Chestnutt - Whitman Vows Spoken

In a candlelight ceremony on last Friday evening, December 6, 1968 at six o'clock Miss Teresa Lee Whitman became the bride of Thomas Eland Chestnutt. The vows were spoken in historic Grove Presbyterian Church at Kenansville.

The Rev. Troy D. Mullis performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the members of the bride and grooms immediate family.

A focal point for the ceremony was a white arrangement of flowers and fern used on the center table with seven branched candelabras on either side holding white lighted tapers.

The bride and groom entered the church together. She was attired in a white bridal satin street length dress with lace sleeves and carried a cascade of white ribbons and fern centered with a white orchid. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Whitman of Kenansville. She graduated from James Kenan High School in 1966 and is now employed at Duplin General Hospital as Ward Secretary.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chestnutt of Rt. 1 Magnolia. He graduated from James Kenan High School near Warsaw in 1966 and attended Wayne Technical Institute in Goldsboro in 1966 and 1967. He is farming on Rt. 1, Magnolia, where they will reside.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Whitman chose a navy blue crepe dress with black accessories. Mrs. Chestnutt, the bride-groom's mother wore a two piece suit of blue knit and matching accessories.

A reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Rich following the ceremony. The bride's mother served the wedding cake and Mrs. Rose Rich poured punch. The traditional bride colors, green and white were used.

After the new Mrs. Chestnutt changed to a blue rayon knit dress and wore the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet for their wedding trip.

Mrs. Sitterson Hostess
Mrs. Jack Sitterson entertained her Bridge Club on last Wednesday night at 7:30 with Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell filling the vacancy of the only absent members. Club high scorer was Miss Mary Lee Sykes. She and Mrs. Mitchell were both presented appropriate gifts. For refreshments the hostess served a congealed salad course with coffee.

Mrs. Gooding Hostess
Mrs. Robert Franklin Williamson was additional guest on last Wednesday night when Mrs. G.V. Gooding entertained the Liberty Hall Bridge Club. Mrs. N.B. Boney was high scorer for the evening's play. She and Mrs. Williamson were both presented gifts. The hostess served hot home made cinnamon buns with coffee for refreshments.

Miscellaneous Shower
Miss Teresa Whitman, bride-elect of Tommy Chestnutt was given a miscellaneous shower on Friday night, November 29, in the Grove Presbyterian Educational Building. Joint hostesses were: Mesdames Rose Rich, Sally Bland, Ruby Futrell, Jean Bowling and Pamela Brinson. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Rich. Receiving with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. Rudolph Whitman, her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Nettie Aldison and the bride-grooms mother, Mrs. Thomas Chestnutt. They were each pinned upon their
