Kretsch County Key Banker

To coordinate the agricultural activities of the N.C. Bankers Association in this area, P. Kretsch Jr., has been named County Key Banker for Duplin County.

NCBA President J. Paul Ford of Belmont has announced that Mr. Kretsch will serve as County Key Banker during the next 12 months. He is Vice President of Waccamaw Bank & Trust Co., in Kenansville.

For 23 years the NCBA has received national recognition for its far-reaching program of service to agriculture in North Carolina. President Ford, noting the work of bankers in behalf of agriculture, thanked the 100 County Key Bankers for their role in this record.

Ford called attention to the projects that are sponsored by the Association such as the annual Farm Credit Conference which will again be held in Raleigh, February 10-11, 1969, the two-week school at N.C.S.U. for young farmers who are provided scholarships given by their home community banks, and the co-sponsorship of the land judging meet in the interest of soil conservation. He also reported that the banks of North Carolina continue to lend more money to farmers than any other institutional group of lenders, last year providing $181 million in loans.

December 9, 1968

Dear Friend,

We invite you to our Open House on Thursday December 12th to celebrate our 11th Anniversary in this location and the reopening of our newly redecorated and restocked shoppe.

We are truly grateful for your patronage that has made this possible. An act of Providence plus cooperation and hard work on the part of many people provides us this opportunity to continue to serve you.

It is our desire to show our appreciation in many ways in the future but at the present--be our guest on Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Drawings will be held on Thursday night and each week until Christmas. We invite you to register each time you visit us.

Our staff, Hazel J. Holland, Josephine K. Hill, Hazel H. Pope, Irene S. Yancey, Ann B. Hobbs, Joan Clifton and Judy Sellers join me in wishing for you a Merry Christmas and Gods richest blessings throughout the year.

Sincerely,

Cleo S. Hobbs

We're Ready for HIS Kind of CHRISTMAS

His kind of Christmas is high on style, big on comfort. It's casual... elegant... colorful. It's the things he needs and some things just for fun. And it's all here, ready for wrapping... just for him.
