

Duplin Takes Honors in SENCland Development Assn.

Wilmington College should not be thought of just as Wilmington College but as a college of Southeastern North Carolina. Dr. Wagoner was introduced by W.T. Emmans, Vice President of the SENCland Development Association.

The SENCland Development Association Incorporated, is chartered to promote through regional cooperation, the industrial, agricultural and recreational well-being of the people of Southeastern North Carolina.

O.C. Dobson, President of Duplin County SENCland Development Association, beams happiness as his farm community is placed 3rd in the Six County SENCland Development Association contest. A $50.00 award accompanied the placing.

RESOLUTION: Mrs. Ada Hussey Williams

With feelings of deepest sorrow and regret, the Women of Smith's Presbyterian Church must record the passing of one of its most beloved and respected members, Mrs. Ada Hussey Williams, who passed away on November 8, 1968.

Because we realize to the fullest extent the benefits which our church and the entire community have received from the work of this dedicated Christian, and because of the warm personal feelings she inspired in our hearts by her kind unselfish life, Be It Resolved:

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her husband, Mr. Earl Williams, and her daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Aldridge, together with our sincere sympathy. Also that a copy be sent to The Duplin Times-Progress Sentinel for publication and that a copy be recorded in the minutes of The Women of Smith's Presbyterian Church.

DEATH

Magnolia Community Development officers Left to Right: Rudolph Becton, President, George E. Vann, Vice President and Mrs. Phebia Moore, Secretary. The Magnolia Club was given 2nd place in non-farm communities in the Six County SENCland Development area for 1968. The club received a $100.00 cash award for its placing. The award was made Friday night at the Dixie Restaurant at Calabash, North Carolina.

Two Duplin County communities scored heavily in the community improvements during 1968. This was made public at the twelfth annual meeting of the SENCland Development Association last Friday night at Calabash. Magnolia was awarded 2nd place in non-farm competition in the six county area. While Dobson's Chapel of Route 1, Kenansville place 3rd in farm competition.

Dr. William H. Wagoner, President of Wilmington College was the principal speaker. Dr. Wagoner pointed out that our last frontier is not outer-space but the areas in the swamps, sounds, oceans and waterways. The youthful educator said the local communities are not self supporting entities within themselves but are dependent upon the development of the entire area. He further stated that
