Mrs. Johnson
Club Hostess

The Rose Hill Town and Country Club met on December 3, at the home of Mrs. Bizzell Johnson. Mrs. Frank Blanchard, vice-president, presided. Mrs. Johnson conducted a devotional service.

Mrs. E.G. Murray, Jr., program chairman, presented Mrs. Clayton Herring who spoke on "Decorating for Christmas." She illustrated her talk with decorations that she had made, and brought to the meeting. Mrs. Herring said that the family should participate in the decorating. She said that Christmas is a precious time for creating memories, and cementing friendship and family ties. She added that the decorations should be thoughtfully planned to harmonize with the home, and it should not be overdone. She said that red and green is always good, and there should always be a religious theme some place in the house.

Mrs. Murray presented the speaker with a beautiful cake. The meeting closed with the collect. The hostess served turkey salad, crackers, and coffee to the ten members, and three visitors present.

Mrs. Alderman
Presents Recital

Mrs. L.K. Alderman of Rose Hill will present her Glee Club and Piano pupils in a recital on December 13 at 7:30 o'clock in the Magnolia Elementary School. The public is invited to attend.
