

To Warsaw Post Office

A special "Citation of Merit" for cooperation in President Johnson's Natural Beauty Program will be presented at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, December 13 to the Town of Warsaw, Postmaster H.F. Lee said today.

Postmaster Lee will accept the award on behalf of the citizens of Warsaw and the ladies of the Warsaw Garden Club who helped in the beautification effort. Congressman David Henderson who will represent Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson at the presentation ceremony said: "Only those communities which have made a concerted effort to improve the appearance of their post offices are recipients of this award." Mr. A.D. Waters, Jr., Postal Service Officer, Fayetteville, North Carolina, will represent the Post Office Department for Mr. C.B. Gladden, Regional Director, Atlanta, Georgia, at the ceremony.

The citation is presented after the postal facility has received a superior rating in a very rigid inspection by postal officials from regional headquarters and reviewed carefully by the Assistant Postmaster General for Facilities.

President Johnson's Natural Beauty Program is designed to improve the landscape of the nation. The Warsaw Post Office will receive the award as a result of the careful planning that went into the planting of shrubbery, trees, and ivy which have added much to the postal facility and surrounding grounds and which make the post office a more pleasant place to visit and do business.

Postmaster Lee would like to pay special tribute and express his deep appreciation to Mrs. E.C. Thompson, Mrs. S.E. Godwin, and Mrs. H.B. McNeill who were especially instrumental in effecting this beautification project.

A brief ceremony has been planned for this date and will be held in the Post Office Lobby. All citizens and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Brinson And Sisters In Wreck

A Kenansville lady and her two sisters were involved in an early morning wreck in Pink Hill on Saturday morning Dec. 7th.

Mrs. Willard Brinson was accompanying her sisters, Mrs. Ed Evans and daughter Janet of Wilmington, and Mrs. Alvin Powell and daughters of Magnolia to Kinston. Janet Evans had an appointment for pre-natal examination for nurses training at Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston at 9 a.m.

The 1964 Pontiac driven by Mrs. Evans was declared a total loss when hit by a 1964 Comet driven by Robert Lee Brown, age 75. The Brown car came from the street at the corner of the Esso Station on the Highway 11 bypass through Pink Hill.

The occupants of the Evans car were taken to Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston where they were given emergency treatment and released. Mrs. Evans was referred to her family doctor in Wilmington, and following a visit to him, she was hospitalized in New Hanover Memorial Hospital in Wilmington.

Janet's exam was rescheduled for January.

Lucy Webb Hayes was the first President's wife to have a college degree, notes World Book Encyclopedia.

The only bachelor President of the U.S., according to World Encyclopedia, was James Buchanan.

Hardison's condition was reported satisfactory and he was expected to be released from the hospital shortly.

Duplin County emerged as the most outstanding 4-H county of 1968 in The Star-News Newspapers Southeastern North Carolina 4-H Honor Program held in Wilmington on Saturday, November 23.

Duplin also won the plaque for the greatest participation with its score of 42 blue rosettes, top for any county, 32 red rosettes and 27 white rosettes. There were 531 rosettes awarded with Duplin having the most in each placing.

Ten counties participated in the Southeastern North Carolina 4-H program, sponsored by the Newspapers. The project begins with the individual county achievement programs. The winners of these come together in the area event in Wilmington. Area winners are chosen here by judges who are specialists in a score of fields.

Besides the exhibits, Saturday's program in Brogden Hall included public speaking contests, talent contests, dress revue contests and across Market Street on the ROTC field, the skill driving contest. In addition to these events, several categories were judged by specialists at N.C. State University on the basis of 4-H project and career records.

Duplin County's Susan Carter of the Greenwood 4-H Club won the plaque as senior teen dress revue champion; Duplin's Richard Waller of Pleasant Grove 4-H Club won the auto skill driving contest plaque. Gall Costin of the Warsaw-Shamrock 4-H Club won the public speaking contest. Linda Smith of Smith's 4-H Club presided during the program. The following Duplin 4-H'ers competed: Alisa Boyette, Chinquapin 4-H Club, talent contestant; Lynn Halt, Warsaw-Shamrock 4-H Club, public speaking contestant; June Horne, Cypress Creek 4-H Club, dress revue contestant; and Sylvia Ward, Beaver Dam 4-H Club, early teen dress revue contestant.

Bill Costin, Sr., Adult 4-H Leader of the Warsaw-Shamrock 4-H Club, made an excellent presentation at the Leaders Meeting, and C.A. Miller, Jr., 4-H'er of the Cedar Fork Club, also made an excellent showing at the Leaders Meeting as program participants.

Making the awards presentations were James B. Wilson, Executive Editor, and Leslie Gruber, Regional Editor, of the Wilmington Star-News.

The following Duplin County club members received ribbons: Lynn Hall, Warsaw-Shamrock; Ruth Denning, Warsaw-Shamrock; Dwight Waller, Pleasant Grove; Susan Carter, Greenwood; Linda Smith, Smith's; Gerald Kornegay, Pleasant Grove; Bill Costin, Jr., Warsaw-Shamrock; Bessie Jean Brinson, Stanford.

DON'T DEPEND TOO MUCH ON STOP SIGNS AND SIGNALS. YOU MAY HAVE THE RIGHT-OF-WAY AT AN INTERSECTION, BUT BE SURE THE DRIVER OF THE CAR ON THE CROSS-STREET HAS HEARD HIS RED LIGHT OR STOP SIGN.

GOING DOWN STEEP HILLS, BEFORE YOU PICK UP TOO MUCH SPEED, IT'S SMARTEST TO SHIFT INTO LOWER GEAR AND LET THE ENGINE DO THE BRAKING. ON LONG GRADES, YOU MAY ALSO NEED TO PUMP YOUR BRAKES LIGHTLY.

Christmas Trees

Liberty Hall will be all dressed up for the Christmas season. The Florists of the county, as well as the garden clubs will decorate the house in the traditional style of the period.

The Christmas trees will begin at 10 A.M. each day. Refreshments will be served on Dec. 31 to guests when they reach the living room.
