelve Scouts which followed bearing white candles took their places around the altar where Nathan and Lindsey lit the candles while naming the twelve scouts laws. As they did this Eagle Scout Bill Britt explained the meaning of each. Nathan's two brothers, Charles and Michael, were among the candle bearers. Charles is a Life Scout; and Michael, the youngest, is 2nd Class. Lindsey and Nathan were led forth to receive their awards by Eagle Scouts, Steve Sheffield and David Sheffield, both recipients of the coveted award the previous Sunday.

Mr. Deaton presented the awards to Scoutmaster Bill Faust
